The NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-SEVEN
BUFFALO

The Setting . . .

The Campus . . .

. . . provides opportunities for learning with our professors, with people that care for us, with people that we care for and opportunities to learn by ourselves . . . to be alone.

People thinking,
people dreaming,
people waiting . . .

All of these are a part of our lives.

We know that there is someone to turn to ... some place to go, even if it is to the library.

We rush from class to the cafeteria to grab a quick lunch and a short breath between the hurry and the scurry of things.

Even on a lonely path there are footprints on the gravel and buds on the trees ... all signs that life has been and will continue to be.

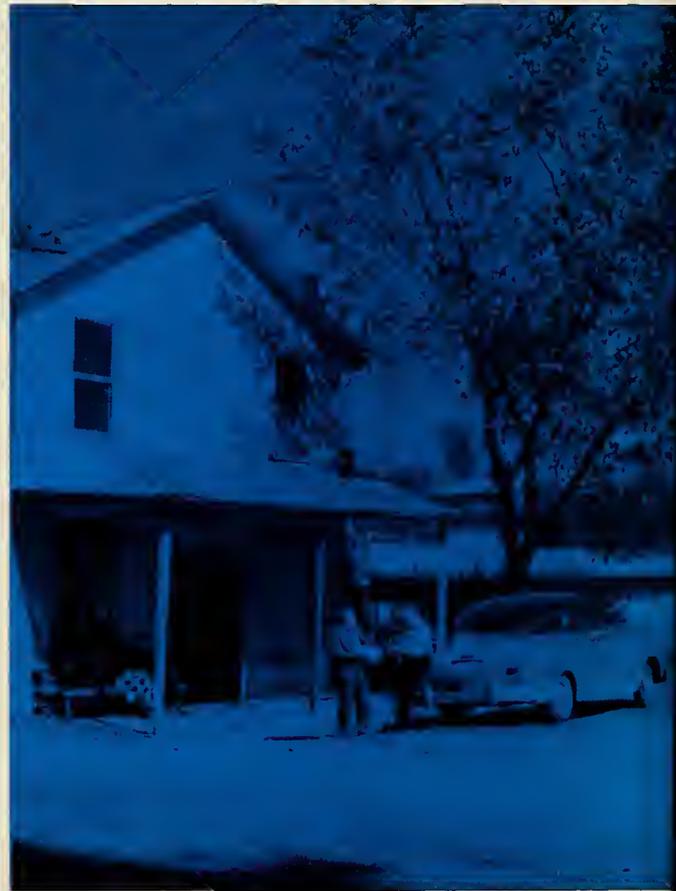

But,
we are stepping ahead
of ourselves!
Milligan
wasn't always like this . . .

... Milligan
... yesterday

Buffalo Creek Church

Hopwood House

Nestled in the hills of East Tennessee an idea became reality in the form of Josephus Hopwood's dream of a Christian college. In 1866, Mr. Hopwood succeeded in gaining a charter for Buffalo Male and Female Institute which became Milligan College named in honor of Professor Robert Milligan of Kentucky University.

Mee Hall—1913—was a girls dormitory and cafeteria until it burned beyond restoration in 1915.

Progress became the key for Milligan. Slowly with determination the fore-fathers began a tradition of Christian Education—the Hope of the World.

Needed classrooms were added when the Administration Building was built in 1885. Later it burned and was replaced in 1919 by the present building.

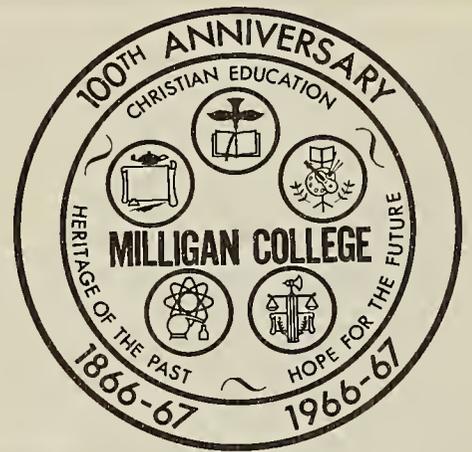

Anglin Field was developed in the twenties becoming the sight of many football games.

