Students Entertain Rotary Club of J.C.

Monday noon a student group representing the Speech and Music Departments entertained at the Rotary Club in Johnson City. Preceding the program the performers were guests of the Rotarians at a banquet. The group was accompanied by Miss Yearley.

Grace Carrol opened the program with a piano solo "The Bee."

Mary Wood entertained with two readings, "A Hindue Paradise," and "The Parisian Hatshop."

The girl trio, composed of Minnie Burns, Rachel Roberts Poe, and Dorothy Fox, sang "Rain" and "Nursery Rhymes."

A skit, "The Sign of the Cleft Heart" by Mary Helen Banner and Florence Potter closed the group's program.

Dramatic Club Will Present 'Lighted Candle'

On Friday evening, April 8, "Lighted Candles," another of the try-out plays with which the Dramatic Club and its visitors have been entertained this year will be presented at the regular meeting of the Dramatic Club.

The play is a one-act tragedy, dealing with illiterates of the North Carolina mountains. It is being directed by Mildred Shoun.

The cast consisted of the following:

Mote—Lillard Clayton.

Effie—Pauline Crow.

Mame—Rose Tilford.

Aunt Zeenie—Delaney Tillman

Preacher Wakecaster — Glen Williams.

Easter Program by President Derthick Christian Endeavor Returns to Milligan

On Sunday evening, April 10 the Young People's Organization will present an Easter Program on the theme, "Jesus, the Light of the World."

The first part of the program will be devoted to musical selections. A quartet, consisting of Willis, Howard Johnson, Dorothy Fox, and Minnie Burns will sing, "Send Thou the Light." There will also be a vocal solo by Miss Yearley, a violin solo by Aileen Hyder, a musical reading by Estelle Elliott, and a duet by Laura Mary Smith and Velma Smith.

Then a short religious drama entitled, "Nason, the Blind Man" will be given. The cast will consist of:

Nason, the blind man—Lillard Clayton.

Zadok, a Pharisee—Glen Williams.

As concluding number, the quartet will sing "He Arose."

Operetta To Be Given Monday, April Eleventh

"The Cross of Christ" by VB

A special Easter program on "The Cross of Christ," is being planned for the next meeting of the Volunteer Band, which will be on Tuesday evening, April 12th.

The program will be a pageant in which seven speakers dressed in white will make short talks, with special music between speeches carrying out the thought of the preceding talk.

Claudell Yates is in charge of the program.

President Derthick Returns to Milligan

President Derthick returned to Milligan last Friday afternoon, April 1, after an absence of more than two weeks during which time he had been traveling extensively in the interest of the college.

Leaving Milligan on Tuesday, March 15, President Derthick went first to Washington, D. C., arriving there at the time of the discussion concerning the reorganization bill. There he protested to our Senator against the wisdom of the bill, then went on to Wilmington, Delaware where he had luncheon with the Vice-President of the Du Pont Company, who is one of the finest friends of Milligan College.

President Derthick then went to New York to attend a Regional meeting of the New York trustees, the discussion centering almost entirely the financial interests of the College.

Going through North Canton, Ohio, where he preached in the Monday evening, April 11, at eight o'clock, the Music and Voice departments will present as its major second semester production, an "up-to-the-minute" operetta "Who Discovered America?" are by George Murray Brown with the music composed by Keith Brown. Some one has aptly described it as "a scream from start to finish;" undoubtedly it will prove to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the year.

"Who Discovered America?" in technique, is like most operettas, being characterized by its "catchy" tunes, dramatic spots, and scintillating repartee. Under the direction of Miss Frances Yearley, the production is rapidly rounding into a brilliant form.

The capable cast includes Cerebellum, Jack Willis, Phyllis,

Elizabethton Band Will Give Concert

The Elizabethton High School band, under the direction of Mr. J. Jack Stafford, will give a concert in the Milligan Auditorium on Thursday night, April 7th.

Many students are looking forward to the evening of band music by one of the most capable and best directed bands in this section.

Mr. Stafford has been director of the Milligan band for a year and a half and has many friends on the Milligan campus.

Every student is urged to attend this concert and give support to this Elizabethton band which has put on many a gala demonstration for the Buffaloes at some of our major football games.

A Student's Stand

If a thing can be of any value to any student and of no harm to any other student, then it is worth while. If it rebels with the ideas and policies of those who have grown in and lived college life twenty, thirty, or forty years, then can it be what is best? Two, three or four years in a college as a student doesn't give him knowledge of running his college.

