

NEGRO MINSTREL
TO BE PRESENTED
SOON BY 'M' CLUB*Program of Songs, Jokes, and Dances Planned by Milligan Athletes.

The boys' "M" Club is planning to present its negro minstrel within the next two weeks, the definite date not having as yet been designated. Practices have been diligently pursued for several weeks, and the program promises to be one of the choice entertainments which will be given at Milligan this semester.

Closing the regular minstrel will be an afterpiece, "The Commencement at Oxtail College," in which ten characters will take part.

In addition to the regular minstrel, a group of added features will be presented. First and foremost appears the Singing and Dancing Chorus, starring Carl Stephens, Byrl Poe, Starling Woods, Kyle Cross, Horace Willis, and Ray Anderson. A close second to the above should be the quartet which will include Ray Anderson, Steve Lacey, Luke Gaffin, and Clarence Witt.

Also, LeRoy Hicks with his drolling guitar will be present, and Prof. Edward Lodter will favor with a vocal solo.

Probably the highlights of the entire show will be a negro monologue by Cameron Duggins, and a negro solo, "Ah Wed 300 Pounds" by "Squirrel" Sanders.

Miss Dimple Hart and Miss Juliet Lodter are directing the production, Miss Hart the speaking and acting, and Miss Lodter the singing and dancing. It is through their valuable instruction that the minstrel has been made possible.

Pre-Med Club Meeting
To Be Scene of Debate

Pre-medics have been looking forward during the past several weeks to the meeting to be held tonight, February 15.

The cause for the unusual wave of expectancy lies in the fact that a debate is to be staged dealing with the question, "Resolved: That Sickness and Hospital Bills Should Be Met by Government Sickness and Accident Insurance."

The aspiring arguers include Sam Cecil, Summers Jones, Blaine Sturgill, and Dudley Culvahouse. President Ed Lacey and Secretary-Treasurer John Joseph Groom are to act as judges.

In accordance with a new policy adopted by the club several weeks ago, all members will be expected to appear in dress suit.

Dramatic Club To Present Play Soon

"The Bishop's Candlesticks", a short drama of a serious type will be presented at a Dramatic Club Meeting soon. Mary Elizabeth Foster is directing this play, having replaced Dorothy Bennett who was originally announced as the director.

The cast includes the following:
Persome—Edith Tuggle.
The Maid (to Persome)—Ruby Crawford.

The Bishop—James Tidwell.
Connich—James Gorman.
A Guard—Preston Adams.

Lois Neiser has selected as the try-out play which she will direct, "The Dress Rehearsal of Hamlet." Jack Willis is also to direct a try-out play, but has not as yet made a selection.

The Dramatic Club recently decided not to present a number of the try-out plays which were originally planned. This decision was largely the result of the fact that the numerous other activities, especially basketball, in which Dramatic Club members take part, made it almost impossible for any definite time to be designated for practice. However, following the close of the basketball season, the club is expecting to pursue a more active program.

No definite arrangements have as yet been made for the presentation of "The School For Scandal" in either Kingsport or Erwin, from which towns invitations were received.

It is certain, however, that this play cannot be given again until after the M Club's negro minstrel, as several of the former's leading characters are also assuming heavy roles in the latter.

Shakespearean Program Presented Last Friday

Last Friday evening, February 8, Milligan was favored with the production, "Great Scenes from Shakespeare", as presented by the Shakespearean Players under the auspices of the Classic Guild of New York City. The players included Stanley Cobleigh, Joan Beckwith, and John Mitchell Swan.

These actors, veterans in Shakespearean production, came with a number of notable performances to their credit. Cobleigh and Swan received their earlier training at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, while Joan Beckwith studied acting in Paris where she made her debut in Maurice Maeterlinck's symbolistic drama, "Blue Bird."

The program consisted of choice scenes from Julius Caesar, Hamlet, The Merchant of Venice, Romeo and Juliet, and Macbeth. Among these were found such well-known gems as Hamlet's Soliloquy, The Oration Scene at the death of Caesar, Portia's Quality of Mercy Speech, Balcony Scene, The Sleep Walking Scene, and The Death of Macbeth.

Cobleigh played the leading male roles such as Hamlet and Macbeth, with Swan assuming the comic roles, being best received as the porter in Macbeth. Miss Beckwith's portrayals of Juliet and Lady Macbeth were impressive; each actor displayed unusual versatility.

