With the dawn of redeeming grace

About Haven of Mercy

Haven of Mercy is a community mission to the homeless of our area. A major ministry of Haven of Mercy is to provide meals for people who would not otherwise have a nutritious meal available. Within the past year the numbers of people needing meals has almost doubled, and the amount of food donated has diminished by half. Your generous donation tonight will go a long way to eliminate this sad inequity, and provide meals for the homeless of the area.

Checks for this ministry may be made to Haven of Mercy, and given to an usher as you leave. If you are moved by the impact of this season to provide additional material or volunteer assistance for Haven of Mercy, please call John Mangiacotti, Director, at 929-0616. Your care for the homeless is a vital response to the advent of our Savior.

Coordination of the collection of food for Haven of Mercy mission for the homeless was provided by members of LINC (Linking Individuals to the Needs of the Community):
*Nathan Flora – Campus Minister and Adviser to LINC, Beth Anderson, Abby Conley,
