ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. -- July 18 marked the first day on the job for the new president of a local college.

Bill Greer took over the reigns of Elizabethton's Milligan College that Monday morning. The Johnson County native is the Carter County college's fifteenth president.

He most recently served as Milligan's vice president for advancement.

He takes over for Don Jeanes, who retired a week earlier.

Greer says one of the biggest challenges will be finding space for the college's growing enrollment.
