NUMBER 1.

The Buffalo Range Makes Its Bow

— R —

The Alumni of Milligan College have requested a publication in conjunction with the Stampede, the official publication of the student body.

Former students have, as the students at Milligan today, stood on the sidelines at football games and other athletic events, and lustily called to members of the team, "Stampede 'em." After four years of work at Milligan these same students have gone out from the herd of Buffaloes, and in compliance with their request the Buffalo Range speaks for those who by graduation have taken their places in the field of activity—out on the Range of Life.

The Buffalo Range makes its bow as a service to former students. In March and May of this year copies of an Alumni edition of the Stampede were sent to all former students whose addresses were on file. In those editions was printed a coupon asking that you signify your willingness to subscribe to the Alumni publication at the price of one dollar per year, in order to make the paper self-supporting.

President Derthick's burden in bearing the financial problems of Milligan is and always has been too heavy and exacting, and it would be unjust to him to ask that the cost of an Alumni publication be borne by the College treasury.

We earnestly hope that at least five hundred former students will want the Alumni publication to come to them throughout the year, thereby making it permanent.

On this page we are printing a coupon for your convenience in sending in your subscription.

This one copy comes to you with the compliments of the Alumni Association. If you want to receive news from your Alma Mater, fill in the coupon today, enclose one dollar and mail to the Secretary of the Alumni Association.

This is the last complimentary copy to be mailed. In order to avoid missing a single issue of the Alumni paper, send your dollar now.

We shall be very glad, if, when you send in your coupon, you will write a brief account of your activities since leaving Milligan. Your friends and classmates want to know where you are and what you are doing, so please write us anything you think will be interesting to former students of Milligan College.

President Derthick's Greeting To Milligan Alumni

— R —

Professor J. G. Long, Secretary of the Milligan College Alumni and Former Student Association, very generously has invited me to write a word of greeting to you, our larger Milligan family. I eagerly accepted the invitation for it gives me the opportunity to tell you that we have always and will always consider each of you as a very important part of Milligan College. Every college is known far and wide by her fruits as produced by those who have passed through her halls of learning.

Milligan College is favorably known in every region and section in which her former students dwell, because of the high ideals of character which you have carried with you and the great service you have rendered as home, church, and community builders. We are justly proud of all our alumni and former students. You will share with us in our great desire to unite the Milligan family by closer ties of fellowship through a strong, active Alumni and Former Student Association. It is our desire to search out the whereabouts of every student who has ever attended Milligan College, from its first organization in 1867 to its present time.

We feel that we have very much in common. We have a heritage of which we can be justly proud. Every member of the faculty belongs to us all. We are bound by ties of love and ideals that we hope will never separate. We all believe, with President Hopwood, that "Christian education is the hope of the world." This is a truth today more than the day in which President Hopwood coined the phrase.

We desire to hear from you by letter or by visit. It is our hope that wherever there may be found a group of ten or more former students we may form a club which will meet several times during the year.

President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick Travel Extensively During Summer

— R —

Monday, July 18, President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick, accompanied by their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Derthick, of Atlanta, left Milligan College for a six-week motor trip in the western United States.

By way of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico, they reached Grand Canyon, having passed through the Petrified Forest and the Painted Desert. They found Grand Canyon far exceeding their expectations in beauty and color. Leaving Grand Canyon, they visited Boulder Dam; then went through the desert which was interesting and beautiful; especially since a gorgeous sunset was witnessed. After spending a few days at Long Beach, California, and the Cataline Islands, the party motored to Los Angeles where they were entertained in the beautiful Chapman Park Hotel by Mr. Jordan Crouch, the manager. Mr. Crouch accorded the party every courtesy, taking them around Hollywood and pointing out the homes of the movie celebrities.