The members of the senior class and other students have been urged to confer with and to advise the faculty and administration concerning any matters of any importance whatever. President Derthick says these students have responded very well and that he is well satisfied with this type of council. What more do the students or does the faculty and administration need?

Milligan College has given me more than I deserve, more than I have asked for, more than I ever dreamed was in four college years for me. I asked no more. All that I support or refuse to support is not because I want something for myself, but because I, in some way, may express to Milligan my appreciation by doing for her that which may make more harmony among the students, faculty, and friends for the betterment of all.

What's The Use?

Did it ever occur that a man's life is full of cussedness? He comes into the world against his consent, and goes out against his will, and the trip between is exceedingly rocky.

When he is little, the big girls kiss him; when he is big, the little girls kiss him. If he is poor, he is a bad manager; if he is rich, he's a crook. If he is prosperous, everybody wants to do him a favor; if he needs credit, they hand him a lemon.

If he is in politics, it is for graft; if out of politics, he is no good to his country. If he doesn't give to charity, he's a tightwad; if he does, it's for show. If he is actively religious, he is a hypocrite, and if he takes no interest in religion, he is a heathen.

If he is affectionate, he is a soft mark; if he cares for no one, he is cold-blooded. If he dies young, there was a great future for him; if he lives to an old age, he missed his calling.

If you don't fight, you're yellow; if you do, you're a brute.

If you save money, you're a grouch; if you spend it, you're a loafer. If you get money, you're a grafter, and if you don't get it you're a bum.

Did You?

Did you ever see a more ridiculous meeting than that held in the chapel by the students last Wednesday morning? Did you try to catch the look of wisdom flashing and gleaming from the searching eyes of the speakers (after the first speeches) like light from beaming eyes of a tiger? Did you notice the gestures with stupendous expressiveness that would have been envied by Hitler or Mussilini? Did you notice the psychological tact used by the chairman when someone disagreed with him? . . . He answered all points against his points (if he had any), and when he couldn't get much against the speech, he made personal remarks concerning the speaker. Did you notice the Parliamentary Order? The first motion made was about the last voted upon. Did you notice the Freshman girl, who must think she is obligated to stay here to spread her social knowledge, as her big heart poured forth a heart-tearing story? Boo-hoo!

What did the students want? Well, one of them wanted something done for God's sake, when that probably wasn't the point of the meeting at all.

In a few words, this is the summary of the summary of the meeting: Spring pep plus senior knowledge plus a desire on the part of some to give the future generations their names as organizers of a great organization that spread the world over.

JAMES EDWIN EDENS

Entering first in '34, James Edens has been a student at Milligan for four years.

He attended high school at Elizabethton. His extra-curricular activities in high school were numerous and varied. He played basketball and baseball in his Freshman and Sophomore year; he was a member of the French Club, Booster Club, and Dramatic Club; and he was awarded a medal for excellence in history. Having made an outstanding record, he was graduated in '34.

Milligan was pleased to receive such a student as Mr. Edens. He well represented the high ideals for which the school stands. And the school has never ceased to be proud of this student. He is prominent in the Christian work of his community as well as that of the school. As he is a graduate of the Appalachian Christian Service Camp and has taken post graduate courses in that camp, he is very apt in his office as president of the Elizabethton Christian Endeavor Society.

His hobbies are music and photography. The Camera Club has given him an opportunity to express himself in the latter, for he is a very interested member of that organization.

Jimmie is majoring in Social Science. His plans for the future are indefinite. He may go into business, but his plans are not yet made.

JAMES EARL McINTYRE

James Earl McIntyre, "Mac" to his fellow students, comes from Whitwell, Tennessee. He has been a Milligan student for four years, and his efforts culminate on May 30 when he receives his B. S. degree.

While he was attending high school, the science course attracted his attention. The trend of his interests had been in that direction for several years and when he entered Whitwell High School, he found an opportunity to satisfy his interests. In '33 his high school work was completed and he was ready for college work. In the fall of the same year he came to Milligan to further advance his knowledge and to further better himself.

Some of the most valuable things to be had are the smallest. Likewise, McIntyre's short stature is no indication that he has been less valuable to Milligan during the four years he has been a student here. He has occupied his place capably in every activity in which he has had occasion to have a part.

He studied painstakingly for three years and then accepted a teaching position. After teaching one year, he returned to complete the requirements for his degree.

