

Milligan presents annual community Christmas concert, Dec. 3 and 4

MILLIGAN COLLEGE, Tenn. (Nov. 18, 2016) — Audiences will have two opportunities to experience the glorious sights and sounds of the season at the annual Milligan College community Christmas concert on Saturday, Dec. 3, and Sunday, Dec. 4. The performances are free and open to the public.

On both nights, Milligan's music area will perform at 7:30 p.m. in the college's seasonally-decorated Mary B. Martin Auditorium located in Seeger Chapel. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

"The annual Christmas concert is a wonderful time for Milligan music students and faculty to give a gift to the community of wonderful music in a beautiful setting," said Dr. Kellie Brown, chair of Milligan's Area of Music.

The identical performances will feature choirs, orchestra, brass choir and the organ, as well as a carol sing-along. Both evenings will conclude with a moving candle-lighting and singing of "Silent Night."

The concerts are free; however, a suggested donation of $5 will be taken to benefit the college's music area.
