

MILLIGAN DEFEATS KING 13-0

UNUSUALLY FULL SCHEDULE CAUSE OF EARLY EXAMS

Change Announced Thursday Evening Catches Students Unaware.

FOOTBALL GAME AND PARTY CAUSE CHANGE

Mid-Semester Grades Will Not Appear On Permanent Records.

Due to the unusually full schedule of the past week, it was decided by President Derthick to change the time of the mid-semester exams from Thursday, November 1 through Saturday, November 3, to Monday October 29 through Thursday, November 1. This advance in the schedule was not announced until the evening of Thursday, October 25, and many were caught unawares, including the members of the Stampede staff.

The definite events which led to the advance of the exams were the very important football game with King College at Elizabethton last Saturday night, and the Annual Hallowe'en Party which was supposed to have been held at the end of the week but for which no definite date had been given.

These two events are among the most important in the first semester and especially was it felt that our football warriors should be rested in both mind and body when they faced the King Tornado.

The mid-semester grades will not appear on the permanent records, and serve more as a means of showing the student where he or she stands in their academic work and thus furnishes a guide for their preparation for the semester ordeals.

Aptitude Tests For Pre-Medics

One of the most important dates of the entire year for the Pre-Med students will be December seventh when the Association of American Medical Colleges' aptitude test will be given.

It is absolutely necessary for all those who expect to apply for entrance to a medical school by the fall term of 1935 to take this standard test as it has been adopted by the Association as one of the normal requirements for admission.

Dr. McCall, head of the Education Department, will supervise the test and all applications must be made to him.

Milligan Pre-Med students have received medical scholarships to Vanderbilt University for the past several years and President Vogel, head of the Pre-Med Club, states that this year will be no exception.

Dramatic Club Plans Exchange

The Masque and the Dramatic club have some interesting plans for the immediate future. The club is co-operating with Teachers College and plans for an exchange of programs in dramatic work are being made.

Also the Masque has definitely decided to buy Masque pins. The order for these pins is being made this week. The members of the Masque feel that this is one of the indications of the greater interest which is being taken in the work of this department for this year. At the next meeting, the Masque will vote in as new members of the Dramatic club those who took part in the last play.

The Dramatic club will meet this week for another presentation of a try-out play. This play, "Sauce for the Goslings" is being directed by Ruth Walker. The cast includes Dereda Albertson, "Squirrel" Sanders, Beatrice Rice, Joe Gilmer, Capitola Looper, Catherine Brewer and John Abbot.

Work is also being done on two other plays. These will be directed by Ben Wah Kail and Elaine Turner. These plays will be given within the next few weeks.

Fourteen Boys In Debate Try-Outs

After some delay, plans for Boys' Debating are being made, and already some fourteen hopefuls have handed in their names to Prof. Burns, Boys' Debate Coach.

This is an unusually large number of applicants as compared with former years, and we understand that others seriously consider debating if at all possible.

The subject for debate this year is primarily economic in its significance as has been the case for the last several years. Evidently, with this in mind, Prof. Burns could not help assuming an optimistic attitude as he read the names of several of his Economics sharks among the candidates.

FIGHTING BUFFS OUTPLAY RIVALS FOR GREAT WIN

Conference Title Is Goal Of Buffaloes; First Win Over King in Years.

Milligans' fighting Buffaloes, fired with a grim determination to win, completely outplayed an unsuspecting King eleven last Saturday night at Elizabethton to the tune of a 13-0 score.

This was the first Milligan victory over King on the gridiron since 1930 when Jack Edwards' phenomenal drop-kick gave the Buffs a 3-0 win.

The entire team felt that the time had come to turn on a new record, and backed by a howling student body on the sidelines, they carried King's Tornado before them like a gentle breeze, from the opening play of the game to the final whistle.

Boys Entertain Girls At Hallowe'en Party

At a party with decorations carrying out the Hallowe'en motif and in tune with the Buffaloes' winning spirit, prevalent at this season of the year, the girls of the college were guests of the boys last night.

The gym looked its best in its gala clothing of the newest fall shades—Orange and Black. These streamers of loyalty waved from the high gym ceiling, cooling the brow of the sturdy old Buffalo who calmly munched his hay from the tall stack enclosed by the proverbial old rail fence. Mr. Buffalo was not alone. The pumpkins were growing in profusion all around him and gave evidence of an abundant harvest.

