Girlhood Today

... BY ...

Helen Welshimer

Fifty-five short messages to girls on how to live gracefully in a modern world, by Helen Welshimer. One of America's foremost pen women, Miss Welshimer has a keen understanding of girls—their hopes, their dreams, their faults and fears. And in this book she characterizes each message with high Christian idealism, deep insight, practical knowledge of the modern world and a haunting poetic beauty of expression.

"It is filled from cover to cover with a wise and understanding knowledge of a girl's needs and problems today. . . .

"Had I a daughter, I should want to place this book in her hands. I should want her to keep it on her bedside table where she could refer to it often. It is a book to live by, one that puts Christ first—a book that He would approve."—Grace Noll Crowell, Poet Laureate of Texas.

"Girlhood Today" is especially appropriate as a gift book, is beautifully printed, bound and jacketed. 200 pages.

Helen Welshimer's

Talks to Girls

Here are given thirty-nine short messages to girls, written with keen insight and understanding of feminine problems. Each story, or message, possesses just the vision and enthusiasm necessary for popular appeal. Splendid for use as a gift book or a help to teachers and workers with girls, although it was primarily written as "just a book for girls themselves." This book has sold well into the thousands. At conventions it is a "best seller," as it proves to be just the gift, appropriate, yet inexpensive, to take back home.

Some of the Titles

"Building of Character," "A Worth-while Motto," "Opportunity Knocks at Church Doors," "Stewards of Time and Money," "Looking to Our Own Selves," "Choosing Our Path," "Make Yourself Interesting," "The Charm of Simplicity," "Develop Your Inner Resources," "An Inner Wall," "Show Him Your Hands," "Don't Be Afraid to Be Happy," "The Torch That We Must Hold High," and twenty-six others.

Printed in a most attractive form, beautifully bound in a leather-grain paper cover and stamped in gold. 85 pages.