Dr. C. M. Eyler Will Remain At Milligan

Dr. Clement M. Eyler, Professor of English and basketball coach at Milligan since 1926, excepting the year 1929-30 which he spent in travel and study abroad, is not, as was so widely rumored, going to the University of Tennessee this next year as basketball coach and English professor.

Dr. Eyler, unknown to the many "tongue-waggers", definitely decided by the middle of January to remain at Milligan, and informed the U. T. officials of his decision on January 19, when he and the Milligan team were at Knoxville on their return trip from Cullowhee.

However, he did not make his decision public until Monday, February 4, choosing to give both the Vols and Milliganites a chance to speculate as to his final decision.

When questioned concerning the real cause of his refusal to accept the lucrative U. T. offer, Dr. Eyler replied, "There is a great deal more to life than mere money contentment. That which you have tried and know is contentment is oftentimes much better than a higher position with more pay."

The fact that Dr. Eyler has perhaps received greater popularity as a basketball coach than as an English professor and research worker—at least in this section—caused many to forget that his major interest is English, and that basketball is for him a hobby, one, however, in which he is an authority.

Dr. Eyler's many friendships at Milligan, his opportunity here to personally contact practically all of the students, and his excellent chance to teach both basketball and English unhampered have all doubtless led him to decide to remain at Milligan rather than to go to U. T.

Milligan Trios Appear In Church Programs

Last Sunday evening, February 10, the trio consisting of Miss Margaretta Wright, Dorothy Bennett, and Elaine Turner, sang at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Johnson City, of which Rev. Broyles is pastor. Miss Margaret Wright, conductor of the church choir, invited them back as well as inviting Miss Wright to furnish singers to assist in presenting an Easter cantata.

Also on last Sunday evening, the other Milligan trio, Ruth Walker, Sunshine Williams, and Beatrice Rice, appeared at Dr. Umbraugh's Presbyterian Church in Elizabethton. It was the occasion of a Boy Scout Rally.

Numerous invitations for Milligan musical talent have recently been extended. Prof. Norris of Teachers College has asked the sextette to give a chapel program there in the near future, and the entire glee club has been invited to give a program at Erwin.

Miss Wright recently had the honor of singing for the Business and Professional Women's Club in Johnson City. Her part of the program included the following selections, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," "Mighty Lak a Rose", "The Yum Yum Song" from Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado", and "Without a Song."

BUFF FOOTBALL
BANQUET HELD
ON FEBRUARY 11*Large Crowd Pays Honor To
1934 Smoky Mountain
Champions.*PROF. BURNS
TOASTMASTER*Varied Program Provides Full Evening of Praise and Entertainment.

The long-deferred football banquet in honor of Milligan's 1934 Smoky Mountain Champs was finally held last Monday evening at the John Sevier Hotel in Johnson. The total attendance was approximately one hundred twenty, including thirty-two football men.

Although scheduled for 7:00 o'clock, the activities actually began at 7:30 and continued until 10:00.

In the absence of President Derthick, Prof. Burns acted as toastmaster, performing with the keenest of wit, his ever-ready quips literally keeping the entire group in an uproar.

Numerous toasts were given, ones by Prof. Cochrane to the team, Dr. Thompson to Captain Woods, Boggess Culvahouse to the student body, Mervin McCloskey to Mrs. Derthick, Prof. Burns to Coach Lacey, Milbert Bible and Dean Eyler to next year's co-captains, Gles Harvey and Clarence Irvin. In his toast to Coach Lacey, Toastmaster Burns reached the height of his keen witticism.

Dean Eyler, while giving Coach Lacey's former athletic record, revealingly started as follows, "Beginning with his freshman year when he sat on the bench most of the time—" It was also revealed that Steve was quite adept in breaking window lights with a basketball. Further material in Dean Eyler's speech while awarding the football certificates included a plea to the boys to cooperate in building a strong team next year. He also mentioned the outstanding achievement of Boggess Culvahouse in being the only Milligan athlete to receive eight letters.

Coach Lacey publicly thanked everyone for their interest and support, and showed that some who work the hardest are often least rewarded.