A stage built in the back of the gym had as its background scenery a placard on which these words stood out in bold black fearlessness: "Beat Tusculum."

The earlier part of the evening was given over to a program, long, varied, entertaining and amusing. Among the best known entertainers were "Shoe" Campbell and his Jug Band, who were heard in three inspiring numbers. An orchestra under the direction of Miss Georgia Mae Hyder added further musical strains. A trio composed of Misses Margaretta Wright, Elaine Turner, and Dorothy Bennett justified the young ladies' previous records in two vocal numbers.

Other out-of-town entertainers were tap dancers from Johnson City and a negro orchestra also of that place.

Delicious refreshments found their way into the hands of every guest. The menu consisted of lemonade, ice cream, and cake—a real carnival lunch.

TEACHERS' MEETING REPORTS

Milligan College was well represented at the Thirtieth Annual Session of the East Tennessee Education Association held at the University of Tennessee, October 25-27, President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick, Miss Belcher, Miss Wright, and Dr. McCall being among those present.

As a result, chapel programs for the past week consisted largely of reports on the various lectures given during the meeting, and of different events that occurred.

Each chapel speaker made some reference at least to Dr. Glenn Frank, President of the University of Wisconsin, and an internationally known lecturer and author. Though there was some difference of opinion, it was in general conceded that he was the outstanding speaker of the entire session.

Dr. Frank's address on "America Must Decide" was a keen analysis of our modern dilemma which he attributed to financial breakdown, scientific changes, and the revival of internationalism. As a way out, he stressed the importance of the indestructible will to live and to master the stubborn factors of environment.

The highlight of Miss Belcher's rather interrupted speech was her discussion of a lecture by Dr. Barnes, liberal authority on English from New York University. Dr. Barnes defended the use of many of our modern slang expressions, among them the word, "lousy." Says Miss Belcher, "I think it was a lousy idea for President to ask me to speak in chapel." The applause of the student body was unbounded.

Dr. McCall's report last Friday at first consisted of his giving several statistics on the conditions of schools and learning in Tennessee as compared with the conditions in the country as a whole. These were taken from a speech by Mr. Vance who substituted for State Commissioner of Education, Cocking.

Other material reviewed by Dr. McCall included lectures by Judge Kelley of the Juvenile Court of Memphis, by Dr. D. W. Morehouse, President of Drake University, and by Dr. James Edward Rogers, Director of the National Recreation Association.

Dr. Eyler spoke last Saturday on the Tennessee-Duke football game—why the victory went to Tennessee and how Milligan could assume the proper spirit in its attempt at victory over King.

The main social event for Milligan's representatives was the Milligan College Breakfast, held at the Hotel Farragut, Friday, October 26, at 7:00 a. m. It was a general get-together of alumni, former students, and friends. Among the old students present were Miss Harriet Wells, Miss Charlotte Watson, Mr. Roger Derthick, Mr. Francis Derthick, Miss Bess Connell, and Mr. Howard McCorkle.

This publication endeavors to foster the ideals for which the student body is ever striving; namely, higher scholarship, cleaner sportsmanship, and finer comradeship. It endeavors to represent the school in all its aspects and to print, in an accurate and engaging way, everything of news interest concerning it.

Good-nature and good-sense must ever join;
To err is human, to forgive, divine.

What About the Senior Paper?

At the beginning of the school year, a petition was formulated by the Senior Class, and signed by every member, to the effect that the thesis, or so-called Senior Paper, required of every graduate, be abolished.

The following facts guided the action of the Seniors. First, it was recognized that the requirement of a Senior Paper had long since been obliterated in the larger and better institutions of learning. Second, it was obvious that research, a necessity for contributions of value, had not been carried out in the past and was not likely to be in the future due to the lack of a proper background on the part of undergraduates. Third, few of the Seniors were planning to pursue a type of work in which the writing of a Senior Paper would be of value, and fourth, it was revealed that the attitude of the majority was merely to write on the easiest subject in the easiest possible way to get by and to obtain a degree.

It seems that a committee of five was appointed to consider the matter and to render a decision pro or con, but as yet, no action whatsoever has taken place so far as we can ascertain. One fourth of the school term has passed, and the Seniors plus the rest of the student body would appreciate knowing whether or not the ordeal is to be continued.

The above merely represents our viewpoint. Any refutations or opposing views based on fact will be appreciated.

Fashions Will Change

Harken, all ye steers of the Buffalo herd. A matter of extreme importance is soon to be presented which will necessitate a radical change in those habits of yours which deal with the restful realm of Morpheus.

