

THE STAMPEDE

Published Semi-Monthly By The Students

VOL. 4.

MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN., DECEMBER 16, 1938.

NUMBER 6.

Senator Berry Speaks At Milligan College

The program of Saturday, December 3 proved a high-light in chapel programs when Senator George L. Berry, congressman from Tennessee for years, addressed the faculty, students and guests of Milligan College on philosophy of life and what present day thinking has to do with it.

However, before Senator Berry's address another outstanding event occurred when to the surprise and delight of the audience Mrs. George W. Keyes whose interest and benevolence toward Milligan has endeared her to all connected with the college, sang the Indian Love Call and The One Rose.

In his address, Senator Berry stressed the fact that throughout life mankind is faced with a struggle. (The students who succeed the present leaders "have before them a greater task that has ever been known to any previous generation.") Their life will be a struggle—a fight, but they can draw encouragement from the thought that the Son of God was subjected to all the troubles that confront us and that he was a bit of a fighter.

In analyzing the struggle before us, "neither optimism nor pessimism to the exclusion of all other thinking is good." Know both good and bad, and make comparisons with the view of finding the truth. The philosophy of life as a struggle is "Seek to be perfect with an advance knowledge that life will never be perfect. . . Thus seeking diligently for something we will never get, we can come out of a life of imperfection to a perpetual one of perfections."

In further elaboration of this theme Senator Berry stated: "All that is good in this struggle for perfection has come through the

(Continued on page 8)

Christmas Cantata Presented

The combined Glee Clubs of Milligan College presented Clokey's Child Jesus as the annual Christmas cantata Sunday evening at seven thirty, in the college auditorium as a special program for the Young People's organization.

A note of interest in the cantata was the large number of solos. Outstanding soloists of the college who sang in the cantata were Minnie Burns, Charles Bragg, Eloise Parker, Dorothy Fox, Sybil Frye, Howard Johnson, W. A. White, and Pauline New.

The cantata was under the direction of Miss Frances Ledoyt Yearley, head of the Music and Voice Departments. Miss Laura Mary Smith was accompanist.

Character Building First of All—

Dinner Given in Honor of President Derthick

President Derthick was honored at the dinner given by the Advanced Foods Class at the Home Economics Cottage on Friday, December 2.

The Home Economics Cottage was attractively decorated throughout with bittersweet and evergreen. The center of decorative interest was that of the table decoration. A bountifully fruit filled pumpkin basket with four long candles around it made up the center piece. Other candles and fruit placed on a greenery ran the length of the middle of the table.

A lovely three course dinner was prepared and served by the girls of the Foods class.

Invited guests with President Derthick and his hostess, Miss Brown, were Mrs. H. J. Derthick, Prof. and Mrs. S. J.

(Continued on page 8)

Christmas Recital

Monday evening, December 12, at eight o'clock Miss Yearley head of the Piano and Voice departments presented several of her pupils in the annual Christ-

(Continued on page 4)

Alpha Psi Omega Accepts New Members

On Saturday evening at seven o'clock the charter members of the Eta Lambda cast of the Alpha Psi Omega, National Ho-

(Continued on page 8)

Dramatic Club Presents "The Late Christopher Bean"

On Friday evening, December 9, the Dramatic Club of Milligan College scored another triumph with its presentation of the second major dramatic production of the year, "The Late Christopher Bean". The play, which was written by Sidney Howard, is a three act comedy with its setting in a small New England town during the recent depression.

Interested by Dean Eyler's delightful chapel discussion of the characters and plot of the play, and further excited by a fifteen minute broadcast from Johnson City Friday afternoon in which the members of the cast proved themselves to be radio as well as stage artists, a large crowd of students and friends braved the weather to attend the performance. Their expectation of excellent entertainment were fully realized.

"The Late Christopher Bean" is somewhat unique in offering opportunities for a major part to each character in the play however, interest centers around Dr. Haggett, the nervous New England country doctor who was excellently portrayed by Sidney Davis. Though a new member of the Dramatic Club, Davis showed great ability in this and other recent performances and promises to become one of the leading performers of the Milligan stage.