Short talks were given by Dr. Lodter, Dr. Willard, and the following alumni: Miss Lois Hale, Prof. Charles Crouch, Bill Bowman, Ab Price, and Roger Derthick.

A number of entertaining features such as readings and songs were included in the program. The trio, Beatrice Rice, Sunshine Williams, and Ruth Walker, sang "Walking in Winter Wonderland" and "After Sundown." Miss Wright rendered "Without a Song" and was without one when it came to an encore. Miss Dimple Hart gave several readings, of which "If You Want a Kiss, Take It" obviously cheered Dr. Willard's lagging spirits.

Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly, and the banquet should serve as a precedent to be followed in future years.

February—Month of Great Men

Our entire nation has been celebrating this past week the birthday of Lincoln, "Savior of Our Country," and in another week universal homage will be done Washington, "Founder of Our Country." A few days later many adults and countless thousands of school children will be paying tribute to Longfellow, our most "popular" poet. Yet how lamentably true it is that but a knowing few have realized that February third marked the birth of one of the greatest of all-American geniuses, the gifted Southern poet, Sidney Lanier, who ranks but second to his unexcelled fellow-Southerner, Edgar Allan Poe.

True, Lanier did not contribute discoveries or means by which material goods could be increased, but how true it is that he sought with a fervent passion, surpassed only by the brilliant Poe, the secret and expressive mean of beauty in its highest ultimate purity, this in spite of unconquerable physical hardship.

Often do we hear scientists, statesmen, and religious leaders held forth as doers of great and praiseworthy deeds. How seldom do we ever hear of the nobler and higher qualities of the more sensitive and expressive Lanier, the true genius, he who languishes in the ethereal.

Seek not for greatest joy and value in the harsh facts of the scientist, in the bombastic ravings of the statesman, nor yet in the childish fancies of a Longfellow, but rather in the musical, rhythmical, and supremely harmonious and expressive cadences of a Lanier or a Poe.

Modern Education — A Hoax!

One of the most undermining and degrading conceptions possessed by the modern American is his narrow, prejudiced, and ultra-materialistic view concerning education. To but a few does an education mean more than attending formal schools for a prescribed number of years, receiving a degree upon finishing, and using the prestige of the degree as a means of obtaining a position in which more dollars can be received than otherwise would be possible.

The direct result of this distorted conception is all too apparent to merit any degree of illustration. Suffice it to say that literally thousands of "exposed humans" are being turned out annually, supposedly educated beings, who, far from being so, possess not so much as a minute semblance of scholarly interest, artistic appreciation, or cultural understanding.

The school is directly at fault for the American student's mental capacity is certainly as great as that of any other. Indirectly, the fault rests with the unforgeable conception previously stated.

The above condemnation is in no sense excessive. Allow us to quote from a universally-known American educator. He says, "The school cannot evade responsibility for the present low mental life in this republic. The people have been taught by the school to read; they prefer to read TRASH, and they act in important situations just as people would be expected to act who read that sort of thing."

The crying need of the modern realm of learning is a true and enlightening philosophy of education. For years we have been following false and destructive standards, and our present dilemma is largely if not wholly a result of this. Scholarship, wisdom, and from these a noble and uplifting synthesis of modern socioeconomic facts represent the most valuable qualities to our present machine civilization.

A BUFFALO HE(A)RD

COLLEGE IQ EXAM

(Prepared by Dr. George Aloysius Seeck)

How many can you answer?

1. What was Patrick Henry's second choice?
2. What are cheeky pitfalls?
3. The only thing in the world that can get the last word with a woman?
4. Who is it so perfectly attractive that you are bound to fall in love with it sometime or other?
5. The only crop that stays green all the year round?
6. What do you get in return for lost time?
7. Name the isthmus joining the two parts of the isle of man?
8. What makes wine worth more and women less?
9. A device employed by lovers to suggest their real feeling toward each other?
10. Single women's playthings and married women's property?

Digging deep into his misty manuscripts the ol' Buff pulls out the following "bull" —

That gorgeous balcony scene presented by the Shakespearean Players evidently left a lasting impression upon Milligan lovers. We find "Romeo" Duggins flaunting the dazzling Sue Gunter at the football banquet with the polished air of the refined gentleman that he is. Not so bad for the old woman-chaser's first venture!**

Although the Milligan administration made every possible provision against accidents occurring to or from the banquet, poor Jimmy Gorman got Hitt. All hopes for his recovery have been forsaken.