Forever in the past you have been contented to don the snug, becoming pajama, and thus clad to lapse into the rejuvenating arms of sleep which clasped you tight until that blankety-blank bell tolled the knell of coming classes. Of course the pajama possessed other uses, as for instance, their excellent substitution for B. V. D.'s in times of cold weather or of extreme hurry, the latter to save fifteen cents for not eating breakfast (figure that out if you can).

Be that as it may, the fact that should occupy your attention here and now is that the pajama is doomed and that the old-fashioned nightgown has again been hoisted to the pedestal of fashion. This outstandingly revolutionary fact comes direct from the fashion czars of Paris and London, and already they are hard at work evolving gorgeous patterns of red, yellow, crimson, green, etc., that will appeal to the discriminating eye of the modern man.

Certainly, Milligan must maintain her position of always keeping pace with the times. Get into the band-wagon Milliganers and don the comfortable, roomy, old-fashioned nightgown. From now on let it be, "Knights of the Nightgown" and not the lowly, "Pages of the Pajamas."

OUR MILLIGAN BUFFALOES

(By Miss Lilian Fugate)

Gee! We're proud of them
Our Buffaloes!
"They are so full of pep and vim
Our Buffaloes!
Just wait until they hit that field
The Pioneers then to them will yield,
How gloriously proud of them we'll feel—
OUR MILLIGAN BUFFALOES.

They always strive so hard to win—
Our Buffaloes
And if they lose they try again
Our Buffaloes.
Whenever they a game can play
You'll see true sportsmanship that day
For they are thoroughbreds all the way
OUR MILLIGAN BUFFALOES.

I know we'll always say with pride
OUR Buffaloes.
For they will ever honestly strive
Our Buffaloes,
For honor, glory and renown,
The whole world with their praise will sound
For a marvelous team has at last been found—
OUR MILLIGAN BUFFALOES!

Being in sympathy with the contemporary movement to promote decency in the motion picture industry, we of the Stampede advocate your support of the following "Pledge of Decency", as issued by the Federal Council of Churches.

For Better Motion Pictures DECLARATION OF PURPOSE

(Sign and give to your pastor or organization)
I wish to join with other Protestants, cooperating with Catholics and Jews, in condemning vile and unwholesome motion pictures. I unite with all who protest against them as a grave menace to youth, to home life, to country, and to religion.

I condemn absolutely those salacious motion pictures which, with other degrading agencies, are corrupting public morals and promoting a sex mania in our land.
I shall do all that I can to arouse public opinion against the portrayal of vice as a normal condition of affairs, and against depicting criminals of any class as heroes and heroines, presenting their filthy philosophy of life as something acceptable to decent men and women.

I unite with all who condemn the display of suggestive advertisements on bill-boards, at theatre entrances and the favorable notices given to immoral motion pictures.

Considering these evils, I declare my purpose to remain away from all motion pictures which offend decency and Christian morality. I will try to induce others to do the same.

I make this protest in a spirit of self-respect, and with the conviction that the American public does not demand filthy pictures but clean entertainment and educational features.

Name .....
Address .....

Our last issue of the Buffalo He(a)rd seems to have been quite a success from the unusual interest shown in the publication. We hope that this column will continue to hold the attention of the school—as well as being an incentive to walk the "straight and narrow"—so watch your undulations! Here goes for another clever installment:

You know, it appears that Mister Shelbourne Wilson has been attempting to take Gus Purcell's job of teaching the women how to play tennis—Flash!—Will someone ask Squirrel Saunders if crawling through windows is a specialty to him? He was practicing up at the Cullowhee game—exclamation mark!—Someone overheard a dainty feminine voice saying "I'm reducing; I've lost three pounds! Hot-cha-cha! The conversationalists turned out to be Bill Hughes and Beatrice Rice (with Miss Rice doing most of the talking)—Query?—If someone will only lend Preston Gray fifty cents! His hair restorer is all gone—Sob!—Prof. Lodter in a playful mood asked little Charlese Derthick where her trousers were the other day—he won't be so personal anymore—Point!—Flash! Evans has lost IT—Flash!—Perry has found another nickname in "Keeper of the Bees"—Star!—and we conclude with the story that John Abbott went a-queening to his village girl's home; after being alone in the parlor with her for a while he finally got up enough courage to speak his little piece, when her father came in, and John forgot all about the piece and left in a hurry!!!

