

Milligan offers new transfer scholarships

MILLIGAN COLLEGE, Tenn. (January 20, 2017) – Milligan College is offering new competitive transfer scholarships to help make the process of finishing a four-year degree at the college easier for students transferring from other higher education institutions.

The deadline is fast approaching—March 15 is the last day students can transfer to Milligan and earn merit and need-based scholarships totaling up to $22,500.

Milligan’s new competitive transfer scholarships are based on academic ability, service experience and financial need, in addition to the individual merit-based transfer scholarships ranging from $5,500 to $10,500 based on GPA.

“Transfers choose Milligan because of our excellent academics, welcoming Christian community and personal attention, as well as generous scholarships and financial aid,” said Kristin Wright, director of admissions. “In addition, our admissions staff tries to make the transfer process as easy and comfortable as possible for incoming students.”

A limited number of $1,000 Phi Theta Kappa Scholarships may be awarded to high-achieving community college transfer students in addition to the merit-based transfer scholarships and need-based aid.

Milligan also offers an Adult Degree Completion Program for working adults, ages 24 and older, who want to earn a bachelor’s degree with a flexible schedule. Learn more at www.milligan.edu/gps.

For more information on transferring to Milligan, call the admissions office at 423.461.8730 or visit www.milligan.edu/transfer.