"Hold the Phone" Keller seemed to have the situation well in hand with a "smoothy de luxe" as his mate.

Doc Willard fooked woefully lonesome the first part of the evening, but after Miss Dimple Hart's appropriate revelations concerning kissing, he seemed to find a new hope in life.

Although apparently unsuccessful in his earnest attempt to borrow a tuxedo, Prof. Burns was in all his glory as toastmaster. No one escaped the scathing lashes of his witty outbursts.

Wall I declah, what's this?—It seems that President Derthick in a period of extreme emotional stress must have been hitting his fist ferociously on his desk, as casual observation reveals a large crack in the glass desk-top.

In accord with all the laws of nature, Bill Martin should soon be seen roaming the romantic nooks of Hardin Hall. The latest news bulletin discloses (or was it a little birdie?) that his Wytheville "one-and-only" has recently indulged in matrimony. Just give him a week to get over his grief, girls!

The Pardee Hall delegates to East Radford report an excellent reception in the truest sense of the word. Representative Smedley complains that the girls were a little too rough however, for while trying to escape from the dining hall, he was subjected to a bombardment of biscuits by a bevy of beautiful blondes—maybe its that curly hair of yours, Tom?

LITERARY DIGEST PEACE POLL SHOWS STUDENTS ARE ANTI-MILITARISTIC

Nearly one-sixth of American university undergraduates states they would not bear arms in case the United States was invaded, according to the semi-final returns of The Literary Digest College Peace Poll conducted among the students of 115 leading universities, as published in to-morrow's issue of the magazine.

Of the 91,055 students voting on this issue 83.60 per cent. marked their ballots that they would fight in case an enemy invaded the United States, while 16.40 per cent. voted negatively.

On the policy of "should the United States enter the League of Nations?" the balloting was almost a tie—50.17 per cent. voting for entry and 49.83 per cent. signifying they were opposed.

Asked if they believed the United States could stay out of another great war, the student bodies responded with a more than 2 to 1 vote that the nation could avoid another major conflict.

The undergraduates balloted overwhelmingly negative on the question of bearing arms "for the United States in the invasion of the borders of another country." Of the 90,281 votes recorded on this section of the referendum, 17.83 per cent. were marked "Yes" while 82.17 per cent. were tallied in the "No" column.

By a vote of 33,870 to 58,025, they voiced opposition to the national policy that "An American navy and air force second to none is a sound method of insuring us against being drawn into another great war."

On the seventh question of "In alignment with our historic procedure in drafting man-power in time of war, would you advocate the principle of universal conscription of all resources of capital and labor in order to control all profits in time of war?" the vote showed 81.98 per cent. of the balloting for such universal conscription to 18.02 per cent. opposed.

"The percentage of ballots returned in the College Peace Poll has already been higher than in the returns in any past Literary Digest poll.

"The volume of returns would seem to indicate that American undergraduates are thinking seriously and universally about the course of current events."—Literary Digest.

DO YOU KNOW OUR STAR CAGERS?

James W. Tidwell

James Wesson Tidwell was born June 22, 1915 in Adamsville, Tennessee. He attended grammar school there and was a successful student.

Tidwell entered Adamsville High School September 1929, graduating in 1933. Due to limited athletic facilities he was somewhat hampered in his athletic career. However, he participated in basketball, baseball, and track, winning a total of eight letters. He was a valuable, although not consistent athlete.

Tidwell entered Milligan in September 1933 and immediately began working toward a letter in athletics. After substituting for Payne last year, he was awarded a letter. His work in the Emory-Henry game stamped him as a future star.

After a good start this season, Tidwell was checked by injuries but he has recently begun to regain form, especially under the bucket. His pre-Christmas form had made fans forget "Kangaroo" Payne.

Tidwell is a pre-medic, and after taking his B. S. degree expects to study medicine as well as to lead Miss Maggie Lou Koss to the altar.

Arnold D. Albright

Arnold Devon Albright emerged into the world on March 6, 1913 in Washington, D. C. We find records of his attending elementary schools in Washington, D. C., Borderland, Canada, Milford and Wolcottville, Indiana.