Famous Last Words: "Please wait till next time, huh?"

GLEAMINGS FROM OTHER SHEETS

A number of the colleges of this state and neighboring states have sent copies of their student sheets to the Stampede office with requests for exchanges. It is the belief of the local paper staff that bits of news from other institutions will be of interest to Milligan students, therefore acceptance has been made of a limited number of the exchanges for the purpose of reproducing in brief form some of their articles and giving other student bodies an idea of the activities of Milligan College.

"The Babbler," David Lipscomb College, gives account of the largest senior class in the history of the college with an enrollment of ninety four members. The entire enrollment includes students from fifteen states and one foreign country.

"The Appalachian", student publication of Appalachian State Teachers College carries news and program of an annual home-coming for Alumni in which three hundred "Grads" number. They formed an Alumni association which received support of all graduates. This apparently successful move would do justice to Milligan. It's an idea, Milliganites.

Reprint from "Nocatula," Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tennessee, October 23, 1934 follows: "The Beta Iota Chapter of the Sigma Iota Chi sorority of Tennessee Wesleyan College, won the national loving cup for the second time in two years on the basis of having the highest scholastic record of all the chapters of the Sigma Iota Chi in the United States."

AIN'T IT SO?

The student gets the paper,
The school gets the fame,
The printer gets the money,
But the staff gets the blame.

Leading Figures IN Milligan Football

Mervin McCloskey

Mervin Alonzo "Mac" McCloskey was born on a farm near Edinburg, Illinois on November 24, 1912. Mac was graduated from Edinburg High in 1931, being chiefly known as a basketball performer, football not being played.

Upon coming to Milligan in 1931, Mac decided that football was his game, and resolved that he would make the team or know the reason why. The result is that Mac has become a stellar guard for the last two years, and is one of the steadiest performers on the team.

Mac's major is history, and after receiving his A. B. degree next spring, he hopes to pursue graduate work in some large university. But Dixie has captured Mac, at least as far as the females are concerned, and under the magic spell of Mary Alice he has completely forgotten his former loved one in Yankeeland. If you would know his real plans, we advise your asking the above-mentioned lady.

Milbert Bible

Milbert "Handsome" Bible is a native of Mosheim, Tennessee, in which city he first viewed the hard old world on November 21, 1911.

Mike was a basketball star in his high school days, being captain of the team in his Senior year.

However, since he has entered Milligan, Mike has developed into an outstanding tackle on the football team, his tall, wiry form especially fitting him for the position.

He not only is a football star but also well-known in numerous other activities, being President of the Senior Class, and an active member of the Pre-Law and Boys' "M" Clubs.

Mike is majoring in Business Administration, and is planning to enter business after receiving his degree next spring. When questioned concerning his matrimonial plans, if any, Mike replied, "I am single and open for suggestions." Girls, there's your chance.

Cameron Duggins

In Clinton, Tennessee, on August 23, 1912, Mr. and Mrs. Duggins were blessed with a beautiful little red-headed boy whom they christened Edward Cameron.

Later moving to Greeneville, Tennessee, "Dug" attended the local high school, where he played football for three years, being a star guard his last year.

Since entering Milligan in 1931, Decameron has earned for himself the name of being one of the hardest workers on the team, and his dependable work at guard cannot be overrated. After graduating this year, he hopes to enter a forestry school and become an "up and at 'em" forest ranger.

Decameron is also widely known for his unexcelled power over the women, his love affairs being the constant talk of the campus. In spite of this, however, he insists that he is going to be a bachelor, and live his carefree life unhampered. Yet, surely, he will change his mind.

Eyler's Basketball Prospects Number 23

Coach Eyler's 1934-35 basketball prospects started practice Thursday, November 1. Twenty-three men reported for the first practice session, the largest squad in history. This figure does not include those men who are out for football. The Buffalo cagers will be gunning for their seventh straight conference basketball championship. No other school in America has won the championship in a single competitive sport for six consecutive campaigns.

Only three men from last year's team are back, Captain Grant, and Ayers, both guards, and Shelley, forward, although Tidwell, center, B. Culvahouse, forward, and Gilley, guard, are all lettermen. Culvahouse, a capable fullback in football, has not as yet reported for practice.

