

PROF. HOPWOOD, AGED EDUCATOR, DIED TUESDAY

Founder of Milligan Had Suffered a Bad Paralytic Stroke Sunday night.

Josephus Hopwood, President-emeritus and Founder of Milligan College, passed away last Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home on "Hopwood Hill". He had reached the advanced age of 91 years.

Dr. Hopwood had suffered a severe stroke of paralysis Sunday night, and from that time until his death he was gradually sinking, all hopes for his recovery being lost.

Surviving Dr. Hopwood is his wife, Mrs. Sarah Eleanor LaRue Hopwood, his faithful helper and active associate through the many years of his noteworthy educational and religious activity.

A memorial service under the direction of President Derthick was held in the Milligan College chapel this morning, and consisted of personal reminiscences and tributes from a number of Dr. Hopwood's old friends, students, and members of the college faculty.

The funeral service, held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, was under the charge of Dr. J. Walter Carpenter, head of the Bible Department at Milligan and an old friend of the deceased.

Dr. Hopwood came to Milligan from Illinois in 1875, and took charge of the old Buffalo Institute. In 1878 he reorganized the school and named it Milligan College in honor of Robert Milligan, whom he termed the "purest and best man I have ever known."

Some twenty-five years later he resigned and went to Lynchburg, Virginia, where he founded and promoted the Lynchburg Christian College.

Later, he organized Lamar College at Lamar, Georgia, and then returned for short periods to Milligan and Lynchburg, both of which were in distress. After giving them new life he went to Grundy, Virginia, where he founded the Grundy Christian Institute, his fourth educational venture.

It was in 1917 that Dr. Hopwood finally retired from the Milligan presidency, which was then assumed by President H. J. Derthick. However, Dr. Hopwood has maintained his keen interest in Milligan, and has kept in close contact with the school's activities from his home near-by.

Dr. Hopwood is rightly called the "South's Grand Old Man of Education," for his contributions and services to the education and life of people in the Appalachian region can not be overestimated.

The most true characterization and the most fitting tribute which we know to pay Dr. Hopwood consists of the following words spoken of him by one of his old students: "If ever a man lived with sincere self-dedication to the words and the example of Jesus Christ, it is Professor Hopwood. More than any man I have ever known he has believed in youth."

Dr. Hopwood's pure, Christian life will forever remain a true inspiration for Milligan students.

Dramatic Club To Give Try-out Plays

Since the beginning of the second semester, several Dramatic Club members have started work on the production of tryout plays.

The first of the try-out plays which will be presented is "The Bishop's Candlesticks." The director is Dorothy Bennett. This play is of a serious type, therein differing from the general run of try-out plays, which are usually comedies.

"The School for Scandal," the semester play which was presented just before Christmas was generally acclaimed a success. The director, Miss Dimple Hart, has received invitations to present this play in Kingsport, Erwin, and at King College in Bristol. However, it is not definitely decided as to whether these invitations will be accepted or not. Also, due to Milligan's full basketball schedule, it is very difficult to arrange any definite dates.

The audiences in Kingsport and Erwin have always proved to be attentive and appreciative. The Dramatic Club feels honored that it has an opportunity to display Milligan talent in these towns.

Pre-Medics To Hear Dr. Caudill Speak

At the pre-med meeting held last Friday, January 25, President Lacey revealed to his cohorts that he was making plans to obtain Dr. Caudill of Elizabethton as a special speaker at the meeting tonight.

Dr. Caudill is a man of wide interests. He is head surgeon at the hospital in Elizabethton, plant doctor for Bemberg-Glanzstoff, and also president of the Citizens' Bank.

It is expected that Dr. Caudill will speak on the experiences and problems which he met in his own pre-med career.

Dr. Caudill will be remembered by Milligan students as one of the chapel speakers during Health Week last fall.

