

Milligan College Thirty-Eight Years Ago

The following article is taken from a column in The Milligan Light, a publication similar to our Stampede.

Class of '91.

Prof. J. V. Thomas, for many years principal of the Preparatory department in Milligan College, has taught for two years in the Department of Science in Harriman University. He has become greatly interested in his profession. He and his wife paid us a visit in July. All enjoyed it.

Miss Mary Hendrickson has her home in Lexington, Ky. She paid us a pleasant visit two weeks ago.

D. S. Burleson, who married Miss Mary Dew, class of '92' has been for three years in the chair of English in the State Normal School at Florence, Alabama. Before going there he spent two years in Virginia University and spent last summer and this in the English department at Harvard. They have two charming little girls.

C. D. M. Showalter, who married Miss Lou Ella English of the same class, has taught in different academies--one year at Milligan, then attended Johns Hopkins one year, farmed two years, and is now principal of Tazewell College, Tazewell, Va. They have an interesting family.

W. R. Motley married Miss Nellie Williams, and preached for many years at Newport News, Va. He is now preaching at Syracuse, New York.

At last account George E. Lyons was still a bachelor and preaching for the church in Iowa. He is a strong and successful preacher.

Dr. Frederick D. Kershner

Doctor Frederick D. Kershner writes: "I went to Milligan in the spring of 1908 from Harriman, Tennessee, where I had been teaching in the American University. The plant at Milligan was very inadequate when I took up my residence there. We put on a campaign for a new building and succeeded in raising enough money to build a brick dormitory for young women. Dr. A. R. Milligan, who was at that time Professor of Latin in Transylvania College, gave $5000 toward the fund. Our enrollment increased throughout the years of my incumbency and we turned out some graduates who have since achieved national reputation. Dr. Frank H. Knight, for example, Professor of Economics at the University of Chicago, his brother, Professor Melvyn K. Knight, Professor of History in the University of California, Dr. A. E. Buck who has become known to the whole nation because of his investigation in the field of municipal government, Mr. H. H. Taylor, who I am sure is well known in Tennessee, and many others whose names I shall not attempt to catalogue. At the close of the year 1911, I accepted a call to become President of Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, Texas, and gave up my work at Milligan to assume the responsibilities of the new position. We still lacked a great deal in the way of a plant, but we had an excellent student body, a good faculty and a very loyal and devoted board of directors at the time of my resignation. There was always a fine spirit at Milligan and a disposition to maintain a correct scale of values by putting first things first, especially in the field of education. To President Hopwood's old motto, "Christian education, the hope of the world," we added the more intensive statement, "Character building first of all." (Continued on page 2)

Endowment Drive

In recent issues of the Buffalo Range we have endeavored to give publicity to the Endowment Fund drive initiated by President Low Taylor to raise $1000.00 to be added to the fund during the school year, 1939-40.

Elsewhere in this edition you will find that we have received in pledges $338. $18 of which have been received and deposited in the bank, leaving a balance $280. If we are to reach our goal of $1000 by Commencement time it is highly necessary that we renew our efforts in securing pledges. We trust that all alumni members who receive the Buffalo Range will take due notice of the result of our drive and will contribute to this worthwhile cause. If you do not feel that you can afford to contribute the sum of $12, please send whatever amount you care to so that we can be reasonably assured that our first goal of $1000.00 will be reached.

Please look over the list and note how many from your class have contributed. May we not look forward to receiving pledges from some of our more recent graduating classes? You will note the latest contribution comes from the class of 1936, the earliest from the class of 1891. In order to make a more favorable at the meeting of the Southern Association let us strive to reach our goal at least in pledges by the middle of April. We feel that you want to contribute to the future welfare of Milligan College.

Mr. J Goff Long,
Secretary-Treas. Alumni Ass.
Milligan College, Tenn.

My dear sir:

Enclosed is a check for $5.00 to be applied on my pledge to Milligan for the year.

As stated on the enclosed card, I shall pay the rest of the $12.00 in small payments before May 1 of this year.

I do hope that the $1000—and even more—can be raised.

Cordially yours

Mary Adeline Hitt

Annual Report of President Frederick Kershner of Milligan College For The Scholastic Year 1909 - 10.