Sequoia National Park and Yosemite, Glacier Point and the Five Falls were the next points of interest; then back to San Francisco where the University of Leland Stanford and the University of California were of interest. From San Francisco the party took the wonderful Redwood Highway, passing through park after park provided by the national Government; then up the coastal drive to Portland. From Portland the scenic Columbia River drive to visit the Majestic Mount Hood and the Timberline Lodge. Then through Mt. Ranier Park and on to Seattle. From Seattle to Victoria and then back to Spokane, up to Lake Louise and Banff. From Banff going by way of Sun Highway and Logan Pass and a spectacular trip across Glacier National Park to Yellowstone. From Yellowstone to Salt Lake City, Denver, Colorado Springs, Pike's Peak, Garden of the Gods, and then back through Kansas and Missouri, stopping over night at Hannibal, Missouri, the home of Mark Twain, then back to Milligan College.

So after a 10,281 mile trip (without any car trouble) the party returned to find that everything, through the efforts of the campus boys and Prof. Hyder and the secretary, Mrs. W. E. Hyder, was in readiness for the opening of school.

Of the trip, President Derthick says: "It would be impossible to take an extensive trip west without marveling at the courage and fortitude of the conquerors of this great area. The records of the struggles of the early pioneers along with their accomplishments fill the mind with wonder and admiration as we envision them encountering the dangers of a new country.

As we returned to Milligan College we felt a thrill of joy in realizing that we live in one of the favored sections of God's country. Everywhere we went we exclaimed, 'How glorious is God's country! How beautiful is East Tennessee!' the home of Milligan College.

You will be pleased to know that we have enrolled 297 students, which is the largest enrollment in the history of Milligan College. We also have 25 high school graduates in the CCC camps who will take regular college work three days in the week for which they will receive from nine to twelve college credits.

You will be happy to know that Milligan College balanced her budget July 20, 1938. We are believing that our many friends, by their prayers and their gifts which keep the budget balanced, will help Milligan to go year after year, gaining in influence and power as a tribute of the faith and courage of her founder and former students. Our greatest pride and satisfaction must always come from the achievements and victories of all of you who have caught the spirit of Milligan, the spirit of Christian purpose, the spirit of a conquering zeal and enthusiasm. We believe you are praying for us, that you will plan with us, that you are rejoicing in every success.

Please sit down and write a letter. Tell us about yourself, about your accomplishments, about your hopes for Milligan, with suggestions for improvements. We will answer all letters.

Thanking you for every prayer and every thought of us, wishing for you the richest blessings of life, I am,

Sincerely,

PRES. H. J. DERTHICK.

Our Heritage and Our Responsibility

We quote from the Buffalo of 1924, "Our Heritage and Our Responsibility."

The past history of Milligan College is immense. It is firmly founded upon principles that shall last throughout the ages. This foundation, like all foundations for magnificent structures, has been concealed, more or less, from the eyes of the world. It has been an unpretentious, strong and solid piece of workmanship. The men and the women have struggled and sacrificed in laying this foundation; those who by the sweat of the brow and by the fatigue of the brain, have planned wisely and builded well the solid groundwork of Milligan College; those men and those women have done the first and most important work, in order that the great structure might stand even after they have "passed to where beyond these voices there is peace."

But the past history of Milligan College is only the firm foundation for the magnificent structure that may now be seen to tower unto the heights. There are going into this building every day the strength and the life of those who are toiling night and day, that there may be a building made, not by hands, but by the very souls of the builders. And now the structure begins to "loom in the sun and the stars, and has a soul." The work of the novice clad in green and the work of the seer clad in black enter into the structure and make it great. Their souls form a part of the soul of the ascending building. We now resolve to build well the part that is assigned to us.

But the present magnificent structure, built upon the great foundation of the past, is only the ground floor of a more stately mansion to be erected as the endless ages roll. The work, the life, and the soul of every man and of every woman who has toiled on this sacred hill, have become a part of the great soul of the future of Milligan College and this soul will grow from greatness unto greatness, and this building will become a super-structure. The past of Milligan College is immense; the present is magnificent; the future is sublime.

We of Milligan College take this method of thanking the Johnson City Press and Chronicle for their cooperation in making the first issue of the Buffalo Range possible.