Also at the last pre-med meeting, President Lacey drew from his latent funds of knowledge and rendered for the club a very intensive and enlightening lecture on the uro-genital system. Mr. Lacey used his visit to the American Medical Association exhibit at the Century of Progress as the basis for his speech.

Boys' "M" Club Reorganizes For The Coming Semester

At a meeting held immediately following exams, on Thursday, January 17, the Boys' "M" Club reorganized for the coming semester. The following officers were elected: President, Carl Stephens; Vice President, Mervin McCloskey; Secretary-Treasurer, Milbert Bible.

The "M" Club recently awarded sweaters to all two-year letter men, and is going to give all of the members of the club who are seniors gold "M's".

The athletes are planning to give a negro minstrel in the next three or four weeks similar to the one given last year. Mervin McCloskey is chairman of the committee dealing with this and has already sent for material. Practices are to begin as soon as possible. Miss Dimple Hart is going to direct.

Football Banquet Has Been Postponed

The football banquet, which was scheduled for last night, January 31, has been postponed due to the death of Dr. Hopwood, and will be held, according to present plans, on February 11.

Due to the lack of sufficient room in the dining hall, the banquet will take place at the John Sevier Hotel. Football men will be admitted free but for all others the charge will be seventy-five cents per plate.

Coach Lacey has made a special effort to arrange an entertaining program, and yet one consisting largely of local talent. Speeches will be made by Prof. Cochran, Prof. Burns, and Dean Eyer. Captain Star Wood will render a response.

A part of the proceedings in which all members of the team will take part will be the election of a new captain for the next season. Also, all letter-men will receive their football letter certificates.

A special feature of the entertainment will be a musical number by Milligan's popular girls' trio, Ruth Walker, Sunshine Williams, and Beatrice Rice.

Sextette Appears At President's Ball

On Wednesday, January 30, the Milligan College sextette appeared at the President's Ball at the John Sevier Hotel in Johnson City.

The following program was presented: "Will You Remember" (Romberg-Rieger), "Swing Along" (F. N. Lohr), by the sextette; "By the Bend of the River" (Edwards-Hemstreet), and "Big Brown Bear" (Maria-Zuecca), by the trios. The members of the sextette are Ruth Walker, Sunshine Williams, Beatrice Rice, Miss Wright, Dorothy Bennett, and Elaine Turner.

The Spring Glee Club Concert for which practice is now being conducted, will consist of an entirely different type of music than that presented last semester. Among the numbers are to be found, "Moonbeams" from "The Red Mill" by Victor Herbert, "A Spirit Flower" by Campbell-Tipton, "In Picardie" by Geo. L. Osgood, "The Soft Wing Whispered" by Paul Ambrose, "An April Song" by Gores, and "Voices of the Woods" by Rubinstein.

Arrangement Of Debate Teams Are Announced

The final arrangements of the boys' debate teams were made at a meeting on Wednesday night, January 23. The teams will be as follows: Warren Brandon and Gordon Bailey, Tom Savage and Carlyle Burdette, Arnold Albright and John Barnard.

The boys' debates so far scheduled are Tusculum on March 12, a triangular with Maryville and Carson-Newman on March 1, and Teachers College (date not yet set).

The girls' teams will include Sunshine Williams and Sue Gunter, and Dorothy Bennett, Ruth Walker, and Mary Helen Banner, the latter three alternating.

The girls' schedule at the present time is as follows: Tusculum on March 5 (date tentative), Maryville on March 4, and Teachers College on March 29.

GRADES FOR THE FIRST SEMESTER ARE INSPECTED

Four Boys and One Girl Re- ceive Straight "A's" On Semester's Work.

THIRTY-SIX MAKE ALL "A's" AND "B's"

Twenty-two Students Make General Average of "B"; Marks An Increase.

The final report of grades for the First Semester of the school year 1934-35 were released for inspection Wednesday afternoon, January 30.

Careful perusal reveals that in the upper brackets the boys were superior, whereas taken as a whole the girls' average slightly exceeded that of the boys.

