FAITH, ARTS & CULTURE EVENTS

All events are open to the public and FREE unless otherwise noted.

FALL FACULTY & STAFF SERMON SERIES

September 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, 11 a.m.
Seeger Memorial Chapel, Mary B. Martin Auditorium

Throughout the gospels, Jesus' invitations to come to him for unconditional love and spiritual rest live side by side with a series of seemingly impossible spiritual demands. Love your enemies. Take up your cross every day. Forgive, or you will not be forgiven. Deny yourself completely. Led by Milligan's own faculty and staff, "The Hard Word: Things I Wish Jesus Never Said," is a month-long look at the "hard sayings" of Jesus, bringing us face to face with a Savior who gives, and requires more than we might think.

STORYTELLING PERFORMANCE

September 16, 7-9 p.m., Gregory Center

This storytelling performance will feature members of the Jonesborough Storytelling Guild, who delight audiences with their compelling and entertaining tales. Members of the Guild are professional, semi-professional, and hobbyist storytellers. General admission is $5, and student tickets are $3.

AREA-WIDE STRING ORCHESTRA CONCERT

September 17, 7 p.m.
Seeger Memorial Chapel, Mary B. Martin Auditorium

Milligan will host the fifth annual area-wide string orchestra

ARRON CHAMBERS

September 24, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., Gregory Center
September 27, 11 a.m. Seeger Memorial Chapel,
Mary B. Martin Auditorium

Arron Chambers will present a seminar based on his book Eats with Sinners on Saturday, September 24, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., in Milligan's Gregory Center for the Liberal Arts. Chambers is the lead minister at Journey Christian Church in Greeley, Colorado. He is the author of several books and also the executive producer and on-air host of the primetime TV program "Enjoy the Journey with Arron Chambers." For registration information, contact Phyllis Fox at 423.975.8021. Chambers will speak again in Milligan's chapel.
