

eStar pg 7

9/6/11

Rutledge repeats as AAC honoree

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Milligan senior Morgan Rutledge has been named the Appalachian Athletic Conference's Libero of the Week for the second consecutive week.

Rutledge played four of the five week's five games in the libero slot, and showed off her versatility in the outside hitter spot in one game. She was an all-tournament selection on Clearwater Christian College Labor Day Classic as she averaged 5.52 digs per set and averaged 23 digs per match over the course of the week.

Rutledge and company return to action on Saturday when they open their AAC slate against league Columbia College. Match time is set for 2 p.m.