Five students achieved the distinction of making straight "A's". These included four boys and one girl, and were Nell Ford Hitt, Sam Cecil, James William Hughes, Edward Lacey, and Marvin Lowe. The grades considered throughout are for academic subjects only.

Also, five students made a grade of "A" on all subjects with the exception of one "B". Included in this group were two girls and three boys. The members of this group were Mary Helen Banner, Helen Truman, Milbert Bible, Robert Hilsenbeck, and Tom Savage.

Thirty-six students made grades that included all "A's" and "B's". The members of this group were:

Albright, Arnold	McKenzie, Dorothy
Anderson, Virginia	Neiser, Dorothy
Bowling, Dencie	Neiser, Lois
Burns, Myrtle	Patton, Jennie
Carroll, Grace	Peterson, James
Cox, Maude Nell	Phillips, Raymond
Crawford, Ruby	Purcell, Clifford
Dale, Rebekah	Quillen, Thelma
Davis, Bill	Read, Virginia
Franklin, Nancy	Redmon, Ruby
Gunter, Sue	Rice, Beatrice
Hale, James	Speck, Lyda
Hauk, Gordon	St. John, Elinor
Hicks, Anita	Sutphin, Alma
Huddleston, Delma	Turner, Rubye
Jenkins, Frances	Walker, Ruth
Jones, Summers	Williams, Howard
Mantooth, Andrew	Williams, Elizabeth

Twenty-two students made a general average of "B". The members of this group were:

Brewer, Kathryn	Lodter, Juliette
Brown, Paul	Looper, Capitola
Carmack, Bernice	Martin, W. J.
Clark, Ruth	Nipper, Bessie
Cope, Joyce	Nipper, Ruby
Crockett, Edith	Smedley, Tom
Culbertson, Amerine	Stollard, Harley
Duggins, L. W.	Stephens, Carl
Fugate, Lillian	Sudderth, Helen
Gray, Rosa	Williams, Garnet
Hunt, J. T.	Woods, John Robert

Bolster Up the Buffs!

Floating o'er the campus and echoed in the neighboring towns are various comments about the Buffs, such as, "I told you so!" "They just don't have the material." "They're nothing but high-school kids," etc.

And yet, let us see just what these so-called declining Buffs have done. True, they have lost two conference games. True, also, they lost three games on three successive nights last week, but wait, let's look at that a minute. The first was to the House of David, a group of professionals whom no college team could match. Second was to Emory, one of the best teams in the South, and then only by two points. Furthermore, the great Roberts was completely sewed up by our freshman center, Steve Shelton. Third was to Appalachian by two points when they were looping one-hand shots from all over the floor, when a Buff gave them a basket, and when one of their shots hit a cross-piece above the basket and careened through for a goal. On this last, the referee was under the basket, out of bounds, could not see the play, and let the goal count.

We are not seeking to excuse the Buffs, but we can accept fact. With every team pointing for them, with bum ankles, sore knees, bad colds, and what-not, they have played excellent ball, have but lost by two points, and have yet to recognize another conference team as really superior.

What they need is our spirit, our yells and support. If we do our share, you can bet that the Buffs will do theirs. After a much-needed rest this week they will face the crucial games of the season. Come on everyone, yell your heads off and send our team through to championship number eight straight!

True Democracy

For a century and a half, the theory of "democracy" as the best and most practical form of government has been in the ascendancy. Especially in America has this been true, with the great majority believing implicitly that any other form of rule was wholly false, and those advocating even the slightest variation were, and often are, termed "communists," "bolsheviks" and what-not.

Seldom, if ever, did the gullible American public which was so intent on conquering a continent ask the all-important question, "What is true democracy?"

At length the trend reached its peak when our people were lured into the Great War, into destruction and bloodshed by the nation-wide appeal to make the world "safe for democracy."

