Extent:

17 cubic feet (17 boxes)

Language:

English

Abstract:

This collection of papers includes vast amounts of correspondence of Josephus (1843-1935) and Sarah Eleanor LaRue (1846-1935) Hopwood, the couple integral to shaping Milligan into a college. Also included in the collection are a few artifacts belonging to the Hopwoods.

Biographical Note:

Josephus Hopwood was born on April 18, 1843 in Kentucky, the son of William C. Hopwood and Permillia (Fox) Hopwood. After his father died of cholera in 1849, the family moved to Illinois in 1853. Sarah Eleanor LaRue Hopwood was born on October 20, 1846, the daughter of Jesse Vardeman LaRue and Letitia Hardin LaRue, in Kentucky. After moving to Mexico, Missouri, Sarah attended Audrain Christian Seminary (Hardin College). In 1861, Josephus Hopwood enlisted in Company L of the Seventh Illinois Cavalry and served until 1864, when he was discharged. He met Sarah LaRue in Missouri, where he was working in 1865-1866. Hopwood attended college from 1867-1873 at Abingdon College (now part of Eureka College). He then studied at Kentucky University (formerly Bacon College and eventually subsumed into Transylvania University) and went to work at a school in Sneedville, Tennessee. On August 19, 1874, Josephus Hopwood and Sarah LaRue were married. In 1875, the Hopwoods came to Buffalo Male and Female Institute, which then became Milligan College in 1882. Sarah LaRue Hopwood taught several subjects at Milligan. Josephus Hopwood was president of the Institute and then College from 1875-1903. He ran on the Prohibition Party ticket for governor of Tennessee in 1896, but he did not win election. The Hopwoods opened Virginia Christian College (now Lynchburg University) in 1903, which Josephus was president of until 1911. In 1911, they opened Lamar College (now defunct) in Georgia. They returned to Milligan College in 1915, where Josephus became president again until Henry Derthick became president in 1917. The Hopwoods briefly ministered in Eustis, Florida, and also founded Mountain Industrial Institute (now Mountain Mission School) in Grundy, Virginia. Josephus died on January 29, 1935, in Tennessee. Sarah died shortly after Josephus on April 23, 1935. Both are buried in Happy Valley Cemetery in Elizabethton, Tennessee.

Arrangement:

When found, the boxes of Hopwood Correspondence presumably had no distinguishable order to them. According to the November 25, 1955 issue of the Stampede, the materials included Josephus Hopwood's tie, copies of his autobiography, photographs, Josephus' death certificate and honorary degrees along with the correspondence. The correspondence was cleaned up, reboxed, and stored in the library. It is unclear what kind of reorganization or weeding was done at that time. Certainly the 75 copies of Josephus' autobiography were removed - some of the copies were incorporated into the library's book collection - and the photographs were taken out. There is good reason to believe that materials separated from the correspondence were later gathered together and given the name "Hopwood II Collection." In the 1970s, Dr. Tim Dillon (then a student at Milligan), sorted the correspondence chronologically, foldered, labeled, and stored it in vertical files. The materials are in relatively sound condition. Some letters have been placed in Mylar and some have had metal fasteners removed, but at this point, little preservation or restorative work has been done. In the late 1990s an indexing/summarization project began to note the names of senders and recipients of each letter, as well as its basic contents and any events or names that might be mentioned in the body of the correspondence. What has been finished of this project is available by request. In 2022, University Archivist Katherine Banks removed the correspondence from the vertical files and placed the contents into archival quality boxes. Student assistant Grayce Wise typed up the folder list.

The collection has been divided into two series, I. Series: General Correspondence, 1868-1936, undated and II. Series: Artifacts, 1864-1915, undated.

Scope and Content Note:

The papers of Josephus Hopwood are organized into two series: General Correspondence and Artifacts.

The General Correspondence series spans 1868-1936 and contains undated material. In this series is correspondence that Josephus and Sarah LaRue Hopwood sent and received.

The Artifacts series spans 1864-1915 and contains undated material. This series has a fragment of the legendary Hopwood tree, journals belonging to the Hopwoods, and a program book from the Disciples of Christ Centennial Convention that belonged to Josephus Hopwood.

Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

Accession 01-04-2007

Note: There was no accession year available when this collection was processed, therefore the year when processing started is used for the accession record.

The Hopwood Tree fragment came from John Derry. The Centennial Convention program came from Clint Holloway via a granddaughter of a friend of Josephus Hopwood. The Journals were sent to Archivist Billie Oakes on 12-17-1993 by Paul Brown, Sr. A stack of index cards indexing the correspondence and copies of correspondence with Burleson were removed.

Access Restrictions:

Collection is open for research.

The archivist reserves the right to determine on a case-by-case basis if certain folders within the collection that have been requested for viewing cannot be made available due to various restriction compliance, including but not limited to student information, private personal information, and organizational information of a restricted nature.
