Milligan to welcome former diversity services director as guest speaker

FROM STAFF REPORTS

MILLIGAN COLLEGE — Nathaniel Moultrie, the former director of diversity services at Milligan College, will return to Milligan's campus to speak on Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Mary B. Martin Auditorium of Seeger Memorial Chapel.

Moultrie joined the staff at Milligan in 2007. During his time at Milligan, he helped develop the Goah Scholars Program and recruited more than 75 students.

He also established Milligan's Diversity Advisory Council and the Multi-Ethnic Resource Team and facilitated several campus-wide diversity initiatives throughout the area.

The event is free and open to the public.