But the failure of the above-mentioned end, and the increase of corrupt politics, the growth of monopoly, the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few, the lowly chicanery and corruption apparent on every hand in national affairs, led many of our leading thinkers to condemn the so-called American "democracy" as nothing but brazen hypocrisy and capitalistic autocracy.

Today, more than ever before, are a great number of Americans beginning to realize what a true democracy is. They are seeing that the greatest thinkers, the greatest philosophers, have been right in their advocacy of power, not to the wealthy, not to the masses, but to the wisest and most intelligent. True democracy is a society in which each and every member has full opportunity to develop his talents and abilities to the greatest possible extent, and this is to be achieved only by utilization of intelligence and wisdom, possessed by the few, yet the means of plenty for all.

If we possess but a spark of thought within our beings, it should be obvious that perhaps our greatest duty to humanity is to replace the politician by the scientist.

A BUFFALO HE(A)RD

A little birdie—twittering gently in the old Buffalo's ear—reveals the following:

"Cowboy" Range, with an inquisitive look on his face, innocently queries of Prof. Carpenter, "Say, Prof, was osmosis the son of Moses?"

Turley Oakley's greatest contribution to the intelligence of man: "What we need is a fuller conference schedule."

Believe it or not! Jack "Tarzan" Willis was seen strolling merrily over the campus the other days with Frank "Rabbit" Jones' "one and only." You know the old saying "Rabbit", "Never neglect em a minute!"

It seems that guilty consciences are even to be found in the profession of the ministry. For instance, Rev. John Hall arises from the soothing clutches of Morpheus in the middle of the night and passionately cries, "I love you Ruth, I love you!"

From all indications, Gus Purcell seems convinced that the hard, stony steps by the football field are much to be preferred to the soft, comfortable divans of Hardin Hall.

Wuxtra! Wuxtra!—Young college magician almost kidnapped! James Gorman, while sitting peacefully on the stairway in Hardin Hall partaking of good old conference, suddenly felt to his great surprise innumerable silken folds (or was it rayon) drop gently o'er his brow. Says Jimmy, "That was the first time I ever had anything like that around my head."

By the way, latest reports from the moronic bunko advertising association reveals a full page d containing the following: "Nat Lowe, collegii Milliganiensis student, is seeking a job of digging ditches at $12 per week." Ambitious boy! Just like a little piece of dandruff trying to get ahead in the hard old world.

Flash! Flash! BANG!*** The wires are simply sizzling with news—Johnny "Experienced Boy" Abbott introduces his "sweet petunia" (Shirley Scott, at the L. M. U. game as the "sweetest thing this side of heaven."—Yum! Yum! Eat 'em up!***

Places at the dining tables have again been changed, and as always, we notice the usual "coincidences". Most notable is "Well-rounded Personality" Sue Gunter's precious place next to "Blond Venus" Lacey.

Say, Jamie Bolling, what's this we hear about the things you used to do in your younger days? O well, don't worry, "we won't tell, will we?"

Many fellows (and perhaps some young ladies) will be glad to hear that Decameron Duggins has been leading a new and nobler life recently. His latest report is, "I'm down to five ducks a day." We only wish that Summers Jones and Joe Groom could say the same.

As far as Pete Warren is concerned, there isn't any third floor at the boys' dorm any more. What about that, Sturgill?

Kruckeberg, Milligan's "Big Butter and Egg" man, evidently doesn't take to Buffalettes, and turns to Teachers College for his "amorous" adventures.

We hear that "Crum" Akers is still crying in his dreams, "Go away Potter, go 'way!"

According to the latest animal census for East Tennessee, the bovine population of Milligan College has increased by two. In other words, Bill White's faithful "bossie" has given birth to twins. Mrs. White's comments on the matter ran as follows: "You know, I was going to give the calf away so that I would have all the milk to sell to the students (good old profits) but just think, she had twins! And I just can't give those cute little twins away."

TRUTH AS WELL AS POETRY!