We open the pages to another year at Milligan.
This year offers new hopes, new dreams, and new plans of the future.
It brings friendships and memories to last for a lifetime.
At the end of the year, we must close our book and begin a new chapter next year.

The Story of the Year

Frosh Welcomed by Campus,

The 1967 Buffalo is the visual record of the remembrances of our college years. To the freshmen this one year of specific events soon fades to become a fragment of their whole college career.

They shall always remember Freshmen Week with their arrival on campus and their new acquaintances which began at the mixer party, their team sports and creek events, along with High and Low Council. These events all lead up to becoming a part of the Milligan family.

First stop for Frosh

Say! This is quite interesting.

Capers and Classmen

Anyone care for a swim?

Oh! The excitement of registration.

Ooh, is this water cold!

They have a chance to become better acquainted with the President at the president's reception.

Throughout the week come numerous surprises, one being the Mystery Special. Then there is the day of registration and the excitement of the first day of classes.

To seal their memories and to become an official member of the Milligan family, each takes part in the Matriculation ceremony.

A ticklish affair!

Father Time visits Milligan.

Thank goodness! Holocaust only comes once a year.

Freshmen being greeted at the President's Reception

Ugly Men Invade Milligan

Good morning, Janet!

My lips are sealed.

Would you believe . . . a dermatologist?

Nancy finally found a boyfriend.

He's not good-looking, but he sure is sweet.

All I need is a good night's sleep.

I will not submit!

STUDENT-FACULTY ENTERTAINMENT

Faculty entertainment is a favorite event among the students. Here, various members of the faculty participate in a basketball game with the intramural council. Keep up the good work, coach and team!

All right, guys, I have the plans.

Coach must have lead in his feet.

Come on coach, only three more quarters to go.

It only hurts when I laugh.

Behind the Scene . . . at Milligan

Campus scenes and dorm life are all a part of college, and here at Milligan we're no different. A little strange maybe . . .

"In the spring, a young man's fancy . . ."

"The girls" bop into the Dairy Queen, curlers and all.

No news is good news, Faffy.

Are you going somewhere, Sandy?

Is that right, Tracey?

Is it worth all that thought?

Have you had the pleasure of meeting the late Josephus Hopwood?

Circle K Sweetheart

"Circle K," organized at Milligan College some three years ago, crowned Gayle Sue Harrison as "Circle K Sweetheart" on the occasion of "Sweetheart Reception" in the Student Union Building.

The gala event featured nine senior girls vying for the club sweetheart. The coveted title was equivalent to automatic endorsement by the club for Founder's Daughter.

The Sweetheart reception consisted of entertainment by Wayne Fife and a presentation of the candidates.

This is the first time any club on the Milligan Campus has ever chosen a sweetheart, and Circle K plans to continue and make it into a tradition for future organizations. Members of Circle K made this send-off of the Club's social activities a memorable one for the Milligan Campus.

Founder's Day Events

Founder's Day was crowded with events this year. A parade was sponsored by the Student Council. Various clubs and organizations made floats and displays, depicting the theme of the centennial.