Albright entered LaGrange High at Wolcottville, graduating in 1931. He was an outstanding athlete in high school. He entered DePauw University at Greencastle, Indiana in September 1931, and won his numerals in basketball, football and baseball.

For the next two years he was officially connected with the U. S. government, and during this time played independent basketball.

Searching for a school with a good commercial department, Albright chose Milligan, entering last Fall. He is upholding the Indiana tradition of producing star players. In the absence of Capt. Grant, he has performed ably, his smooth playing being a factor in many victories for the Buffaloes.

"Archie" has two more years in which to display his hardwood wares before taking his B. S. in commerce. He hopes to reenter the employ of the government.

Martin A. Ragsdale

Martin A. Ragsdale made his debut on the stage of life on August 5, 1916 in Cleveland, Tennessee. His elementary work was taken at the Central Grammar School.

Ragsdale entered Bradley Central High School at Cleveland in September, 1930. Bradley possessed one of the best athletic organizations for high schools, and Ragsdale had better than average success there. He participated in basketball, football, and baseball, winning two letters in each sport. His outstanding play in football made him recognized as one of the best halfbacks in East Tennessee.

Entering Milligan last Fall, Ragsdale was forced to retire from football due to an injury of his shoulder. He was conceded but little chance of making the varsity basketball squad. His speed and determination drew favorable comment, and when Shelley departed, Ragsdale stepped in and filled the breach efficiently. His work in the King and Emory games has been especially pleasing.

SAVAGE SPORTS SLANTS

The Buffaloes face the most crucial week of the conference schedule. After the Teachers game tomorrow night, they meet five foes within the next ten days.

Maryville, the loop leaders, come here Monday night. The Scotties have thus far proved themselves the class of the conference.

Tuesday night, the Buffaloes journey to Boone, N. C., seeking revenge for their recent defeat at the hands of Appalachian. The Buffs are conceded a good chance to even the series.

The King Tornado blows in Thursday night for a tussle, and the usual colorful battle is anticipated.

Taking his defeat rather graciously, Frosty Holt told the Buffaloes he would get 'em when they invade Jeferson City. According to Holt, this year's edition of the Buffaloes is the weakest he has ever faced. The same must hold true for the Eagles, and was "No-point" Laymon's face red after the game Tuesday night!

The Buffaloes, after a highly successful road trip, meet L. M. U. tonight in the local gym in a contest which may even surpass the recent Appalachian game. As both teams have perfect records, everything will be at stake.

Why can't girl teams in this district have an organized conference? Our Buffalettes deserve a better chance. Lacey, the "blondissimo" coach has produced one of the best "gal" teams ever to represent Milligan.

Glen Roberts, one of the best college cage stars ever to appear here, played his "swan song" in the Cheek gymnasium, February 2. Roberts has faced the Buffaloes eight times and has emerged victorious in seven of these. His graduation may pull Emory-Henry down to a more equitable basis with the other teams in this section, but his absence will cause the coffers of the exchequer of small colleges such as Milligan to "taste the difference."

Culvahouse and Ayers have scored in every game, but Tidwell, with 103 points in 9 conference games has the best average. Tidwell's return to form casts a brightening ray o'er the Buffalo ranks.

"All-conference" Albright is fitting very well into Coach Eyler's new combination.

Bolling has as much natural ability as any other member of the team, but is having a tough time orienting himself in the Eyler system.

Dr. C. M. Eyler, "generalissimo" of the Buffaloes, is to remain with us another year. We rejoice at U. T.'s loss.

Buff Pluck Eagles To Tune of 37 to 25

The Buffaloes, having defeated Tusculum 40-25 Saturday night, continued their winning ways by plucking the feather from the Carson-Newman Eagles Tuesday night to the tune of 37-25.

Coach Eyler presented a new combination which took the lead and maintained a safe margin until the middle of the second period. The Milligan machine collapsed momentarily, and the Eagles, with five minutes to play, pulled up within three points of the Buffs. In a dramatic finish the Buffs stretched this lead to twelve points.

Tidwell and Culvahouse, with 15 and 14 points respectively, led the Buffaloes' scoring. Laymon, star center of the Eagles, was held scoreless. Hawkins and Wallace, with 7 points each, were best for the Eagles.