Estelle Elliot, as Mrs. Haggett, gave the part of an ambitious mother and domineering wife her usual fine interpretation of a character. Miss Elliott, a senior at Milligan, has appeared before Milligan audiences in a great variety of parts. Last spring she became a member of the Eta Lambda cast of the Alpha Psi Omega. Recently Miss Elliott and Miss Florence Potter, who was seen as Abby in Friday nights performance, were presented in a recital in directing, which proved one of the most outstanding programs of the year.

(Continued on next column)

(Continued in preceding column)

Miss Potter is also a charter member of the Alpha Psi Omega. She has been a leader in dramatic work since her entrance at Milligan. She played the key part as Abby, the trusty family servant who runs the entire family, with the skill Milligan play-goers have come to expect in her.

Gwen Mathes and Nera Kennedy were the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Haggett, Ada and Suzan, respectively. Appearing for the first time in a major performance, both showed great ability.

An unusually good performance was given by Abe Gabriele, who as the excitable Rosen, a "crooked" art dealer, repeated the success of his freshman portrayal of Mr. Hardcastle in "She Stoops to Conquer".

Oris Hyder as Warren Creamer, the promising young painter; Boyd Ray as the villain, Tallant; and Glen Williams as Davenport, the great art critic, completed the excellent and well-chosen cast.

The plot of "The Late Christopher Bean" centers around the financial difficulties of the Haggett family and the now valuable paintings of Christopher Bean, a ne'er-do-well who once roomed in the Haggett home. Ten years after his death his pictures suddenly became famous, and art dealers immediately flock to the Haggett home. The situation is complicated by the appearance of two crooks and by the fact that the pictures really belong not to the Haggetts but to Abby. Eventually Abby, discovering what is happening, reveals herself as the widow of the late Christopher Bean and her precious paintings are returned to her.

Christian Education, Hope of World

Fame

The heights by great men reached and kept were not obtained by sudden flight, but they while their companion slept were toiling upward in the night.

H. W. Longfellow

Cream of the Smoky Mountain Conference Crop

Forensic Council Organizes

The Forensic Council held its first meeting of this year Tuesday, November 22. President Rose Tilford called the meeting in order to announce both to old and new members the national debate question for the present year; to organize; and to elect officers. The following officers were chosen:

President - - Glen Williams
Vice-President and manager
Chad Gillenwater
Secretary - - - Abe Gabriele
Reporter - - - - Bill Owens

The question for debate this year as announced by the President is: Resolved: That the United States Should Cease to Use Public Funds for the Purpose of Stimulating Business.

Professor Long, Debate Coach of boys and girls, has secured a large library of current references and discussions of the question. Especially helpful are the books prepared by the National Debating Society and Statistical bulletins procured from various governmental departments.

Enthusiasm and interest in debate seem greater than in recent years, as evidenced by the large number of Freshman present at the initial meeting. The boys are out in greater numbers and it appears that some fine talent is available. Among the new students present were: Myra Cox, Kay Sluder, Frances St. John, Hugh Cline, Bill Norton, Boyd Ray, W. T. Mathes, Julian Brantley, Edgar Landers, and Lodge Evans. Members of last year's squad returning were: Abe Gabriele, Glen Williams, Chad Gillenwater, Harley Johnson, Bill Owens, Marguerite Steele, Rose Tilford, Carsie Hyder, and Janette Breeding.

