

TEMPO BRIEFS

Girl Scout Camp Parent Night set for 6-8 p.m.

The Girl Scout Council of the Southern Appalachians is hosting a Camp Parent Night 6-8 p.m. today at Johnson City Service Center, 1100 Woodland Ave.

This is an opportunity for parents to learn more about Camp Tanasi, which is open to rising first-graders through high school seniors. Parents may meet the camp director and camp counselors, ask questions, register and pay fees.

Tennessee Rehab Center to host yard, bake sale

ELIZABETHTON — Tennessee Rehabilitation Center, 407 Cherokee Park Drive, will host an indoor yard/bake sale 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m. April 1.

All donations will go to the TRC to benefit people with disabilities.

For more information, call 542-4159.

Tree Day Sale April 2 at 9 a.m. in Jonesborough

The Washington County Soil Conservation District Youth Board will hold its annual Tree Day Sale April 2 at 1105 E. Jackson Blvd., Jonesborough, beginning at 9 a.m.

Available trees include white pine, red bud, dogwood, peach, Cleveland pear, Canadian hemlock, magnolia, maple, Red Delicious apple, Yellow Delicious apple, persimmon and tulip poplar. Forsythia, double red althea, lilac, blue hydrangea, red crape myrtle, blackberry, blueberry and deciduous holly also will be sold.

Local nurses, students to host health fair

Nurses from Mountain States Health Alliance and nursing students from the East Tennessee State University College of Nursing will host a community health fair April 2 at the ETSU/MSHA Athletic Center (the mini-dome) from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Mountain States HeartCoach will be on site to provide comprehensive cardiovascular screenings, including blood pressure, cholesterol and ultrasoundvascular studies. A complete screening costs $45 and takes about 45 minutes to complete. To schedule a screening, call (800) 888-5551, option 4.

Health information booths will be set up at the event, offering education on nutrition, smoking cessation, healthy pregnancy, depression, infection prevention, joint and spine health, sleep apnea and much more.

An MSHA nurse recruitment booth will offer information on nursing careers. For more information, visit www.msha.com.

TPT benefit event set at Barnes & Noble

Barnes & Noble, 3030 Franklin Terrace, is hosting a Turning Pages Together FUNdraiser event on April 2, starting at 9 a.m. Turning Pages Together is a nonprofit organization that creates book clubs for those with disabilities.

The event will include live music, storytelling, reading of stories, a POP Arts performance, face painting, book making and more.

The schedule includes Dr. Seuss & Friends story time with America Reads at 9 a.m.; POP Arts performance at 10; Saturday Book Club at 11; lunch and music with Amythyst Phillips at noon; Daring Dinosaur Egg Hunt (all ages) at 1 and ETSU storytellers Patrick Gerard and Danielle Bellone at 2.

For more information, call 952-5577.

Milligan College senior to exhibit photographs

MILLIGAN COLLEGE — Experience the splendor of life with "Beauty & Identity Unmasked," a photography exhibit by Milligan College senior Sabrina Graham, of Bristol. The exhibit will be on display April 3-9 in the Milligan Art Gallery.

The opening reception is April 3 from 2-4 p.m. in the gallery, located in the lower level of Milligan's Derthick Hall. It is free and open to the public.

For more information on upcoming arts events at Milligan, visit www.milligan.edu/arts.

Genealogy group plans book sale at library

The Watauga Association of Genealogists will hold a book sale April 5 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the Jones Meeting Room at Johnson City Public Library.

Editions of the genealogy Bulletin will be sold at discounted prices. There will also be other genealogy-related books for sale.

A "help table" also will be staffed to help anyone with their questions. Money from the sale will go to purchasing new books/media for the Tennessee Room of the Johnson City Public Library.

An open forum will also be scheduled at the regular meeting from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in genealogy is welcome to attend. For more information, call Jim Wilson at 283-0318.

Farmers market vendors meeting on April 5

Any returning or prospective vendor for the Jonesborough Farmers Market is invited to the Spring Vendor Meeting, which will be held April 5 in the fellowship hall of Jonesborough Presbyterian Church.

An informal potluck supper will begin at 6 p.m.; the business meeting will begin at 7:15. Topics for the meeting will include market set-up and take-down procedures, new promotional events for the market, and the new EBT, credit and debit card system.

RSVP to Karen Childress at jbofarmersmarket@gmail.com or 753-4744.

Meetings

■ Happy Valley High School class of 1961, 9 a.m. April 2, Perkins Restaurant. Purpose: To plan 50-year reunion. Information: Johnny Arney at 753-6998 or Lloyd Taylor at 297-1083.

■ National Active and Retired Federal Employees, 11 a.m. April 2, Ryan's. Information: Wayne Robertson, 232-6219.