McIntyre's plans for the future are neither precise nor certain. However, his chief design is to do laboratory work of some kind—preferably in an industrial plant.

Milligan has given "Mac" just what he came to get from the school and he says "I have fully enjoyed my four years at Milligan."

R. J. ALLEN

R. J. Allen is one of our day students. As in the case of all day students, less is known of his interests and abilities outside his regular work here at school that would be known if he resided on the campus. However, the Stampede had a very interesting interview with Mr. Allen last week and learned some things which are worthy of mention.

Allen was born in Elizabethton and there received his grammar and high school education. The high school band was his center of interest. He is very much interested in music and has spent much of his time with his trumpet and clarinet and a sheet of music, developing the talent which he most certainly possesses. During his Junior and Senior years in high school he played football and became a member of the "E" Club. In '34 he was graduated and entered Milligan in the fall of the same year.

R. J. played in the Milligan band while that organization was active. He has also been playing with local orchestras in and near Elizabethton. It is

A BUFFALO HE {A} RD

This column must hold interest for some, since five girls made a trip to the Erwin Observer office in Erwin to read "A buffalo He(a)rd." We appreciate this interest very much.

Wonder what the goldfish thought was happening to them the other evening when Bob Rice and Pauline Smith fell into the pool?

Perk must have been afraid he wasn't going to get enough to eat at Dean Eyler's dinner, since he was seen in the dining hall during supper that evening. Maybe he was checking up on Virginia Lee, but if he had stayed long enough, he would have seen her hanging on to Freddie Davison's arm at Conference.

We suggest that "Goob" Howard trace down his family tree before he dates any more blondes, even though they are as attractive as his cousin Betty Tilly.

Anyway, we hear that DeWitt is back in Betty's good graces, since Blevins has found an attraction—blonde also—on the campus.

The boys are saying they expect that Prof. Hyder to notify them any minute now, that, instead of charging a 15c fine for cutting chapel, a nominal admission fee of 15c will be charged.

It is the opinion of the campus that freshmen may be excused for walking out of student meetings, but when it comes to Senior girls—, well???

We suggest that DeWitt put Blevins (the elder) at a table all by himself so that Pittman won't break her neck looking around to see who he's talking to, and spend her spare time "bawling out" girls for looking at him.

Why doesn't Ossie Hale study law instead of medicine, after his recent display of oratorical ability.

Frieda Cecil and Georgia Quissenberry have been taking exercise and running around the football field before breakfast in an effort to lose weight, but they're actually gaining.

Why was George Blevins' face red last Friday afternoon at the gym? Maybe Blanche Milsaps would know.

Shelley's injured arm is due to a passing fancy—that of showing off.

If a student doesn't like a thing, why does that student put up with that thing when it is very possible that she wouldn't disrupt her school if she went home.

Doris Lambert and Russell Shubert may be waiters, but the people at their tables rave to do the waiting.

Culvahouse, "Sulky Bob," is reported to have smiled once last week.

Believe it or not—Chad Gillenwater got into his room one night last week and knocked over only two of the three chairs.

A new spring duet—"Red" Garrison and Bob Rice.

"May I hold your 'Palmolive?'"

"Not on your Life Buoy!"

"So I'm out of Lux?"

"Yes, Ivory formed."

"Dub" Roberts, we are told, went on a sit down strike in operetta practice one night last week.

THE AURORA

Ashwell: There really is such a thing as mental telepathy.

Davison: Well, I dare you read my mind.

Ashwell: Sorry, Freddy, I don't have a microscope.

Boatman: How much gas have we got?

Mason (Driving the campus truck): Its says "Half," but I can't tell whether it means full or empty.

Doris Lambert: See my new purse? It matches my slippers.

Howard J.: What's in it?

Doris: Nothing.

Howard: Then you're wrong. It matches your head!

The Glee Club is wondering when Bob Culvahouse is going to come out of his sulk and condescend to lend his unusual and much-sought-after talents to the production of the Operetta.

The campus wonders when the next picture, co-starring "Garbo" Varnell (who likes to be alone) and "Robert Taylor" McLean, will be released, since we don't want to miss the previews.

"Worry" Clark and "Grete" Steele inform the other girls that the way to make your man stick is to treat him like mud—just trample him underfoot.

It seems that Rosa Gray is due a pie now. Just take a peek into Philology class some of these days.

