

MILLIGAN COLLEGE
P.O. Box 500, One Blowers Blvd., Milligan
College
461-8756

Milligan College is a higher education institution offering more than 25 undergraduate degree programs, three master's degrees and 23 intercollegiate sports.

In 2010, Milligan opened the new state-of-the-art Gilliam Wellness Center, received LEED Gold certification and began offering its MBA program and Walters State's Morristown campus.

Milligan plans this year to renovate Seeger Chapel, dedicate the Mary B. Martin Auditorium and develop long-range plans for new residence halls.

Headquarters: Milligan College

Founded: 1866

Principal officers/department heads: Donald R. Jeanes, president; Bill Greer, vice president for institutional advancement; Lee Fierbaugh, vice president for enrollment management and marketing; Mark Matson, vice president for academic affairs/dean; Jacqui Steadman, vice president for business and finance; Mark Fox, vice president for student development

Employed: 250 in 2010, 33 more than in 2009