Among the newcomers, Arnold Albright, a former DePauw University freshman and LaGrange, Indiana high school star, John Harris, one of Coach Frank Brown's St. Paul, Virginia products, Steve Shelton of Big Stone Gap, Virginia, Martin Ragsdale of Cleveland, Tennessee, and Dana Howard of Elizabethton, look best. Bolling and Waggoner also show promise.

Coach Eyler had this comment to make after the first day's practice, "Prospects are brighter than ever before for a first day's practice session."

FIGHTING BUFFS OUTPLAY RIVALS FOR GREAT WIN

A better indication of the true performances of the two teams may be gathered from the fact that Milligan ripped off twenty-three first downs to King's three. King's offensive, and especially her passing attack, was completely bottled up.

Opening the game with a bang, the Buffaloes got the jump on King, and played inspired football from then on which the so-called Tornado could never match. The first touchdown came as the result of a long pass from Woods to Stephens which placed the ball on King's one-yard line. Gles Harvey then crashed through center on the first play for the marker. Irvin contributed a perfect place-kick, making the score 7-0.

Soon after the beginning of the second quarter, Milligan again started a drive, and advanced the ball about forty yards to King's twenty-two yard line, chiefly on a pass from Gles Harvey to Woods, and an off-tackle play by Stephens. With the ball in that position, the most beautiful play of the game took place, with Baker slipping through center and eluding the entire King team to go over the goal-line standing up. Irvin's kick was wide and the score remained 13-0.

The second half saw Milligan playing rather cautious ball, being content to smother King and to protect their lead.

Every Buffalo on the team played great ball, blocking, tackling, and charging as we would like to see them doing in every game. Outstanding work, however, was apparent on the part of Gaffin, Irvin, and Kizer in the line, with Gles Harvey and Stephens in the backfield. Gles gave a marvelous exhibition of beautiful broken-field running and side-stepping. Elmer Harvey, the other member of our star brother backfield combination, was hurt on the first play of the game but will, we hope, be in shape for the Tusculum game next Saturday.

Cullowhee Defeats Buff; Score 9 to 0

On October twenty-seventh, in the first game ever played by Milligan and Cullowhee on the gridiron, the Buffaloes came out on the short end of a 9-0 score. Cullowhee's Catamounts, inspired by a great homecoming crowd, succeeded in winning not only their first football game of this season but their first game of any season. Not playing the same brand of ball as in previous games, the Buffaloes managed to knock at the touchdown door on several occasions but lacked the punch to enter.

The Buffaloes opened the game by kicking off to the Catamounts who returned to their own thirty yard line. After being held for downs, Cullowhee punted to Milligan's twenty yard line. On the first play, Stephens skirted end and weaved 45 yards to the Catamounts 15 yard marker. However, the strong Cullowhee line maintained its record by holding the Buffs without further gain.

The ball went over to Cullowhee who advanced to their 35 yard line where they were again forced to punt. The ball soared far down the field and was downed within five yards of the Buffalo goal line.

After gaining to their own twenty-yard line, the Buffaloes fumbled and Cullowhee recovered to pass over the goal line for a touchdown as the first half ended.

The last half found both teams playing cautious ball on a wet field. However, the Buffs threatened to score twice after steady marches down the field but the needed punch was lacking to put over the touchdowns. At last, after the result of a long pass, the Catamounts advanced the ball to the Buff's 20 yard line. With only a minute to play, Shachmer tried a drop-kick which was good for three points, giving his team a 9-0 victory.

TUSCULUM TO BE REAL OBSTACLE FOR BUFFALOES

Smoky Mountain Successor To Carson - Newman Depends on Saturday's Battle.

Milligan's stampeding Buffaloes make their bid for the Smoky Mountain Conference lead next Saturday afternoon when they battle the leading Tusculum Pioneers in a game that will dedicate Johnson City's new Keystone Athletic Stadium, and form the major part of the local American Legion Post's Armistice Day Celebration. This game is by far the outstanding one to be played in the Conference this week. The winner will be the logical successor to Carson-Newman as conference champions.

Tusculum has played only one game in the last three weeks, that being a breather with Bunitt College. They have two wins and no defeats in the conference and will be fighting to keep a clear slate.

Tusculum's all-conference fullback, Andy Kmetz, won a game against Carson-Newman almost single-handedly by kicking a 35 yard field goal at a sharp angle, and Milligan fears that he may repeat this performance next Saturday, although the odds are against it. Other Tusculum stars that Milligan must cope with are: McAmis at end who blocked a punt against Carson-Newman playing opposite Fotsie Green, and Red Rankin who has caused the Buffaloes much trouble in former years.