Stahlman still remains adamant although the girls on the campus have reached the point of asking him for dates now. How does he do it?

CAMPUS SCENES:

1. Mary Ann Wilkes haranguing in chapel.
2. Perkins and Virginia Lee holding hands.
3. Minnie Burns' puns.
4. Louise Pittman trying to make up her mind.
5. "Doc" Eyler reading examination papers in class.
6. Ralph Shelley's bashfulness.

We are so sorry that that ice cream cone and chocolate bar had to be wasted when Shelley fell off the bicycle the other day.

After almost a whole week "Crum" Akers visited the campus again.

Another springtime duet — Velda Cox and Bufford Russel.

Have you noticed how quickly Professor Hyder can get to the office when someone has a check for him?

It takes both Jack Willis and Ed Vogel to "Tame a Shrew."

We are told that the purpose of the student council was a page in the annual. 'T would be nice to leave to prosperity, would it?

GRIDMEN SWING INTO FINAL WEEK

Going into the final week of what has been a successful spring football campaign, the Lacey men prepare for their "hot weather" engagement with Boone on April 9th. Although this game will decide no question of superiority, both schools will be putting forth their best efforts.

Coach Lacey has yet to find a capable successor to Frank Taylor, last season's captain and a gridman who behaved like "old man consistency himself," but the work of Roberts, Webb, and Peace has been especially pleasing to the eye and the 1938 season may find one of these boys at the quarterback post.

SPORTS AT INITIATIONS

By GLENN WILLIAMS

If you hear some uninformed person passing out the information that college initiations are brutal, inhuman, and dangerous, just remember that there are classes of people who talk too much. In this school we have a group of boys who seem to be very considerate of the welfare of the others. I had heard a lot of talk of the brutal initiation given by the "M" Club and I lived in fear of the time when I would be taken in. As the time approached fear clutched at my heart and I was sick with the thoughts of expected agony. Then it happened. It was not exactly a pleasure tour and yet it was not as unpleasant as it had been pictured. No one fainted or cried out in sheer pain. No one was limping or bleeding, crushed or whipped down. As I look back on the matter I bear no grudge against anyone but rather I appreciate the "M" Club more. And so for any future candidates, and for all who are opposed to initiations, just remember that they are not as brutal as they are sometimes pictured.

Dr. Eyler Gives Basketball Banquet

McLean Re-elected Captain; Varnell, Alternate Captain

Milligan's Championship Basketball Team was given a banquet by Dr. Eyler in his apartment on April 1. It was a gala affair and all who were present had a delightful evening. After Howington & Company had eaten to their stomach's content, an election has held to decide upon a captain for the coming year.

Trevor McLean was reelected for the coming year. To him belongs lots of credit for the spirit and fine play of all the boys. In addition to his popularity with his teammates he is popular with the school as a whole and was elected the Most Popular Boy on the campus. With his leadership the team is looking forward to another championship. In a short speech after his election Mac thanked the boys for their support this year and pledged himself to do his best next year.

Lee Varnell, All-Conference forward was elected Alternate Captain. This marked Lee's third year as an All Conference man and he is looking forward

TENNIS COURTS ARE STILL VERY POPULAR

The new tennis courts still seem to be the most important spots on the campus in the afternoon. The courts are loaded everyday with players.

Dr. Thompson, coach of the boys' tennis team, has a large group of excellent prospects this year. With such men as Ammon Sears, W. A. White, Oris Hyder, Ed Vogel, Frazier Cochrane, Ray Perkins, and others to perform this season, there should be plenty of interesting contests soon.

The new courts are the most valuable asset to the betterment of the student activities to be added in a long time.

to another great season next year.

After this election contests were held and from these Raymond Perkins emerged victor. For the remainder of the evening card games held the spotlight. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Eyler, Capt. "Slip" McLean, Lee Varnell, Raymond Perkins, "Gene" Webb, Joe Swanay, George Swanay, "Bull" Howington, "Feeder" Fair, Clyde Cooper, Jack Keeling, D. A. Mullins, Glenn "Beetle" Williams, Professor Lodter, Oris Hyder, Ellis Cox, and Bill Blackwell.

BASEBALL MEN PREPARE FOR OPENING GAME

After completing two weeks of hard work and dull routine conditioning process, the baseball men are ready to swing into their final chores and fundamentals in preparation for the opening game with Mars Hill.

