

Estor p.7a Sept. 16, 2011

the revival.

For more information, call 474-2124.

Harvest Celebration

First Baptist Church of Elizabethton is sponsoring a Women's Harvest Celebration on Saturday, Sept. 17, with Rhonda Paulsen as guest speaker.

Rhonda Paulsen

Lunch will be served at 11:45 a.m. in the church fellowship hall and the cost is $10. The program will begin at 12:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Paulsen is an adjunct professor at Milligan College where she coaches cheer and dance. She is a wife and mother of two. She has a Master's Degree in Secondary Education. Paulsen is author of "Why God Made Colic: A First Time Mother's Journey" and "I Love You More Than Chocolate." She regularly travels and speaks at youth and women's organization meetings.

Those attending are asked to bring a toiletry item to help stock the shelves at The Shepherd's Inn Women's Domestic Violence Shelter.

Freedom Fellowship

ld Sept. 18-22
in Church,
Creek

walk w
the place
how to b
true diff
sic is mo
no less r
the mood
but we a
those wh

The c a.m. at ation Ce
more in gathering

Wata

The H
Watauga
Sunday, S

The c
East Thir
The pr

K

Home
Day will b
Keystone
111 Betti
gin at 10
worship
will be pr
and oth
Terry Jo
messag
served vice.

A
and vited