Abstract:

Benjamin Harrison Taylor was born on August 4, 1888 in Johnson City and died on March 26, 1930. He was a 1911 graduate of Milligan College (now Milligan University) who became a local lawyer. This collection contains his diplomas, a few photographs, and one copy of The Milligan Alumnus.

Biographical Note:

Benjamin Harrison Taylor was born on August 4, 1888 in Johnson City and died on March 26, 1930. He graduated from Milligan in 1911 and the National Law School in 1915. He practiced law with Judge Thad A. Cox in Johnson City.

Arrangement:

The collection was processed by media type: I. Series: Diplomas, 1911-1915; II. Series: Photographs, 1906-1910, undated; and III. Series: Alumni Publication, 1929.

Scope and Content Note:

The Benjamin Harrison Taylor Collection contains two diplomas, four black and white photographs – one from Maryville College and the other three from Milligan College, and an issue of The Milligan Alumnus. The materials primarily date between 1906 and 1911, with one item from 1915 and another from 1929. This collection has been divided into three series. Series I: Diplomas contains two framed diplomas. The first diploma is from Milligan College and conferred upon Benjamin Harrison Taylor the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. It is dated 1911. The second diploma is from The National University in Washington, D.C. (now the National Law Center at The George Washington University). This diploma conferred upon Ben H. Taylor the degree of Bachelor of Laws and is dated 1915. Series II: Photographs contains four black and white photographs. These photographs have been assigned accession numbers and placed in mylar. Three of these photographs depict student groups at Milligan College. Photo number 91-