From all indications, Milligan will have a strong defensive club, but a strong offense has yet to make an appearance. The need of hitting will be Coach Lacey's biggest worry, especially in the outfield. The outer garden candidates seem to be at home defensively but whether they can hit remains to be seen.

The most likely looking men for the infield posts shape up as follows: O'Dell and Tate at first base, Varnell at second, Roberts and Weiler at short and Lawson and Weiler at third. The catching will be taken care of by Fraser, a converted infielder.

Although the absence of O'Donnell will make a difference, M. Heaton, Taylor and Webb appear capable of holding their own against the opposition.

VOLUNTEER BAND

On Monday evening, April 4, an unusually interesting program was presented to the Volunteer Band. Frieda Cecil was leader for the evening, and the program, centering around the theme of the song "Nearer, My God To Thee," was as follows: Song by the group.

Scripture, read by Lealer, and prayer.

Duet: "I want to Live Closer to Jesus," Dorothy Fox, Carsie Hyder.

Talks on: Steps Leading Unto Heaven—Delaney Tillman.

Gifts Given Through Mercy—Rose Tilford.

Living Nearer to God—Georgia Quisenberry.

Pantomime of "Nearer, My God, To Thee"—Estelle Elliott, the song being sung by Sybil Frye and Lillard Clayton.

Carpenter Awarded Fellowship

William Carpenter, familiarly known to Milligan students as "Bill," youngest son of Prof. and Mrs. J. Walter Carpenter, left Saturday, March 26, to attend the Tennessee Medical School, Memphis, after having been awarded a fellowship there.

Bill, a member of the graduating class of 1936, has been teaching in the Henry Johnson School of Johnson City. The entire student body rejoices with Bill in his success.

DR. McCALLIE UNABLE TO GIVE ADDRESS

The senior class received from Dr. McCallie, head of the McCallie School for Boys in Chattanooga, a letter which stated that he would not be able to give the Commencement Address of May 30, because of his own commencement exercises.

His letter was very appreciative of the seniors' invitation and expressed his regret at not being able to attend the Milligan Commencement.

'WHO DISCOVERED AMERICA?'

WHO DISCOVERED AMERICA, George and Keith Brown's two act comic operetta, will probably prove an innovation in Glee Club work to the majority of the present group of students.

During the past two years, the combined Glee Club's special and major work has consisted chiefly in May Festival work, participation in State Music Week, church selections, and civic organization entertainment. In addition to the above conventional work, the Glee Club under the direction of Miss Yearley are presenting "Who Discovered America?" The Stampede takes this opportunity to congratulate Miss Yearley and the Glee Clubs on the selection of this sparkling "up-to-minute" operetta which from all indications bears a striking resemblance to what we know about the "rib-tickling" work of George Kaufman and Moss Hart, "I'd Rather Be Right," now showing on Broadway.

EASTER VACATION STARTS APRIL 15TH

The annual Easter vacation will begin Friday, April 15, at 1:00 p. m., and will continue through Wednesday, April 20.

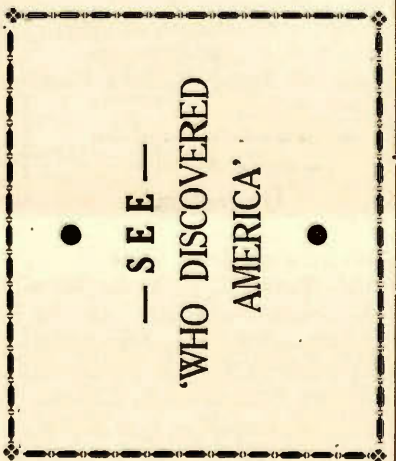

Regular classes are scheduled to resume at 7:35 a. m., Thursday.

Blaine Sturgill

Blaine Sturgill, who has been ill for about two weeks, has started improvement. Blaine suffered first from an attack of mumps.

After recovering from the mumps a secondary disease followed—infection of the nervous system.

Blaine has received most excellent care and has the sympathy of every friend and student.

An Answer to 'Cues For Initiations'

Dear Miss T.,

Allow me to take this means of acknowledging your very helpful article "Cues for Initiators" and to express the pleasure of the "M" Club members over your approval of that part of the program which you please to call original, entertaining and educational.

It is true that at the present the club members could not withstand the strain of thinking up original ideas for an initiation, being concerned with what we are quite sure are more important things. However, it seems that you, as well as the student body, are due an explanation as to why your suggestions have not been practiced.