Dear Mr. Long:

Thank you so much for my copy of the Alumni edition of the Stampede. It was, indeed, a delight for me to read the report of so many that I knew and have late news from the College.

The paper is well arranged and well written.

I shall be happy to be one of your subscribers of the Alumni publication.

Sincerely,

AUDREY MELTON LEDFORD,

H. J. Derthick, President
Milligan College
Milligan College, Tennessee

Dear President:

In answer to your letter and upon returning the blank, I might say that, to see the return address upon the envelope was one of the greatest thrills I have experienced since I attended your school.

Milligan was home, and what is more, an ideal home for any young woman or man just out of high school. To me, her name stood for all that was upright and honest. I believe her banner is now high, and my earnest prayers are that it might ever stay so.

Sincerely,

LEE OLA WHITEHOUSE,

Mrs. H. J. Derthick
Dean of Women
Milligan College, Tennessee

Dear Mrs. Derthick:
It is my personal belief that Milligan College has a great place in American education, offering to its students a thorough training, and also the close personal touch and spiritual guidance that are not given in the large universities.

My Milligan College credits have meant as much to me as any of my college work, and full credit has been given for them. So it is with great pleasure that I receive all good word from Milligan, and I shall always be greatly interested in its welfare.

Very truly yours,
MRS. JOSEPH OGLE,
Class 1929.

Newell Freeman, Minor Hill, Tennessee, enclosed a check for subscription to the paper and writes as follows: "In keeping with a promise made last spring, I am enclosing my check of one dollar as my subscription to the publication for Alumni. I have forgotten the exact name of the publication. I prefer one containing a combination of present College news and news about the Alumni of the College."

Brecksville, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Long:

We enjoyed your publication very much, especially the news of our classmates. Being a small school, Milligan offers a fine opportunity, and such memories never completely fade.

Sincerely,

ISABELLE GREEN KEGLEY,
Class 1926.

Hickman, Kentucky
April 5, 1938

Dear Mr. Long:

I just want to say "Thanks" for The Stampede. I know there isn't another paper in the world brought as much joy to any one person as The Stampede brought to me today.

I enjoyed reading the Classes of 1923, 24-25-26. Ada Bess and Grace Hart were to see me Christmas and I enjoyed their few minutes so much. Anyone from Milligan are always dear to me. How glad it makes my heart feel to know how much it is improving and how many wonderful characters it is training.

My prayers and wishes are that Milligan will improve as much in the next fifteen years as it has in the past fifteen and that each life will be closer drawn to the Father as my life was by Milligan.

One that loves Milligan,
LOUISE MADDOX,
Class 1922.

Elizabethton, Tennessee
December 20, 1937

Dear Mr. Long:

I am grateful for having this opportunity of expressing my sincere feeling toward Milligan College and its friends.

Milligan inspired and fitted me for a life of usefulness among my friends and neighbors. I am most thankful to Milligan for giving me a Christian education, which, in my opinion, is the only education of lasting and permanent benefit. I am grateful to the friends of Milligan who make this institution possible.

Milligan has earned its right to a future of continued good and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN ELLIOT,
Class 1932.

December 27, 1937

Dear Mr. Long:

I do hope my delay in getting this data to you, does not render it worthless. As for the remarks, you must be greatly amused by the comments made by the Alumni who enjoyed Milligan so very much just as it was. So take the remarks as such.

Sometime when the school has lots of money and someone with nothing to do, put out an alumni letter that will give the news and gossip about all those people who were for a little while, at least, such very fine friends to this Northern girl.

Sincerely,
ELEANOR ORMSBY,
Class 1928.

Who They Are - Where They Are What They Are Doing

A. W. Gray, '27, is teaching vocational training and superintendent of printing plant at Milligan College.

W. H. Bowman, 1931, is coach in Coeburn High School, Coeburn, Va.

Robert E. Akers, class 1937, is teacher, coach and assistant principal at Mosheim High School.

Elsie Lee Price, class '36, is teaching Art in Erwin city schools, Erwin, Tenn. She teaches Bible class, active in Erwin Community Club Players, vice-president P.-T. A.; member Business and Professional organization.