You can lead a horse to water,

But you cannot make him drink.

You can send a boy to college,

But you cannot make him think.

—Edward Decameron Duggins.

Famous last words: Its a great life if you don't weaken, but its a greater life if you weaken just a little bit!

DISSERTATION ON LOVE

(By Professor Stephen Lacey)

Just a word of four letters, starting with "L" and ending in "E"—guess it? Sure—who could be so indescribably irresponsible and pretentious as to miss the two intervening members of the alphabet!

Words—words—words, always present, never wanting, always desiring to express but seldom expressing, eternally seeking meaning but rarely meaningful.

On forever could we go relating the emptiness and utter silliness of our own method for the transmission of ideas and emotions. However, just a momentary pause, dear reader, and I shall endeavor to illuminate your cerebral processes on the great word termed L-O-V-E.

We know not whence its origin nor whither its journey.

If we have it, we cannot elude it and if we do not have it, we cannot buy it.

It is a priceless jewel that exhibits its brilliant sparkle from heaven to earth.

It floats through the air with the majesty of a king—with the swiftness of a fairy.

It is simple in process but puzzling in results.

It makes men weak, yet in their weakness they become immeasurably strong.

It breathes the fumes of time, but exhales the vapors of eternity.

It approaches the realm of the Divine and yet retains its identity in the precinct of the real.

Goddess of Love, stretch forth your hand that all men may realize your virtues. Impel the human race to never use your name in vain, and make loyalty your ceremony and fairness your action.

We perceive not its length nor measure its breadth.

We check not its balance nor ponder its extremities.

It makes men preach and yet it makes them forget their text.

Its soft, white hand beckons to men and women of all races, of all ages, and of all positions.

DO YOU KNOW OUR STAR CAGERS?

Percy Grant

Percy Albert Grant was born on Walden's Ridge, May 10, 1912. Education facilities at home were limited, but in 1926 Percy entered Soddy High. Finding the athletic situations here unfavorable, he transferred two years later to Daisy High. It was here that Percy really got his start in basketball, and for two years was a star guard on the Daisy High team, Hamilton County Champions.

Entering Milligan in 1931, Percy began to uphold the family name which has been synonymous with Milligan basketball. Having come to Milligan when stars were plentiful, Percy was content to be a second stringer although he made his letter.

The next year he rose to great heights, especially in the 44-26 conquest of U. T. Last year he was the outstanding guard of the conference and was given a position on the all-conference team. Due to injuries, Percy has not yet reached that form this year, but should do so later.

After receiving his B. S. degree this spring, Percy plans to teach science and coach in a senior high school.

Bogges Culvahouse

Arthur Bogges Culvahouse, senior forward of the Buffaloes was born July 12, 1911 at Euchee, Tennessee. Culvy took his prep work at Euchee Junior High and at Meigs County High where he was graduated in 1929.

After a semester at Tennessee Wesleyan, Culvy entered Milligan in 1930, and is now taking his senior year's work, having taught school in 1932-33.

Culvy is one of the unsung heroes of Milligan, his playing, while not spectacular being invariably consistent. Along with Roark, Randolph, Campbell, and Keefauver, Culvy performed on the famous second string team of 1930-31. This team often succeeded where the first five failed.

Getting his first real chance last year, Culvy came through in grand style, personally conducting the Buffaloes to victory over Carson-Newman.

Throughout his schooling, he was lettered each year in each sport in which he was eligible, winning five college letters in basketball and four in football.

He takes his B. S. degree this May, and expects to teach and coach before pursuing graduate work.

Dick Ayers

Dick Donald Ayers first saw the light of day in Linden, December 30, 1912. After attending various grammar schools, Dick entered Perry County High School in 1926 and graduated with the illustrious class of '31. For two years Dick participated in basketball and football, becoming more proficient in the former. In 1931-32 he was a star guard with the Linden Cardinals, the independent basketball champions of West Tennessee.