You first suggest that the candidates be dressed to represent their "dream girl" or the masculine idea of what the well-dressed girl should not wear. Yes, I think you've got something there, but you must remember the "M" Club respects womanhood and as for "nail polish" surely, dear friend, you haven't forgotten so soon recent lectures on the feminine sex.

As for suggestion No. 2 concerning the ego Candidate Kneeling, I can assure you that by the time this appears in print his ego will not only have been deflated, it will have been entirely diffused. Of course there will be no free blowing up for Mr. Willis, for the club is utterly opposed to the blowing up of any of its members even by candidates. This we leave to the fairer sex realizing their superiority in such matters.

A peanut race—Now there, dear friend, is a worthy suggestion. But alas, the club has been using this original idea for years, except that a penny takes the place of the peanut and in a much more effective manner than even the vivid imagination of a co-ed can conceive.

Now to write a melodrama is quite a feat for any author; to stage a melodrama is quite a feat for the best actors; but to write and stage a melodrama, and without a villain—my dear friend—Could you?

Last you would have the boys cook and serve an eight-ounce dinner. Would not seven or perhaps as a minimum a six course dinner serve the same purpose? After all, you know, this is an athletic club—not a union for Hotel Chefs. Such a feat be attempted in the future, I for one, shall be conspicuous by my absence, for well can I remember the agonies of ptomaine poison.

Thanking you again for your interest, I am

Yours for better initiation,

Musical Numbers In Operetta

"College presidents we come, come, Blow the bugle and roll the drum," boldly announces and commands the eight college presidents who assemble to the "ta-ta-ta rum" of the drum to decide once and for all the age old issue as to "Who (really-Discovered America."

Having disposed of their dignity at the official request of Cerebellum, they are joined by a snappy "Summer Showers" chorus of girls, appropriately dressed for the April showers in multi-colored pliofilm capes and carrying umbrellas, who query "Do you think it's going to rain?"

"Sages Through the Ages" is the title of a charming chorus by the presidents and girls, with the age old truth: "Sages thro' the ages. Take delight in maidens ways—for while we have maidens, there is hope."

The girls and presidents open the "Gum-chewing Chorus" by working their jaws to the accompaniment of "Yum, yum, yum," as they vow they'll never chew gum again.

Phyllis, Jack, and Phil sing "Love Awakes With the Spring" supported in the refrain by a mixed chorus.

Phoebe and Cerebellum sing "Love's Dear Salute," which is followed by Cerebellum's "Diplomact," a logical recipe, compiled from a life's experience, for getting along in the diplomatic world.

"The Conversation Song" and "Love Awakes with the Spring" prepare the audience for the finale of the first act, the theme of which is the condemnation of Cerebellum by the presidents and gum chewers as he is denounced by the jeering taunts, "Behold the Man" and "Villian!

Villain! Villain!" as he tries to justify his actions.

Act II opens with a pre-matrimonial deadlick in Phil and Jack, each backed by a super martial parent (the old Army vs Navy question) refuse, respectively to break an engagement with Phyllis. The attempt to solve the problem of this situation serves as a background for the girls' chorus, "Blithely Tripping," "An Advocate-General" (by Cerebellum and Chorus), "College Medley (Phil and Cadets), "Mid Roses and Moonlight in Spain" (Sibyl Frye and Chorus), "In a Flower Store" (Olive, Jack and Chorus).

A grand finale, revaling the unsettled state of the original question "Who Discovered America?" brings the performance to a close.

More About J. E. ALLEN

In Allen's family there are three lawyers and two judges; when he reaches his objective he hopes there will be a doctor in the family. He is majoring in Chemistry and is receiving much benefit from the projects promoted by the Pre-Med. Club, of which he is a member. He plans to study for the next four years at Medical College, Richmond, Virginia.

His idea of Milligan is given in the following quotation, "If I didn't like Milligan, I would have gone to another school."

—More About— Derthick

Christian Church on Sunday night, then by way of Chicago and St. Louis, he went to Dallas, Texas where he attended the meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Due to the reconstructed depression, only a few educators were present, since many of the colleges felt that the expense of the trip was too great to send representatives.

President Derthick comments that, throughout his trip the temperature ranged from 70 degrees in Washington, 72 degrees in New York, 75 degrees in Chicago, and St. Louis, and from 70 to 80 degrees in Texas. He found no cold weather until he came home!