Allie J. McPherson, 3110 Marshall St., Richmond, Va., attended Milligan College in 1902-03.

She has been teaching in Henrico county, Va., since 1925.

She is interested in Sunday School, P.-T. A. and all school activities. She has been teaching since 1904, having held positions in six different schools since that time. For six years she was secretary of Sunday School Association. Secretary of Lynchburg Alumni Unit in Richmond, Va.

She writes:
"I remember with a great deal of pleasure my one year at Milligan College. I only regret that I could not have spent four years in this institution."

James A. Tate of Shelbyville, Tennessee, graduated from Milligan College in 1882 and is the only living member of that class. Mr. Tate is now head of the temperance work of Tennessee. The Bedford County Times, Shelbyville, Tennessee, in an article of November 26, 1937, says of him: "So our hat goes off to James A. Tate as it has so many times in the past, and once more this fighting Dry Democrat, who came from the same soil that gave Tennessee the Taylor governors and other great statesmen, is nominated to Tennessee, for the highest honors that the Volunteer state can give one of its favored sons."

The editor of the "Spotlight," published at Minneapolis, Minnesota, says: "We rejoice with Tennessee. We bow in deference and honor to the Sage of Shelbyville, her distinguished veteran of the mighty struggle."

The Alumni Association of Milligan College is proud of the record made by Professor Tate.

The Alumni Association of Milligan College was notified on May 28, 1938, of the death of C. B. Armentrout of Washington College, Tennessee. Mr. Armentrout was a member of the graduating class of 1882. This leaves only one living member of the first graduating class of Milligan College, the Honorable James A. Tate, Shelbyville, Tennessee.

Faculty Forum

Some members of the faculty expressed the following opinions as "their idea of a freshman."

Miss Adams (Mrs. Bowman): Some men are born great. — The Freshmen.

Prof. Cochrane: A little mischief, a little sense, a hard time with the sophomores and the chance to be something in the world if his nerve holds out—That's a freshman.

Prof. Hyder: God made him for a man. Therefore I let him pass.

Dean Boyd: The Freshman is a creature "Fearfully and wonderfully wrought," ignorant of his ignorance—oblivious to the troubled waters of academic streams which threaten his future—but on the whole he is cute and dear and fine. He is the stuff out of which scholars are made. Herein lies his intrinsic value.

Alumni Banquet, May 28, Big Success To Be Annual Affair

On the evening of May 28, 1938, one hundred Alumni of Milligan assembled in the church, and there in the basement of that new structure partook of the splendid food prepared by the ladies of the church. Representatives of classes between the years of 1900 and 1937 were present.

President H. J. Derthick welcomed the former students. Others spoke of the interesting past of Milligan and wished for the institution a more glorious future.

Lew Taylor was elected president of the Association for the year 1938-39. The group unanimously voted to hold the dinner meeting annually.

During commencement week more than two hundred Alumni members visited the campus of their Alma Mater. This number of visitors during the first year of the Alumni Association is very pleasing, indeed. We hope to have an enthusiastic Alumni Association.

Sophomore Class

We salute the Sophomore class of 1938! These young people believe that Milligan College offers opportunities for training not to be found elsewhere.

The Sophomore class of 1938 enrolled in Milligan in September, 1937. There were 116 in the class; 22, which represents about 19%, left school before the end of the year; 94 students remained until the close of the year. Out of this number of 94 students who completed the Freshman year '37 returned for their second year in Milligan, representing 78% plus of the 1937-38 Freshman class.

Please note in figures that only 21 students of the 1937 Freshman class failed to return in September, 1938.

We believe this is a record.

My dear Mr. Long:
At long last, it looks as though an Alumni Association is under way. Congratulations upon the very active way you have set out to form an effective organization! Our graduates everywhere have been regretting that there is not an active Alumni Association. My best wishes go with you in all your efforts. May I be of any service to you? Please call on me very freely, if I can help you in any way.