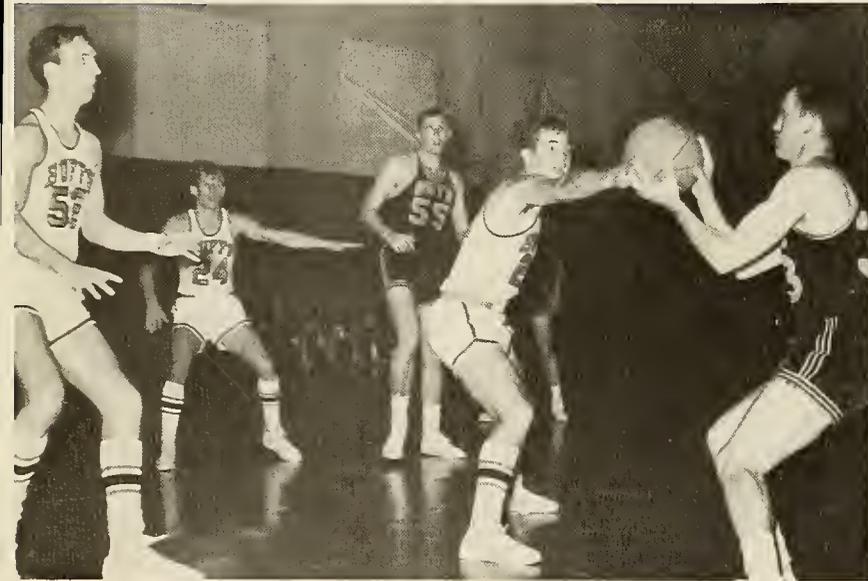

The evening brought the Founder's Day Banquet with the presentation of the Founder's Daughter.

Then there was the traditional Student-Alumni Basketball Game.

Time passes quickly, but there will always be a Founder's Day at Milligan.

TOWN CRIERS

The Town Criers came to the Milligan campus Saturday, November 26, 1966. They are a versatile singing group who travels from campus to campus and from city to city. They sing songs made popular by most vocalists and singing groups today.

They were a part of our Founder's Day activities. Their "them poems" swept the campus in a big way and kept the students busy writing for the "Stampede" and reciting for their friends.

They will remain with us as one of the finest entertainment groups on campus.

Colleges and Universities

APO

Alpha Phi Omega is a new service fraternity on campus this year. They sponsored a Sweetheart Contest, choosing nine girls for their sweetheart candidates. From these nine were chosen a sweetheart and her court which consisted of a first runner-up and one representative from each class. These girls were judged on beauty, charm, poise, and personality. The sweetheart and her court will reign at all social functions sponsored by the fraternity.

In a Girl's Dormitory

"Go get 'em chicken heart."

"I have more trouble rolling my hair."

Brusha! Brusha! Brusha!

This is the way we iron our clothes.

Shake that rug, Donna.

Religious Life

Religious life is an important aspect at Miligan. There are weekly prayer meetings held in both the boys and the girls dormitories. Our chapel service, church attendance, and daily prayer, all contribute to a well-rounded religious life important to all Christians.

Ken and Judy pray before Sunday dinner.

Sandy Smith leads songs at a Hart Hall prayer meeting.

Boys from Webb and girls from Hart combine in a weekly prayer meeting.

Welshimer Lectures

Annually Milligan is host to the P. H. Welshimer lectures which commemorates Mr. P. H. Welshimer, a donor to Milligan. He has given much time and money to the betterment of our campus, and we show our appreciation by giving a week to him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Phillips, Mr. John E. Baird, lecturer, and President Dean E. Walker converse at the reception.

Long hours of practice, sweat, strain, hard work . . .
all this for only minutes of competition.
What is the reward?
Glory . . . not much; money . . . none;
but an inward satisfaction, a deep-felt drive
to be active in athletic competition.

President

President's Message

OUR FIRST HUNDRED YEARS

Twenty-five student generations. In every one of these generations came disappointments but also achievements. Growth came from idea to hope, from hope to work; from work to merit, from merit to recognition, from recognition to hope, and the cycle moves ahead. This is Centennial.

People invested life here. Students gave time to learn. Faculty gave talent to teach. Friends gave money to build. The community round about and the Churches far and near gave encouragement to Christian higher education. Heritage—ideals, liberation of mind, sensitivity to beauty, dedication to integrity, cultivation of knowledge, commitment to good, service to mankind, faith in the Christ. This is Centennial.