Dick entered Milligan in September 1932 and found the competition rather keen for the basketball posts, but working earnestly and diligently he was rewarded a letter his first year. His most notable achievement of that year was furnishing the spark of inspiration which enabled Milligan to come from behind and defeat Carson-Newman.

He played regularly last season and was particularly good in the U. T. and L. M. U. games. Dick's work has been of a high type this year, and he is one of the most dependable guards in the conference.

SAVAGE SPORTS SLANTS

The sports calendar for the coming week is very light. After the Emory-Henry tussle tomorrow night, the Buffaloes have a week in which to prepare for the Pioneers. An Eyler-coached team has never lost to Tusculum in basketball.

Basketball fans have no reason to worry for the lack of entertainment this week for last week provided as many thrills as were ever witnessed in a single week's performances.

The House of David put on a masterful display of basketball tricks and plays in downing the Buffaloes 37-30. The House of David lads seem to have no difficulty winning by the hair on their chinny-chin-chins. Their conquest of the Buffs was the 52nd victory in 59 games. Their exhibition is very comparable to that of the Celtics.

In probably the most exciting girls' game ever witnessed here, the Buffettes trounced Appalachian 23-22. Huddleston tossed in a free shot after the game had ended.

Appalachian, displaying two of the best goal tossers to perform here this year, took the Buffaloes into camp, 51-49. The Buffaloes not only lost this game, but the Appalachian lads won it as well. McConnell and Brown, who together tallied 37 points, were not "hot" for past games show this to be an average performance for them.

After last week's thrills, all those suffering from angina pectoris, love, and other heart ailments should be well-rested for the big game tomorrow night.

News from the coast has it that two girls' colleges are preparing football teams and will play each other next fall.

As Mark Hellinger would remark, "That's the beginning of the end. In a couple of generations husbands and wives will be arguing as to who wears the pants in the family."

One of the reasons for the slump in the Buffaloes' offensive is the apparent collapse of Tidwell, lanky center.

In the first four major games, Tidwell averaged better than 14 points. In the last 5 games, his average has been 5 points. His return to good health and form should bolster the Buffaloes.

Steve Shelton has come through in a pleasing manner. His guarding of "Houdini" Roberts was spectacular.

Percy is the third of the Grant family to captain the Buffaloes. Clark Grant led them in 1927-28. Archie piloted them two years, 1928-29 and 1929-30.

Culvahouse has proved the most consistent scorer this year. In 7 conference games, he has scored 68 points, or an average of about 10 per game.

A total of 43 fouls were called in the Milligan-Appalachian game. That's too much tooting on the part of the referee. Fans do not pay to see the referee stage a whistle-blowing marathon.

Buffettes' Record Shows 3 Straight Wins

The Buffettes have been successful so far this season by defeating the Bristol Independents, Tennessee Wesleyan, and Appalachian State Teachers College.

Coach Lacey sees steady improvement in the girls' ability to pass and to handle the ball. The squad is limited to thirteen members, but so far a definite squad has not been selected as many are showing marked improvement.

The game with Appalachian on Thursday night, January 24, was one of the most thrilling ever played on the local court. The Buffettes overcame a seven point lead and won 23 to 22 amid wild yelling when Delma Huddleston came through with a free shot after the final whistle had blown.

The lineups for the Appalachian game were as follows:

|                    |                 |
|--------------------|-----------------|
| Appalachian | Milligan |
| C. Barger .....    | Crabtree        |
| F. Felmet .....    | Huddleston      |
| F. Huskins .....   | Walker          |
| G. Shumacher ..... | Rice            |
| G. Chaffin .....   | Qualls          |
| G. McRae .....     | Brown           |

Substitutes: Appalachian—Beasley, Rudisell, McAden; for Milligan: Williams, Booth, Liebrock, and Orr.

