

Milligan hosts ladies' conference with best-selling author Renee Swope

MILLIGAN COLLEGE, Tenn. (Jan. 5, 2017) — Milligan College presents national speaker and best-selling author Renee Swope for the 13th annual Eleanore L. Campbell Ladies Conference hosted by the Associated Ladies for Milligan (ALM) in partnership with 88.3 WCQR. The event will be held on Saturday, Feb. 25, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Milligan's Gregory Center.

The conference is a day for women of all ages to be spiritually fed and recharged through biblical teaching, uplifting music and fellowship with other women from throughout the region.

Swope is the author of "A Confident Heart" and "A Confident Heart Devotional." For 20 years, she has worked in ministry leadership roles and through Proverbs 31 Ministries as a speaker, author and former co-host of the "Everyday Life with Lysa & Renee" radio show that airs on over 1,100 stations across the world. Sprinkled with humor and saturated with truth, Swope's messages are filled with personal stories, powerful biblical insights and practical life applications.

The purpose of ALM is to raise scholarship dollars for the college, be an outreach to the campus community and enrich women's ministry in the local community. All proceeds raised from the event benefit the ALM Endowment to provide student scholarships at Milligan.

The conference is $40 per person by January 31, then $45; $20 for students. A box lunch will be provided. For more information, visit www.milligan.edu/alm, or call 423.461.8710.