The lineup:

|                  |       |                      |

Buff Hopes Blasted By Maryville, 43-32

The Buffaloes hopes for the conference championship were given a rude jolt last night, as the Maryville Scotties soundly trounced them 43-32. It was the eighth victory against no defeats for Maryville and left the Buffs only a mathematical chance. Three victories for Maryville will cinch the flag.

The game was much closer than the score indicates, and during the earlier stages of the game it was a nip and tuck battle. The score at the intermission was deadlocked at 19 all. The Buffs ran up a four point lead only to have the Scotties retaliate. The score was tied again at 30 all, but the Buffs were not able to stave off a beated rally, and the Scotties coasted to victory with a superb demonstration of goal tossing in the fading moments of the game.

Hannah, star center of Maryville, was the outstanding offensive star of the night. He contributed 17 points with Allen and Henry adding 11 each. Milligan's offensive burden was borne rather equally by Ayers with 10 points and Grant and Tidwell with 9 each.

The lineup:

|                 |       |                  |
|-----------------|-------|------------------|
| Milligan |       | Maryville |
| F. Grant (c) 9  | ----- | Allen (c) 11     |
| F. Culvahouse 2 | ----- | Henry 11         |
| C. Tidwell 9    | ----- | Hannah 17        |
| G. Ayers 10     | ----- | Crumbaugh 2      |
| G. Albright 2   | ----- | Overly 0         |

BUFF CAGERS TO FACE TEACHERS IN HARD BATTLE

The Buffaloes face the S. T. C. Buccaneers tomorrow night before what promises to be the largest crowd ever assembled to witness an athletic contest in the Cheek gymnasium.

The game, which may have important results on the conference standings, has color and rivalry sufficient to make it the hardwood classic of the year. The Buccaneers haven't forgotten the Turkey Day defeat the Buffaloes administered to them on the gridiron, and nothing but two cage victories will appease their wrath.

The Buffs will also be set for the attraction, as they too have a few scores to settle. They still bear in memory the dramatic finish the Buccaneers dealt them last year to snatch an apparent victory from their grasp.

The game tomorrow night will feature a style of play common to both teams. The Buccaneers employ a fast-breaking offense with Dyer and Crouch slipping under for craps. When this attack fails, McCall and Todd fire 'em through the hoop at long range. Massengill's unorthodox one-hand shot makes him a constant menace to the opposition. Likewise, the Buffaloes, with Grant, Culvahouse, Tidwell, Ayers, and Albright in the lineup, will resort to speed, the fastest game of the year being anticipated.

The Buccaneers will have their full strength in the game, and having rested since their victory over L. M. U. Tuesday night, they should be in the pink of condition. The Buffs, on the other hand, had a close call with Carson-Newman, and a tiring trip to Maryville, and will be playing under a slight physical handicap. Comparative scores of the season will about place the teams on an equal basis.

The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and due to the intense interest, no preliminary game will be arranged.

SOCIETY NEWS ABOUT MILLIGAN STUDENTS

By Yetiva Varner

Miss Marjorie Oliver had to return to her home in Piney Flats last Saturday because of illness.

Mr. Roger Derthick, still an ardent Milligan supporter, arrived at Milligan last Sunday from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to attend the football banquet on Monday night.

Miss Martha Cross, accompanied by Miss Ivor Jones, visited with her sister, Miss Dorothy Cross, the latter part of last week.

Miss Ada Bess Hart, former physical instructor and basketball coach for the girls, returned to the Milligan campus early this week for a short visit with her sister, Miss Dimple Hart, and with numerous old friends.

Miss Betty Jones of Jonesboro was the guest last Sunday of her friend, Miss Ben Wah Kail.

Misses Thelma and Sue Quillen visited with their parents in Hilton, Virginia, during this past week-end.

Mr. Warren Brandon had as his guests on Sunday afternoon his mother and several friends from Kingsport, Tenn.

Miss Georgia Arnett and Miss Deane Birchfield, day students from Elizabethton, spent the last week-end on the Milligan campus as the guests of Miss Virginia Anderson.

Miss Ruby Clark, Miss Opal Parris, Miss Ruby Redmon, Miss Geraldine Bryant, and Miss Ruby Turner were the guests of Miss Carsie Hyder and Miss Aline Hyder last Sunday afternoon.