Professor Long spoke of the plans for this year. Last year debates were carried on with the

(Continued on next column)

As most of the papers in this section are picking an all conference eleven, we felt that the sports writers of the STAMPEDE should not leave off such an important matter. So here goes our idea of an all Smoky eleven:

PLAYER	POSITION	TEAM
McClellan	E	Milligan
Click	T	Teachers
Monday	G	Carson Newman
McAimis	C	Tusculum
Range	G	Milligan
Clendenen	T	King
Eldrige	F	Maryville
Fleming	Q. B.	Teachers
Wilson	H. B.	Appalachian
Hughes	H. B.	Maryville
Clabaugh	F. B.	King

Second Team

Kersavage	E	King
M-redith	T	Carson Newman
Gavalak	G	King
Laws	C	Milligan
Parsley	G	Teachers
Rice	T	Milligan
Bowers	E	Teachers
Howington	Q. B.	Milligan
Garland	H. B.	Teachers
Pike	H. B.	Milligan
Biddle	F. B.	Carson Newman

These boys have played good foot-ball. All of them seem to have what it takes to be All-Conference. They were the best for their teams.

Character Building First of All

Form good habits--they're as hard to break as bad ones.

(Continued in preceding column) different schools in the conference, and two tournaments were attended in which our teams fared very well. This year most of the debating will be done in tournaments. A goal for achievement will be to attend Grand Eastern Forensic Tournament held at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Members of the Forensic Council are studying hard and soon after Christmas debates are to be scheduled.

SENIOR PORTRAITS

BY VIRGINIA SMITH

V. VELMA SMITH

Velma is a native of Georgia but she received her high school training in Chattanooga, Tennessee at Central High School. There she was a member of the Glee Club and the French Club, and she also took an active part in dramatic work.

Having planned to be a nurse since early childhood, this has been the goal toward which she has directed her learning. After graduation from high school she she entered Baroness Erlanger Hospital School of Nursing. She finished her training there in May, 1936.

Velma entered Milligan that fall. She became interested in Milligan and Milligan in her through Rev. David Kidwell, her cousin and a graduate of Milligan.

As a Registered Nurse, she has taken care of all the illness in the girls' dormitory. She has relieved Mrs. Derthick and Mrs. Bowman of this great responsibility and has adequately met all the health problems which have arisen.

During the summers Velma has been Ward Supervisor of nurses at Erlanger Hospital in Chattanooga. Summer before last she spent several weeks in Florida visiting relatives.

At Milligan Velma has taken an active part in campus activities especially those of a religious nature. She is a member of the Volunteer Band and Christian Endeavor. She also belongs to the Glee Club and the Dramatic Club.

Velma's major is biology. After graduation she plans to instruct in nursing. Some time in the future she intends to do graduate work in nursing education at Columbia University.

The thing about Milligan which most impresses her is the wonderful opportunity given to students.

A BUFFALO HE(A)RD

Many of the students are wishing that old Father Time would put on his flying togs and dash onward to the holidays and then slow down and let vacation last. Youth is like that--changeable and impulsive. So many big things are happening that the Buffalo hasn't had time to visit the college store and catch up on the gossip. Students are in so much of a rush getting ready for Christmas that they haven't had time to talk.

Why did Charles Hughes send his pillow home? And speaking of Hughes, why did he have to get a hammer and chisel from Mr. Gourley before he could put on his socks?

Even though the Christmas sleighing season hasn't started yet, some of the students are showing evidence of being hoarse and buggy.

Flash!! Earl Ritchie changed sheets because the old one broke.

What did J. W. Abbott's wife say about part of the M Club's initiation?

Who is Precious in the gym?

The poster in the dishwashing room certainly fits the characters.

Sarah Pearson wanted to know how many commandments there were in the Ten Commandments.

What's going to happen to Noel's German goitre during Christmas holidays?

Where did Cess Pool get his new name, Prince Charming?

Has Christine Little gone in for hero worship? It was Hope during football season, now it's Varnell.

There is one table in the dining hall that serves both Rice and Bacon three times a day.

When Jack saw Oris playing opposite Nera in the play, he said that three times plus practice was just too many.

Cornell Breeding asked someone if Varnell is taking up architecture. He is always looking toward the north end of the blue parlor.

We're all nutty sometimes, but Bob Turner is too nutty to be cracked.

Has Bill Owens given up the job of being a psychoanalyst since Friday night?

Mary Ellen Reed doesn't date the same boy twice in succession. Brummit and Cline alternate.

