Biographical Note:

James DeForest Murch was born in Ohio, the son of a Church of Christ minister. He was educated at Ohio University and the University of Cincinnati. Murch received honorary doctorates from Northwest Christian College (D.D.) and Milligan College (Litt.D.). His awards also include several citations from Freedom Foundation, and a Fellowship of the International Institute of Arts and Letters. In addition, Murch was the co-founder of Cincinnati Bible Seminary, where he served as President, Dean, and Professor of Christian Education and Missions.

Dr. James D. Murch was ordained to Christian Church ministry in the church at Trimble, Ohio. Murch later served at the Observatory Hill Church in Pittsburg (Pittsburgh). But the greater part of his work with the local church was spent as Director of Christian Education at the Westwood-Cheviot Church of Christ in Cincinnati for seventeen years. Murch preached and lectured in every state in the union and in several countries.

He was co-founder and managing editor for Christianity Today, Lookout, Restoration Herald, Christian Standard, and the Christian Evangelist Quarterly. Murch served as Book editor, Library editor and News editor for the Christian Standard. For a period of time, he authored all the lessons, bulletins and conference materials for Christian Endeavor. On the side, Murch was a freelance writer who contributed articles to a great number of journals beyond those already mentioned. Among his most impacting project was his column, "Today in Christendom," published by the Christian Standard.

Dr. James D. Murch authored many titles, including God Still Lives (1941), Cooperation Without Compromise (1956), Christian Education and the Local Church (1958), Teach or Perish (1961), Christians Only (1962), Christian Minister's Manual (1965), The Free Church (1966), Teach Me to Pray (1966), The Protestant Revolt (1967), Biography of Benjamin Dwight Phillips in B.D. Phillips; life and letters (1969), some hymns and a multitude of pamphlets and unpublished materials.

James DeForest Murch was the founder and President of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, founder and Director of the Christians' Hour Broadcasting Association, co-founder of the North American Christian Convention and member of its continuation committee, founder and President of the National Sunday School Association, co-founder and active administrator of the National Association of Evangelicals, founder and President of the National Association of the Evangelical Press Association, President of the Ohio Christian Edeavor Union, trustee of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, President of the Christian Restoration Association, member of the Commission on Restudy of Christian Churches, executive Chairman of the Clarke estate trustees, and served on the boards of many educational and missionary organizations. In addition, Murch actively participated in the investigation of such organizations as the National Council of Churches, the World Council of Churches, Protestants and Other Americans United, official organizations of several denominations, and their conventions.