Milligan was well represented among the girls at the Tusculum-Milligan basketball game at Tusculum last Saturday night. Among the co-eds who attended were Miss Mary Catharine Crittendon, Miss Capitola Looper, Miss Dereda Albertson, Miss Martha Sue Crittendon, Miss Nell Hitt, Miss Mary Belle Carrico, Miss Ruby Nipper, Miss Bernice Carmack, Miss Bessie Nipper, Miss Crystal Carr, Miss Virginia Read, Miss Ruby Crawford, Miss Elizabeth Williams, and Miss Kathryn Brewer.

Mr. Fort Fowler of Charlotte, Tennessee, and a member of last year's graduating class, visited with old friends here on the campus last Sunday and Monday. Fort was graduated with the highest scholastic honor that can be bestowed upon a Senior, that of summa cum laude.

Mr. Paul Mysinger, a former Milligan graduate, was the guest of Miss Lois Hoppers on February third.

President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Derthick and children. Mr. Derthick is now teaching at the E. T. S. Teachers College in Johnson City.

Miss Armeta Morley was the guest of Miss Mary Alice Knowlton last Saturday.

Miss Shirley Scott visited at her home in Jonesboro last week-end.

Miss Elaine Turner and Miss Dorothy Bennett were the guests of Mrs. C. E. Burns last Wednesday afternoon.

MINISTERIAL NEWS

At a recent chapel service, a certain quest speaker stated, among other things, that many of our Christian people of this modern era are lacking in enthusiasm. The statement has been made many times and justifiably so. The so-called Christian lacks the very quality which is absolutely necessary to the progress of the Kingdom of God.

If we look into the New Testament we shall find that the great Founder of Christianity was an enthusiast, and that His immediate disciples and the prince of apostles were also enthusiasts. Association with the Lord Jesus Christ had made them such. Every Christian reformer, every missionary of the cross, every successful winner of souls, has been an enthusiast. Enthusiasm of the right sort is always justifiable.

A man drops from the deck of a steamer into the sea. You shout vigorously for some one to come and help. You rescue him from a watery grave. The occasion justifies your excitement. None of your fellow-voyagers would think for a moment of condemning you, but would rather unite in commending you for your earnest efforts to save the drowning man.

Is there not a thought here for all Christians to consider earnestly and prayerfully? How can we be made a power in the world for the salvation of souls and the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom?

Have we not a hint in the words of Paul when he writes "fervent in spirit." It was Paul, you will remember, who transformed the world because of his burning zeal and constant labor in the Master's cause.

And in the same sense, when the church of Christ is filled with enthusiasm for the conquest of the world it will go forward, whether earthly leaders give the word of command or not. It will hear His command who has promised His presence unto the end of the age, and will do wonders in His name.

So let us pray for a fuller measure of this spirit, and a mighty work will be done for Christ in the world.

Buffalettes Play L. M. U. In Home Game Tonight

The Buffalettes meet Lincoln Memorial University tonight in a home game, and according to their past record and the record made by the Buffalettes, some thrilling moments will occur.

The girls have been practicing hard since they returned from their successful trip to Hiwassee and Tennessee Wesleyan. They defeated Hiwassee 30-25, and Tennessee Wesleyan 35-18. With the honor of a perfect record so far they are seeking to maintain the clean slate.

Ten girls made the trip in addition to Manager Nellie Cox, Coach Steve Lacey, and the chaperon, Mrs. W. H. Bowman. The squad consisted of Ruth Walker, Captain Delma Huddleston, Iva Crabtree, Pauline Orr, June Cox, Ruth Qualls, Mary Brown, Beatrice Rice, Caroline Liebrock, and Sunshine Williams.

Every member of the squad played in both games. The game with Hiwassee was unusually rough and slow, but the girls came through in good form to win. They displayed better form in the Tennessee Wesleyan game in spite of the new method of receiving the ball in place of the center jump which was carried out. This method was of course new to the Buffalettes but they scored just the same, easily winning by a large score, 35-18.

The lineup for the Tennessee Wesleyan game:

| Milligan    | Tenn. Wesleyan |
|-------------|----------------|
| F. Walker   | Whitaker       |
| F. Orr      | Stott          |
| C. Crabtree | McMahan        |
| G. Rice     | Hurst          |
| G. Qualls   | Davis          |
| G. Brown    | Wohlford       |