W. T. Mathes now has a competitor in his eating contest. If Cess Pool Stone ate at W. T.'s table, there would have to be two shifts of waiters.

Ask Sibyl Frye the most effective way to execute an Indian War Dance.

Even if Cowboy isn't a crooner, Dorothy Heabertlin thinks more of a "Cowboy from Johnson City" than of Dick Powell in "Cowboy from Brooklyn". She even likes the song about a "Cowboy on the Range".

What accounted for the far away look in Lura Bowers eyes the other night when Dick Douthat from Greeneville performed in the game the other night?

Someone told Hugh Cline that automobiles are damaging the younger generation, but Hugh says that it's the automobiles that get the damaging.

Is Eula Hendrix aware that a certain boy said that she was beautiful but couldn't get up nerve enough to ask her for a date?

We wonder if Nan Cody is related to Buffalo Bill.

"It is a fact that in the near future British scientists hope to successfully split the atom," quoted Long. "The infinitive, of course, has already been shattered beyond repair."

If the Townsend Plan becomes effective a lot of young people will start charging their parents for board.

Boyd Ray says that it is better to have loved a small man than never to have loved a tall.

In one of the bus trips to a football game, Gabriele said to the driver: "We are like sardines in here. Can't you prevent our being crushed?"

"Certainly," answered the driver. "Number off the passengers and then make the even numbers breathe in while the odd numbers breathe out."

Ellis Cox says that a great danger of one-arm driving is that you are likely to skid into a church.

Sam Lawson says that the only downward trend these days is that of the thermometer.

"Crook" took some of the boys opossum hunting the other night, but pigs seemed to be more attractive to the dogs. Raymond Cure can tell you all about the trip if you'll ask him.

Did you notice the number of girls who went into mourning until Steve Shelton came back? Varnell won the soup-drinking contest last week.

If Charles Hughes gets any bigger, he will have to have a tag.

We wonder what finally got Jack Cooley and Max Jarrett to conference.

THE STAMPEDE

Published bi-weekly by the students of Milligan College.

Subscription Price $1.00 per year

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor Lanora Geissler
 Junior Associates Mary Louisa Johnston, Rose Tilford.
 Sophomore Associate Nera Kennedy
 Sports Editors John Fugate, Glenn Williams, Aubrey Painter.
 Girl's Sports Editor Gertrude Garrison
 Columnists Virginia Smith, Rudolphe Dralle, Minnie Burns, Estelle Elliott.
 Reporters Lawrence Gilliam, Mary Franklin, Webb Dishman, Violet May, Travis Barker, Boyd Ray

BUSINESS STAFF

Business Manager Raymond Perkins
 Assistants — Tom Wagoner, Florence Potter, Carsie Hyder.
 Circulation Manager Ellis Cox
 Assistant Lee Varnell, Fred Dillinger
 Typists Blanche Millsaps, Edna Sutphin, Mary Elizabeth McMillian

THE PRESS STAFF

Director of Printing A. W. Gray
 Type Setters David Helsabeck, Gertrude Garrison, Elizabeth Thomas, Juanita Jones, Rosalie Harris, Fred Greer, Homer Norton, Kenneth Stone, Robert Mottern, Duane Cross, Raymond Perkins, Charles Akard, Jack Alderson, Laurie Presnell, Orville Correll, Mrs. A. W. Gray, Lucy Price, and Mary Price.

TRULY DEMOCRATIC

The STAMPEDE is a truly democratic publication - - of the students, by the students, and for the students and anyone else who may find it interesting.

For those readers of the STAMPEDE who live on Milligan's campus, it is not difficult to understand the irregularity of issues, but for those readers who are not familiar with the conditions under which the STAMPEDE is published, there is undoubtedly a question. It must be noted that the STAMPEDE is written not only about but by students who have had little or no experience in newspaper work; it is printed by students who are learning the elementary skills of setting type; it is read by students, former students, and friends of the college.