May I register my hearty approval of the recent "Stampede" mailed to me. It is a most interesting and informative issue, and it certainly should revive much interest in Milligan.

With all good wishes to you in all your endeavors as secretary of the Alumni Association, I am

Most sincerely,

C. C. C. Students

Lieut. S. Schnur, chief medical officer of the Unicoi CCC camp, announced yesterday that 20 CCC enrollees there had completed their physical and entrance examinations and will begin their studies Monday at Milligan college.

The enrollees will attend regular classes three days a week and receive college credits for their work, the same as other students, he said. On other days the CCC boys will be obliged to do their regular work at camp. They will receive CCC pay while attending college.

Lieut. Schnur, a former crack New York University basketball player, has volunteered his services, which were accepted, as physician for the Milligan football team as a measure of appreciation for the institution's permitting the CCC boys to attend classes there.

E. Lyle, educational advisor of the Unicoi camp, also will give a few classes as an additional measure of appreciation.

Schnur asserted this was a great step forward in CCC activities since it gives the young men an opportunity to secure an education while earning their living.

Carson-Newman vs Milligan Home Coming Oct. 22. Game Called at 8 p.m. at Roosevelt Stadium

On October 22 at 8 P. M. at Roosevelt Stadium in Johnson City, the Buffaloes play their toughest conference foe, Carson-Newman. This game will be the Home Coming contest.

We greatly desire to see hundreds of our former students at this game. Come and let us join with the students in yells and cheers and altogether shout, "Stampede 'em."

The regular price of admission will be one dollar, unless, of course, you have purchased a season ticket, in that event you will be entered by presenting your book of passes.

If you have not purchased a ticket for that game and desire to do so, Milligan Alumni may purchase them at fifty cents each, provided you purchase them in the following manner: Send fifty cents to Secretary of Alumni Association at Milligan College.

These tickets must be purchased in advance. Should you wait to secure them at Roosevelt Field, the price will be one dollar.

Send in your requests now—enclose fifty cents. Remember that no alumni tickets will be on sale at the ticket booth.

Address all communications to J. G. Long, Secretary, Alumni Association, Milligan College, Tennessee.

Milligan Has New Athletic Set-Up

The business men of Johnson City have formed themselves into an organization known as The Milligan College Athletic Association. They have assumed the responsibility of financing the athletic program, especially football. Five hundred season tickets have been printed and 400 of this number have been sold at $4.00 each.

A number of tickets were sent to the Alumni, asking them to dispose of them at the regular price of $4.00 for the five home games.

We appreciate the interest these men are taking in our athletic program.

Greetings to Class of 1938
To the members of the Class of 1938:

You are members of the largest class in the history of Milligan College. Your Alma Mater is proud of your record here and wishes for you the very best in life. Many of you have already assumed duties of responsibility and are contributing to the welfare of your community.

We desire to hear from each of you. Please notify the Alumni Association of any change in address.

Dear Mr. Long:

It was such a good feeling to be back on the campus at Thanksgiving. We appreciated the lunch. We should liked to have stayed longer, but had only the week-end off and were visiting both of our homes. So sorry we did not get to see more of you all, but we understand the excitement a football game brings, and especially a game with Teachers. My, we were thrilled to hear of the victory, too.

With best wishes for the new year for Milligan and for you two personally, I am

Milligan News Clipped From Johnson City Press

In the hope that Milligan Alumni will enjoy news articles from Milligan, we quote from The Johnson City Press.

Milligan College Filled To Capacity; 322 Enrolled

Milligan College officials said yesterday classes and dormitories are completely filled and that the college is unable to accept any more students, either resident or day.

The enrollment is 322.

Iris Blooming In Fall? It's Odd But It's True

Visitors at the home of Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Burns of Milligan college are expressing great interest in an unusual display of Tennessee's state flower, the iris.

Ordinarily, it is explained, spring blossoms of the iris are abundant and beautiful, but when the flower blooms in the fall, that's news. The outstanding feature about the type being cultivated at the Burns home, however, is that it blooms in both spring and fall. "That" says Mrs. Burns, "is something to get excited about."