Milligan was rated as the weakest team in the conference at the start of the season, but now they are perched in second place, and have an even chance to become champions if they defeat Tusculum.

Football spirit is higher at Milligan than it has been in years, and many are predicting a clear slate from now on. Elmer Harvey will be back in the Tusculum game unless he suffers further injuries in the week's practice. None of the other Buffs suffered injuries in the King game, and the entire squad will be ready to go.

Lacey's cohorts gave one of the best exhibitions of teamwork minus individual stars in the history of Smoky Mountain football last Saturday night, and should they play that brand of football in the coming game, the Armistice Day celebration should be a huge success so far as football is concerned.

The probable lineups are as follows:

Tusculum	Milligan
McAmis	Irvin
	Left End
Yelinek	Bible
	Left Tackle
Lester	McCloskey
	Left Guard
Junda	Gaffin
	Center
Armstrong	Duggins
	Right Guard
Beck	Kiser
	Right Tackle
Rankin	Woods
	Right End
R. McAmis	Stephens

SOCIETY NEWS ABOUT MILLIGAN STUDENES

By Yetiva Varner

President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick and the student body and faculty were pleased to have as their guest Friday evening generous donors of Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Barret and Mr. and Mrs. Slack Barret. They were enjoying a motor trip through the South, although both Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Barret are in ill health. They were able to spend the evening among the students, meeting and talking with many.

They came back by ones and threes but mostly by twos. Even though Milligan has not had its traditional homecoming this year, already something is calling the Alumni of Milligan. Whether it is the love of their Alma Mater or thoughts of happy "half hours" because the week-end of October 27, we had as our guests several Milligan "couples". Miss Myra Sue Bryant, who is instructing the younger generation at Livingston, Tennessee and Mr. Hobart Millsaps of Daisy, Tennessee, Coach at Hixson.

Miss Ruby Hampton, teacher of Home Economics at Linville High School, North Carolina was seen leisurely strolling on the campus with Mr. Ted Oakey as of yore. Ted is now employed by the Martha Washington Candy Co., at Roanoke, Virginia.

Another visiting member of the '34 Alumni was Miss Harriett Wells of Cleveland.

We had as guests and speaker at chapel, a former student, Mr. F. C. Rustmeyer, his wife and baby daughter of Albian, Illinois.

Those other than Alumni visiting on the campus October 27 were, Sue Carlew, Martha Frances Mass of Bruceton, Tennessee, guests of Miss Anita Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Vinson and son Frank and Harvey Johnston were guests of Miss Estelle Vinson.

Elaine Turner and Mary Elizabeth had as their guests—Miss Louise Porter and Miss Blanche Doughty of the University of Tennessee.

Last week end we also had several visitors, former students and parents of students. Miss Ruby Turner had as guests, her mother Mrs. Oscar Turner and brother Shelly.

Miss Hyatt from Norton, Virginia, visited Miss Mary Helen Banner this week.

Miss Ruth Walker accompanied Miss Elsie Price to her home in Erwin for a week end visit.

Among those who came for the King game were Mr. Stephens, father of our star quarterback Carl Stephens, Bryan Graybeal and Philip Shelly who was accompanied by Miss Stover and Mr. Cox of Bristol.

Miss Ruby Crawford had as her guests Sunday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crawford, her sisters, Blanche and Helen, former students of Milligan, and also her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Crawford, of Greeneville, Tenn. Miss Tennga Smith of Rhea Springs

Health Week Observed By Milligan Students

Brown bread, and spinach and buttermilk for dessert inaugurate "Health Week," sponsored by the Girls M Club.

There are, of course, the traditional blue ribbons flying from the shoulders of healthful young ladies on the campus. Each M Club member has the authority to place one on each of three girls who she thinks have good posture, good health, and wears suitable school clothes. There will probably be twenty-seven of these "blue ribbon" coeds, and from among them will be selected a winner on Saturday night.

Mrs. Derthick is wholeheartedly supporting this program in many ways, especially in the dining hall where white bread has already become taboo for this week.

and Mr. James F. Conner of Carson-Newman were visitors on the campus Sunday.

Miss Joyce Cope will accompany Miss Carolyn Liebroch to her home in Newport, November 10th.

Coach Francis Derthick from Etowah spent the week end with his wife and children who are visiting his parents, President and Mrs. H. J. Derthick.