Its purpose is two-fold - - It must give training to those who in any way assist in its publication, and it must interest those who make up its audience. In order to fulfill these purposes, it is necessary for members of the staff to receive as much constructive criticism and advice as possible - -

Please give US your criticism and advice. We are the ones who need it.

Christmas Recital

(Continued from page 1)

mas recital. The program was as follows:

Sonata D Minor	Beethoven
Eleanor Long
I Know A Lovely Garden	D'Hardelo!
Edna Erle Heaton
Sylvia	Oley Speak
Howard Hamblin
The Eternal Gift	Frome
Mildred Shoun
To A Water Lily	McDowel.
In Autumn
Mrs. C. M. Eyler
Mighty Lak' A Rose	Nevis
Lullaby	Noble Cain
Freshmen Trio
Eloise Parker, Kathryn Davis
Joanna Looper
Kashmi Ri Song	Woodred Finde
Charles Bragg
Good Morning, Brother Sunshine	Lehma
Kathryn Davis
May Night	Palmore
Etude	Wollen Haup
Mable Wilson
Thank God For A Garden	Rieg
Dorothy Fox	Del Rug
Rose Softly Blooming	Spoh
Every Where I Look	Caren.
Eloise Parker
Oh! Rest On The Lord	Mendlesohn
The Night Wind	Farley
Pauline New
A! La Bien Aimee	Schul
Willena Leach
Sunshine Song	Grieg
Sybil Fry
Boat Song	Ware
Dorothy Kester
On The Road To Mandalay	Speaks
W. A. White
Ave Maria	Schuber
Minnie Burns
Polanaise (Oper. 40, No. 1)	Chopin
Kathryn Davis
The Old Family Clock	Schaefer
Come To The Fair	Martin
Minnie Burns, Pauline New, Dorothy Fox
Reflects Dans l'eau	Debussy
Laura Mary Smith
Caro Nome (From Opera Rigoletto)	Verdi
Minnie Burns
Nocturne F Major	Chopin
Eleanor Long
If My Songs	Hohn
Annie Laurie	Johnstone
Glee Club

As Christmas

Draws Near

As the Christmas holidays approach our thoughts turn naturally to our friends and parents at home.

"Just a few more days and we'll be at home" is a common statement especially among the freshmen at this season. We hear it everyday and our curiosity is aroused as to the thoughts behind it' Is it because we don't like college that we so eagerly greet the holiday season? No, we hardly believe that to be the answer. But rather we are intensely eager to see our parents again and relate to them our many experiences and great accomplishments. We know they will be just as thrilled to see us and be proud of our achievements whether we have done exceptionally well or not. We will always be the same to them, famed or unfamed.

By giving the greater part of our time to them, let's express our thankfulness for the opportunity they have given us of attending college. We owe it to them and we can be assured they'll be glad to hear of our work and other activities. Let's not give them the idea that we have been glad to get away from home, by snobbing them. Too often we forget and a fond parents heart is cut to the quick though it be unintentional on our part.

We, as college students, probably realize more than any other group of people how dependent we have been upon our parents in the past and how they have worked and sacrificed for us. We come to the full realization that after all our parents and our friends at home are interested in us for ourselves. We find, too, that others are interested in us for what we are worth to them and that our interest in them is centered no what they have brought to us of happiness and friendship. The man or woman who doesn't give something in return for what he re-

(Continued on page 8)

Stampede 'em
Buffaloes

MILLIGAN SPORTS

By Sports Editors
JOHN FUGATE, AUBREY PAINTER and GLENN WILLIAMS

We're Betting
On You

BUFFALOES WIN FIRST TWO GAMES

Tennessee Eastman

Coach C. M. Eyler's band of Buffalo cagers opened with a swish Monday night as Milligan won its opening game of the 1938-39 season by the score of 52-35. Judging by the score, most of the swishing was done by Milligan, but Eastman was off to an early lead, and shortly after the game started, the score stood 9-2 in favor of the fighting Eastman. Milligan kept losing the ball by fumbles until Fair and Webb were substituted as forward and guard, respectively. Their fast playing seemed just what Milligan needed to pull her score into the lead. Just before the half ended, Bernie Webb, who had been doing some flashy playing with his hard passing and dead-eye shooting, reinjured his knee which had been hurt in football, and was out for the rest of the game. The score at the half was 19-16 in favor of the Buffalos.

