WE DEDICATE

this record

of our year.

The Senior Class and the staff of the "Buffalo" humbly and with greatest admiration dedicate this publication to Dr. Spencer Gervin. With his wide range of interests and activities, Dr. Gervin has become a beloved member of the Milligan family. His brilliant mind, his musical talents, and his warm sense of humor have done much to maintain the warm spirit for which Milligan is famous.

Accept our gratitude, Dr. Gervin, for all you have done for Milligan and for all those whose lives have profited by knowing you.

MID-YEAR ADDITIONS

Every year new students come to Milligan after the pictures for the BUFFALO have been taken. But we think it's only fair that these students get in here somewhere, so here they are. Welcome to the Milligan family, you-all!

ACTIVITIES

BUFFALO STAFF

With triumph in our eyes and a prayer on our lips, the BUFFALO staff here puts into your hands the product of a year's blood, sweat, and tears. Limited by both time and space, we hope that this will be a satisfactory record of the 1957-'58 school year, and that it will help you to remember how wonderful it all was.

STAMPEDE STAFF

You can always recognize a journalist by the pencil behind one ear and a harried, "the-deadline-was-yesterday" look on his face. Such people make up the staff of our campus newspaper, which keeps students and faculty informed about the persons and events that make Milligan news.

Standing: Ira Read, First Semester Editor; Ruth Hammack, Second Semester Editor; Martha Fry, Business Manager. Seated: Miss Hazel Turbeville, Advisor.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE CLUB

A vital part of Milligan's spiritual life, the Christian Service Club provides an outlet of service for its many members. Meeting every week, the club sponsors gospel teams which present programs for churches both locally and in several other states. CSC has no dues and is open to anyone who wishes to attend.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

"The Importance of Being Earnest"

Curtain call for the "Earnest" cast.

For those intoxicated by grease paint and spotlights, the dramatics clubs provide an outlet. In the "Footlighters" the club's members learn all phases of dramatic production, including properties, costumes, make-up, scenery, and acting.

Alpha Psi Omega is a national honorary dramatics fraternity for those excelling in dramatics and theatrical production. Membership is the result of earned points gained by work in the many phases of the theater.

APO officers: Arthur Edwards, Advisor; Gordon Ellis, Business Manager; Billie Oakes, Grand Director; Ruth Eason, Stage Manager; Gary Blass, Sergeant at Arms.

O. H. Peters, Willis Warrender, Jim Newby, Sammy Starnes, Julie Read, Jim Stidham, Jan Shaffer, Bob Cox, Lane Sisk, Borbara Main.

PRE-MED CLUB

The Pre-Med Club is primarily for those students doing undergraduate work in some field of medicine. The club members hear lectures by eminent leaders in many areas of the medical profession.

Officers: Jan Shaffer, Secretary; Jim Stidham, President; Lane Sisk, Advisar; Bob Cox, Treasurer. Not Pictured: Julie Read, Vice President.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

For students planning to enter the field of education, Future Teachers of America provides an introduction into the organized teaching profession. The club's aim is to interest the better student to make education a life-time career.

BUFFALO RAMBLERS

Officers: Jerry Willis, President; Laura Nelle Hamilton, Secretary.

Necessary in the hectic life of Milligan campus, this club's main aim is exercise and relaxation. Hikes, mountain climbing, and cave exploring are natural activities in beautiful East Tennessee.

Kneeling: Richard Burger. Standing: Jim Love, Frank Parker, Don Kapornyai, Lucille Salters, Louise Garlichs, Mickey Daubert, Noma Kanaka, Dr. Byron Lambert.

President Don Kapornyai and Advisor Dr. Byron Lambert.

RADIO CLUB

No "mike fright" for these veteran radio announcers. The Radio Club provides ample experience in radio techniques in its meetings and in the production of the radio program "Milligan College Speaks," which is presented once a week over Johnson City's WETB.

VETERANS CLUB

A club for the ever-increasing number of service veterans who have chosen Milligan for their college education. They have as their purpose the easing of the rehabilitation period for the members while being of service to the school.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Milligan is always proud of her basketball team, and this year was certainly no exception. Two members of the 1957-'58 squad were chosen for the All-Conference teams in both the Smoky Mountain Athletic Conference and the Volunteer State Athletic Conference. Co-Captains Del Harris and Sonny Smith received these honors. Both were also selected for the SMAC All-Tourney team, and Smith also made VSAC All-Tournament.

WE BEAT STATE!

The basketball story for the 1957-'58 season was headlined by two victories over arch-rival East Tennessee State College. E.T.S.C. teams had won the last 19 encounters between the two schools. But Milligan came out on top 55-51 in the December 2 thriller on the State court, and proved it was no accidental victory by winning again in our home gym 80-76 on January 19. Excitement ran high and school spirit was at its peak.

TENNIS

Both as an intercollegiate sport and as an individual one, tennis at Milligan is as nearly an all year sport as the weather will allow. In the spring the tennis team monopolizes the courts practicing and playing in both S.M.A.C. and V.S.A.C. contests.

TRACK

Track is fast becoming one of Milligan's major sports, with more interest being shown in it every year.

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals for both men and women allow contests in volleyball and basketball. The games are always lively ones and create much comment while the tournaments are in progress. Below are the members of this year's championship girls' volleyball team.

Founder's Day, 1957, was a composite of many activities—open house in the dorms, hectic campaigning, the annual banquet with Virginia's Senator Ted Dalton as speaker, and the selection from eight candidates of Ruth Eason as Founder's Daughter.

MAY COURT

Alumni, friends, and visitors flock to the campus every year early in May to view the crowning of the May Queen, the traditional dance of her court around the May pole, and entertainment by top talent from the student body. The May Court consists of a Freshman girl and her escort, one Sophomore girl and her escort, and two girls each from the Junior and Senior classes, each escorted by a man chosen by her class. The May King and Queen are selected by the entire student body.

Freshmen Charlotte Luttrell and Carroll Buck; Sophomores Eric Crites and Luella Lewis; Seniors Phyllis Wright, Bob French, Jon Shaffer, and Scott Bartchy; Juniors Barbara Tenney, Bob Griffith, Jan Rinnert, and Jerry Willis.