Milligan people resemble a family. They cherish their name. They are marked by concern for people. They dare to be different. They stand by convictions. They put service first. Life to them means sacrifice, vision, justice, right, love. That these traits may be effectively used they seek to learn. Thus, the cycle of generations pass. This is Centennial.

Mountains guard the valley. The Buffalo waters the campus. The providence of God spreads as the sky above, the Word of God lights the pathway below. For these blessings we thank our God and pray the continuance of His favor for the next hundred years. This is Centennial.

Dedication

Dr. William Dennis Helsabeck

Fitting for this 100th Anniversary of Milligan College, Dr. Helsabeck exemplifies the ideals that have made Milligan what it is and what it will continue to be. For all that William Dennis Helsabeck believes, for that way of life he so aptly lives, we gratefully honor him.

"Ma" and "Pa" Helsabeck

To accomplish the reality of a better society by learning responsibility through service, meetings, deadlines . . . to learn to live with others through socials and human relationships . . . These are the purposes of . . .

Circle K

Circle K is a collegiate service organization sponsored by the Elizabethton Kiwanis' Club. It's an alleviation from high school Key Clubs and its status is now 750 clubs with 25,000 members, all over the United States. The Circle K motto is "We Build" for service to the campus with leadership and fellowship. Milligan's Club motto for the 1966-67 school year is "Service Begins at Home" and this certainly has been followed by the men of Circle K. Evidences of this has been the campus clean-up; basketball programs; promotion of Founder's Day with candidate and float; donkey basketball game, and sponsorship of many other events that have served the campus and students of Milligan.

Warmth . . ? Friendliness . . ? Crafted beauty depicting centuries of cultured living . . ? Yes, all this and much more when you select our "Severn Series" to place in your home.

Authenticity of Old English designs fairly glows from its many pieces because it is a composite of the best from the past to grace today's living. Finished in Tudor Green or British Oak, you, your family, yes, and your guests will love its sturdy grandeur.

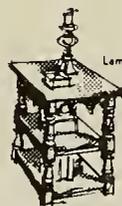

Cabinets and their drawers are generously proportioned, wood turnings are sized right and in the right places. We think you'll be pleasantly impressed by how easily this furniture of the centuries will blend into your home. Tables to grace your living room, dining and bedroom pieces form a large selection for you to see and enjoy. From "Empire" makers of quality furniture.

"Peace of Mind Guaranteed"

Soon man will conquer space. This effort represents the sum total of man's desire to conquer the forces of nature. This quest involves knowledge and tools. One of the most valuable tools is electricity — it will help power the next moon shot. Yet it's gentle enough to warm your home and cook your food. We serve this area with low-cost electricity and we are proud! We are proud of our students whose knowledge will help to power our new age.

Editors' Note

The 1967 Buffalo presents the Milligan College of yesterday and the Milligan College of today.

The story of Milligan College began 100 years ago in 1867. Since Milligan College is celebrating its one-hundredth year, the Buffalo proudly continues the 1967 part of the story.

The 1967 Buffalo proposes to illustrate the achievements of the students and to reveal the excellence of the areas of learning. It also intends to show the legendary qualities of Milligan College. Through the record of activities of the students and the faculty, this yearbook mirrors the attitude of both students and faculty. The 1967 yearbook will be a reminder of the friendships made in the dormitories, in the cafeteria, and in the Sub. It will be a reminder of the work and of the fun which were shared. It will be a reminder of the qualities of spirit which was and which is Milligan College. Through these pages including the May Day and the Commencement which will be in the supplement, one may relive memorable experiences.

With some wistfulness and with much reverence, the staff completes the 1967 edition. Recognizing that this book is more than paper and ink because it represents the life of Milligan College and provides memories of Milligan College, the Buffalo staff members invite you to share these memories now as students, later as Alumni.