She added yesterday: "We Tennesseans should welcome this new 'Sass' iris and plant it abundantly. It is no harder to grow than the ordinary kind and is now reasonably priced. It has been on the market the past six or seven years but is still little known."

The Buffalo Range wishes to add that Prof. C. E. Burns can grow other crops than the flowering variety.

There is on exhibit at the Milligan College post office a stalk of corn more than 16 feet in height, which came from his garden.

Milligan Faculty

Many former students write us and ask for names of faculty members. With pleasure we give below the list of professors for the year 1938-39.

- Dr. H. J. Derthick, President.
- Mrs. H. J. Derthick, Dean of Women and assistant President.
- Dr. C. M. Eyler, Dean of Men and Prof. of English.
- Mr. S. J. Hyder, Treasurer and Prof. of Mathematics.
- Mr. C. E. Burns, Pastor and Prof. of Economics.
- Dr. H. M. Thompson, Prof. of Chemistry and Physics.
- Mr. A. F. Cochran, Prof. of Biology.
- Mr. J. W. Carpenter, Prof. of Bible.
- Dr. E. P. Willard, Prof. of Languages.
- Mr. E. G. Lodter, Prof. of Languages.
- Dr. R. J. Bennet, Prof. of Education.
- Mr. J. G. Long, Prof. of English.
- Dr. David K. McCarrell, Professor of History.
- Dr. H. G. McCurdy, Professor of Psychology.
- Mrs. K. A. Adams, Bowman, Registrar.
- Miss Kathleen Brown, Prof. of Home Economics.
- Miss Oakie Angle, Prof. of Education.
- Miss Dorothy Keeter, Prof. of Speech.
- Miss Frances Yearley, Prof. of Music.
- Miss Elizabeth England, Librarian.
- Mrs. C. M. Eyler, Women's Physical Education.
- Mrs. W. E. Hyder, Secretary to the President.
- Mr. Stephen Lacey, Coach.
- Mr. A. W. Gray, Vocational Training.

When The Buffaloes Return

When former students return for a visit, many marvel at the change in the old school.

If you graduated prior to 1925 you will be thrilled when you drive over the campus, the most beautiful spot in Tennessee.

If you graduated prior to 1925 you will enjoy four splendidly remodeled tennis courts and a new and beautiful entrance to the President's residence.

During the summer of 1938 hardwood floors were laid in Hardin Hall; a twenty-five thousand dollar pipe organ was installed in the auditorium; a printing press and book bindery installed in the basement of the gymnasium.

At chapel exercises you will note the entire faculty seated on the stage for the simple reason that every seat in the auditorium is taken by students, and then there is not room.

Rooms in the Boys' Dormitory have three or more occupants. Even the parlor in Pardee Hall has been converted into living quarters for boys.

A FRESHMAN'S IMPRESSION OF MILLIGAN

Just as one turns from the main highway, going from Elizabethton to Johnson City, to enter Milligan College, so is it a different life from our ordinary path or highway.

Milligan College presents a beautiful picture as you enter from the main highway. The tall trees, shrubs, flowers, and roses make a lovely contrast to one's usual imagination of a college campus. Here you feel a new life stirring within. You breathe a deep breath of clean, fresh, pure air and you fully realize you will not leave Milligan with the feeling you may have had before you chose Milligan.

Here you not only find God's beauty, but you find activity. It is a growing school with a great number of activities every year that the students may enjoy such as music, art, tennis, dramatics, debating, ball games of all kinds, and Christian Endeavor.

There are a number of characteristics that Milligan has that other schools do not stress so much, that is, some of their ideals. Christ reigns in every classroom. Most colleges have outdoor sports, but few care whether you are one of Christ's or not. Milligan cares.

The spirit of the student body and faculty makes Milligan an outstanding college, too. The Milligan faculty put themselves on the same level with the students and go along with us as classmates.

Milligan has the greatest characteristic that any school or college can ever have, that is Christianity.
