His coach, Brandon Baker, said, "Jordan's impact on the team during those years has played out in many fashions. Recognized by some opponents as one of the leading goal keepers in the area, his skills and abilities have allowed Grace to be competitive in many games against much stronger opponents. "Jordan also has a desire to serve God. Jordan has an interest in youth ministry, and I am very excited to see how God uses him in the future. Jordan will leave shoes that will be very hard to fill, but his impact on Grace and his teammates will last for a long time."