Girls' Schedule and Past Results

- January 22—Tennessee Wesleyan 10, Milligan 33.
- January 24—Appalachian 22; Milligan 23.
- February 8—Hiwassee, there.
- February 9—Tennessee Wesleyan, there.
- February 18—Appalachian, there.
- February 28—L. M. U., there.
- (Date not set)—L. M. U., here.

Buff Wins Thriller; Beat L. M. U. 36 to 35

Having dropped a heart-breaking 51-49 tilt to Appalachian Saturday night, the Buffaloes broke back into the win column with a thrilling 36-35 victory over L. M. U. Monday night. The game was a typical Milligan-L. M. U. game, being a rough and tumble affair throughout.

The Buffs quickly ran up a 9-2 lead in the first few minute of play, but the Railsplitters began to find the basket with regularity, and at the intermission were leading the Buffaloes 15-14.

The Railsplitters maintained this lead until the final 40 seconds of play when Albright made a bucket from the circle to knot the count at 30 all, sending the game into an extra period.

During the play-off, L. M. U. added 5 points, and to overcome these, Culvahouse cashed in on a couple of free throws and Ayers added a pair of buckets. Ayers' final goal came from the center of the floor with 45 seconds to play, winning the game for the Buffs.

Culvahouse with 11 points, and Ayers with 9 points were the offensive stars of the game. Shelton started the game at center and turned in a creditable performance. Milligan's defense was at par as Stookesbury and Livesay, the L. M. U. aces, were held to 5 points each. Barker and Hurst looked best for L. M. U.

The lineup:

|                          |                 |
|--------------------------|-----------------|
| Milligan          | L. M. U. |
| F. Ragsdale .....        | Stookesbury (5) |
| F. Culvahouse (11) ..... | Hurst (6)       |
| C. Shelton (6) .....     | Livesay (5)     |
| G. Grant (2) .....       | Slover (2)      |
| G. Ayers (9) .....       | Barker (8)      |

Subs: Milligan—Bolling, Tidwell (3), Albright (3), and Gilley (2).

L. M. U.: Johns (2), Saine (2), Boyer (2), and Brewer (3).

MILLIGAN PLAYS EMORY WASPS ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Large Crowd Is Expected To Witness Roberts and His Crew Perform.

One of the largest crowds ever to witness a basketball game at Milligan College is expected tomorrow night when the Buffaloes tackle the Emory-Henry Wasps in a return engagement. The Buffaloes threw a scare into the Wasps' nest last week as they held the redoubtable Roberts and his crew to a 28-26 victory.

Glen Roberts, leading scorer in the nation in 1933, is one of the best drawing cards to ever appear here. His unorthodox shot has kept Emory-Henry consistently in the win column. Coach Pedie Jackson has some other lads who are also adept on the hardwood. Robinson, Fulk, Countiss, Mackey, and Neal rank with any other college cagers in all-around ability.

Although defeated by the Wasps, the Buffaloes were highly elated over their showing. Most of the so-called "experts" had picked Milligan to lose by at least 20 points, but the Buffs played inspired basketball, and with a few breaks might have won the game. Any team that holds Roberts to one field goal for thirty minutes certainly deserves commendation. Some think the Buffaloes pointed for this game, and having reached their peak will suffer a let-down sufficient to permit the Wasps to win again.

The game presents two radically opposed styles of play. The Wasps employ a slow breaking offense built on Roberts, and the Buffaloes use the fast breaking offense. Either style, however, is capable of making the points.

Emerging from the L. M. U. game with some minor casualties, the Buffaloes have recovered sufficiently to throw their full strength against the Wasps. Coach Eyler has sent the boys through three lengthy drills in which the Buffs have shown signs of returning to the form that carried them through the first six games of the season.

Both teams are out to win, and a close battle is predicted. Our boys believe they are going to win, stating that the margin of victory will be due to the presence of a noisy cheering section. Certain it is that the Buffs are always especially strong on the home floor.