To the Board of Trustees of Milligan College:

Gentlemen -- In submitting a report of the condition of Milligan College during the past year, a few facts may be worthy of recapitulation. The enrollment in all departments for 1909-10 was 271, as opposed to 193 in 1908-9 and 167 in 1907-8. The receipts from all resources in 1909-10 were $36,558.56; for 1908-9, $12,368.08; for 1907-8, $5,150.40. In 1907-8 the value of the property belonging to the College was estimated at $35,000. The property is estimated at fully $75,000 today. In 1907-8 we owned a campus of 17 acres. Today the campus is 30 acres in extent. In 1907-8 the equipment of the College was at an exceedingly low ebb. Today the equipment of the College is up to date throughout the various buildings which it owns. New heating, lighting and water systems have been installed and the buildings supplied with new furniture and apparatus. New pianos have been secured for the Music Department, and a new reading room and library installed in the College.

Perhaps even more notable than the advance in material equipment has been the advance in scholastic standards made in the institution. In 1907-8 the admission requirements were only about eight Carnegie units. For 1910-11 the admission requirements aggregate fully fourteen Carnegie units, and the Milligan Academy or Preparatory School will be equal in standing the coming year of any high school in the State. Above the Academy a full four-year course is required for a degree. Milligan College is now fully up to the grade of the most advanced Northern institutions of similar size and rank. A notable advance in the past year has been the establishment of the Robert Milligan Bible School as a department of the College, with four professors and a superior course of Biblical instruction.

The receipts and expenditures during 1909-10 were as follows:

	Receipts
From gifts	$26,694.11
From College fees	$8,562.95
From miscellaneous sources	$1,301.50
Total Receipts	$36,558.56
For Capital Account, Insurance, etc.	$4,983.90
Building Fund(new dormitory erected 1908-9)	14,470.26
College expenditures	9,802.90
Total expenditures	$29,257.06
On hand(notes not yet due)	7,301.50

(The report of the Treasurer, published herewith, contains a more detailed account of separate receipts and expenditures.)

Among the notable gifts received during the year were the following:

From Prof. A. R. Milligan, Lexington, Ky.	$5,000.00
From Mrs. Frances T. Mee, Cleveland, Tenn.	10,000.00
From Mr. George W. Hardin, Johnson City, Tenn.	5,000.00

HOPWOOD HOUSE

Buildings In Use During 1908 - 11

During the administration of Frederick D. Kershner the college plant consisted of three buildings. The main one was a substantial brick structure containing chapel, library, and society halls, which occupied the center of the campus. A cut of this building is shown herewith. During President Kershner's administration it was newly refitted, painted, and papered. The young men's home, known as the Hopwood House, was a two story frame building containing about thirty rooms plainly furnished and afforded substantial accommodations for the students. This building was located near the old Administration Building. Mee Memorial Hall which is shown in this edition was the young ladies dormitory at that time. It was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Francis T. Mee of Cleveland, Tennessee. It was free of debt during President Kershner's administration. Mee Hall was a three story brick structure open for the first time during the school year 1908-09. It contained thirty-two rooms with reception rooms and parlor. It had hot and cold water on all floors. It was very handsomely furnished and heated by steam.

The college campus consisted of 30 acres of ground. A large and beautiful grove, each tree of which was planted by some former student, surrounded the main building.

Nancy Cantrell Returns To Milligan

Miss Nancy Cantrell, who has recently been doing graduate work in the School of Speech at Northwestern University, has resumed her duty as representative of Milligan College.

While in Northwestern, Miss Cantrell played the leading role of Maria in the one-act tragedy, "Cristo de Palos". She portrayed the part of the Sick Woman in Archibald MacLish's "Air Raid" and took a role in the production, "R. U. R."

Miss Cantrell will again visit the high schools of Tennessee and nearby states in the interest of Milligan College.

Annual Report

The session of 1910-11 is opening well. The College opened on September 13, and as this report is dated the 17th, we can only approximate the facts for the year. So far our enrollment has been 15 per cent greater than for the same period last year. Judging from previous years, this would indicate a student list of at least 300 in all departments by the close of the year.

A few facts regarding the work of Milligan College should be borne in mind by all who are interested in the cause of Christian education . . . First, Milligan College belongs absolutely to the Church of Christ in Tennessee. By the terms of her charter, her Board of Trustees is elected by representatives from the churches when assembled in convention each year. The entire property of the College belongs to the Board of Trustees thus elected. In case anything undesirable in the way of teaching or practice should find its way into the College, the churches have the corrective at all times in their hands.

