

Text

Paper

Translate

Listen

Goodwill offers local job fair

From Contributed Reports

Goodwill Industries Morristown will hold a Resource Fair from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. July 14 to be held at the Goodwill Morristown ETR Center, 2812 W. Andrew Johnson Hwy.

Job seekers from the community are invited to meet with several local businesses and educational institutions to gain information on job openings and learning programs that are available in the area.

The fair is free and open to the public.

Organizations that will be in attendance are:

Terrace Estates Lowes TRA-Five Rivers Career Center The Chocolate Ladies Wagon Wheel Restaurant ABC Day Care Senior Citizens Home Assistance Service Home Instead Senior Care Morristown-Hamblen Health Department Milligan College Cash Express Onin Staffing The Elk Valley-Home Nursing Regency Retirement Village The Citizen Tribune MasterCorp-SV Life Care Centers Girls, Inc. Kings College

The purpose of Goodwill Industries-Knoxville, Inc. is to provide vocational services and employment opportunities for people with barriers to employment. In 2010, Goodwill served nearly 3,700 individuals and experienced close to 3,300 positive program completions.

For more information, or to RSVP for the fair, call 423-587-9075.