SOCIETY NEWS ABOUT MILLIGAN STUDENTS

By Yetiva Varner

The Senior Girls were guests of Mrs. H. J. Derthick, Monday evening at a theatre party in Johnson City. Guests other than Seniors were Misses Nancy Cantrell, Faye Jones, and Lois Qualls.

Miss Nancy Cantrell has resumed her work in the capacity of representing Milligan College in the surrounding region. She will take the field of her work in the next few weeks when she will cover most of the state and parts of adjoining ones.

President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick were visitors in Washington last week, and while there President Derthick was guest at tea with the First Lady.

Chet Payne of Webster Grove, Missouri, is visiting friends on the campus. Chet will be remembered as a star player and high-point man on Milligan cage teams of '32-'33, and '33-'34.

Mr. L. P. Brewer of Sequatchie, Tennessee, was the guest of his daughter, Miss Kathryn Brewer last Wednesday night.

Mr. Roger Derthick will make his first visit to his home and the campus since the holidays this week-end, arriving tomorrow.

Kenneth Burnette had as guests on January 13, his parents from Chattanooga.

Miss Dorothy Bennett and Edith Tugle visited Miss Polly Smith in Johnson City, Monday afternoon.

Miss Shirley Scott spent the week-end at her home in Jonesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Comann of Norton, Virginia, were guests of their daughter, Minnie, January 13.

Misses Thelma and Sue Quillen were guests last week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quillen in Hilton, Virginia.

Misses Ruby and Bessie Nipper visited Miss Sophia Masterton at Teachers College last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowman, upon the absence of Mrs. Derthick, chaperoned

MINISTERIAL NEWS

"To live in Christ and to die is gain."—Philippians 1:21.

On Monday, January 21, at a meeting of the ministerial groups, the following officers were elected: for the Boys' Ministerial Association, President, John Hall; Vice-President, Paul Brown; Secretary-Treasurer, Raymond Phillips; for the

The Milligan Sextette composed of Miss Wright, Ruth Walker, Sunshine Williams, Beatrice Rice, Dorothy Bennett, and Elaine Turner, appeared on the program Wednesday night at the President's Ball in Johnson City.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Seeck, accompanied by Miss Dimple Hart and Miss Graham Belcher, were present Tuesday night at the presentation of Galsworthy's play, "The First and Last" by the Little Theatre Guild of Johnson City.

Misses Dimple Hart and Graham Belcher attended the interpretation of Edmond Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" by Anton Thompson of the Boston School of Expression at Sullins College in Bristol last Monday night.

Mr. Tommie Brock of Cleveland, Tennessee, student of last semester, returned for a short visit with friends on the campus, January 20.

Girls' Volunteer Band, President, Dorothy Neiser; Vice-President, Lorayne Schreckengost; Secretary-Treasurer, June Lewis. Song leader for the entire group is Leslie Wood.

The last message to Milligan College from the heart of our beloved Mr. Hopwood came last Sunday evening just prior to the Christian Endeavor meeting. He sent word to this organization saying, "Give them all my love."

As ten of our members, at the request of Mrs. Hopwood, stood at the bedside of the founder and lover of our college singing hymns and praying, the realization dawned upon our souls more than ever before of the undying value and influence of this noble, Christian gentleman, and of the rich, deep, Christ-like impressions his sacrificial life has made on thousands of men and women hungering and thirsting for the Bread and Water of Life.

To be in Mr. Hopwood's presence is to stand on holy ground. To walk in his footsteps is to walk, as far as is humanly possible in the footsteps of our Lord and Saviour. Oh, that Milligan College might live up to the high Christian ideals cherished by this man of God! Truly for him, "to live is Christ and to die is gain."

May we as a group of Christian young people so love and treasure the sacred memory of our sainted college founder that we will be drawn each day ever nearer to the Christ he loved and served so long.

"Only one life,
'Twill soon be past,
Only what's done
For Jesus will last."

Christian Endeavor News