Second, Milligan College at, of course, a financial loss to herself, furnishes free tuition to students for the ministry. This enables many worthy young men of small means to prepare to preach the gospel, and thus extend the borders of the church.

Third, the administration of the College has been economical and safe. No debts have been allowed to accumulate from year to year. Teachers have secured, almost all of whom are working for much less than they could secure elsewhere. The spirit of sacrifice is dominant throughout the institutions.

Fourth, Milligan's motto states that the school is "Devoted to Character Building, First of All". Aside from any religious considerations, the institutions has done and is doing a great work in building clean, moral fiber for the State and Nation at large.

Fifth, the friends of Milligan College are not confined to the Church with which she is affiliated. An open letter from United States Senator Robert L. Taylor, one of her alumni, which has been published widely, is an illustration of this fact. The College is a good repute with all men and everywhere.

The school needs two things especially at present. First, a new Recitation and Science Hall for advanced work, and, second, an adequate endowment. The Christian people of Tennessee ought not to leave these things unprovided. We feel sure that they will not do so for long.

Especial credit for whatever success has been achieved is due, under providence, to the untiring and self-sacrificing devotion of the Treasurer of the College, Mr. Geo. W. Hardin, and also to its efficient Field Secretary, Mr. J. A. Campbell.

With heartfelt thanks to the Giver of all good, for His abundant mercies to us-ward, and praying His Blessing upon our further efforts, I beg leave to remain,

Very respectfully,

Frederick D. Kershner

There is yet due on money borrowed for new building, principal and accrued interest, $6,420.

Besides the $7,301 in notes mentioned above, we hold pledges amounting to nearly $7,000 taken some years ago upon which we will receive some money yet. We did receive on these old pledges last year $319.50.

Friends are beginning to have confidence in the stability of the institution and in its ability to run and do good.

There is great need for a new building and for more modern equipment. We have one man in sight who is willing to be one of ten men to give $5,000 each for this building and equipment.

Respectfully submitted

Mexico City Y.M.C.A. To Visit Milligan

Coach Eyler's 1940 Buffaloes meet the Mexico City Y.M.C.A. team on February 20, 1940 in the J. O. Cheek Activity Building. Make your plans to come to Milligan for that event. These boys are making a tour of the Southern United States and Milligan College considers it quite an honor to have a place on their schedule. We are quite sure that you will enjoy the game as well as a visit to your Alma Mater.

May we call attention to the remainder of the Buffalo schedule for the month of February. February 22 Milligan meets Tusculum; Feb. 24, Carson Newman; Feb. 27, Maryville; and Feb. 29 the Buffaloes meet Teacher's College at their gym. These games have always proved to be the high points of the year. Make your plans to be here.

We quote below a message from Walter C. Taylor, General Secretary, Y. M. C. A., Mexico City:

"To Our Friends in the United States of America:

It is a great pleasure to serve as messenger of good-will and neighborliness for the youth of Mexico in connection with the tour which the basket ball team from the Young Men's Christian Association of Mexico City is making through the central and southern parts of the United States.

There is no place where racial and national boundaries are so completely erased as on the gymnasium floor. Here men are accepted for what they are worth and when games are played for the zest and activity which they provide and not simply for the purpose of winning, they become an important factor in character development.

These boys love the game and will do their best to defeat every opponent, but if they lose they will lose with a smile and will not be discouraged as they go to their next game. They are in a very real sense messengers who carry greetings to the youth of the United States as representatives of Mexico's choicest young manhood."

Walter C. Taylor, General Secretary

These people will appear in the J. O. Cheek Activity Building on February 20, 1940. Coach Eyler is to be congratuated for bringing this team for our pleasure and enjoyment.

The 1940 Buffalo team thus far has lost a few games but it is a test of our loyalty and sportsmanship to stand by the team whether they are winning or losing. It is an easy matter to join a crowd and boost a winning team but when the boys need encouragement and a pat on the back is when they are losing. A little time and experience will prove the Buffaloes of 1940 to be a great team. Let us lend all the encouragement we possibly can and let them feel they are receiving the loyal support of the student body.

Coach Eyler has always developed an excellent team and there is no reason to suppose that he will not in this instance.

With apologies to Ella Wheeler Wilcox:

Be rich and men will seek you,
Poor, and they turn and go—
You're a mighty good fellow
when you are mellow,
And your pockets are lined with dough.
Be flush and your friends are many
Go broke, and you lose them all.
You're a dandy old sport at $4
a quart,
But not if you chance to fall.