In the first half, the passing of the Buffaloes was very erratic but the players seemed to settle down as the game grew older. The second half saw the Buffaloes really get going and put on exhibition of fancy shooting and fast ball handling. It was in the second half that Leo Varnell and "Feeder Fair" demonstrated their ability to find the bucket by rolling in point after point to pull their team further into the lead. Fair was probably the outstanding player for Milligan. He scored 15 points but was coped in that department by Varnell with 18 points. Webb played good ball until he was forced to retire when his knee became displaced. Teamwork was responsible more than any other thing for Milligan's win. Varnell
(Continued on page 6)

A New Intelligencia, The Athletes

BY LEE VARNELL

CAPTAIN McLEAN

CAPTAIN VARNELL

You Will Never Be Sorry
For living a white life; for doing your level best; for your faith in humanity; for being kind to the poor; for looking before leaping; for hearing before judging; for being candid and frank, for thinking before speaking.

Modern athletes, at least, as far as Milligan is concerned, are rapidly proving the exception to the belief that athletes must of necessity be strong but dumb. In fact, many of Milligan's ranking students scholastically are also the foremost performers in athletics. The outstanding athlete of today is required many times during a single game to make important split-second decisions in much less time than is allowed the class room orator who may wander for thirty minutes before arriving at some conclusion. When you are cutting back through a hole off tackle, attempting to elude a guard for a shot at the basket, or deciding whether to swing at a curve ball or let it pass you can't take time for lunch and then act. The ball player with a single-track mind will soon be wearing a single path to the bench and eventually to the grandstand. Athletes who spend around two hours daily engaged in actual practice and an additional two hours trying to recuperate enough to engage in a little studying are expected to compete on an equal basis with students who spend those four hours in the seclusion of their room pouring over a "volume of forgotten lore" And to date they seem to be doing it exceedingly well. Certainly athletics is providing something to sharpen the units of its participants, for have you noticed that the quickest witted fellows in school are the leading athletic performers?

For the benefit of any who might be skeptical of the above
(Continued on page 8)

Greeneville

By downing Greeneville's Independent team Thursday night, the fast stepping Milligan Buffaloes won their second game of the season by the score of 50-41. The game was close through out, and several times Greeneville pulled within striking distance of the Buffs but never took over the lead all during the game.

Milligan jumped into the lead and just after the game got under way, the score stood at 10-1 favor of Milligan. The Buffaloes seemed to be hot and for a few minutes it looked as if the game was going to be a run away. But shortly after, it was easy to see that the game was not a set up for Buffs as the "Green Devils" threw in several fast buckets and then drew closer to the Buffs. From here on the game was very close and exciting. The score at the half was 23-18.

Just after the second half got under way Lee Varnell, flashy forward, switched the net for four straight baskets to pull his team further into the lead. But again the Greeneville team showed their power and determination as they pulled within one point of the Buffs and the score stood at 29-28 in favor of Milligan. The Buffs were never threatened again as the whole team got hot and threw in several fast buckets that pulled them into the lead that made them safe for the rest of the game. After this, coach Eyler substituted frequently and gave every man on the squad a chance to get some experience.

Varnell, Perkins, and Fair were the leading offensive threats while McLean played a good game at guard.

Dauthat and Morley were

(Continued on page 6)

MORE BUFFALO HE(A)RD

In the recent initiation drive, even Bo Brummett has proved he can sing.

Ask Florence Potter where she and Star entertain themselves when she spends week ends off campus.

Willie Mae Robertson has been called a modern "Madam LaFarge."

Did you know that John Fugate has Minnie heart-Burns.

Is Andy Whitt aware that a certain girl thinks he's sweet and says he'll make some woman a good husband

Joe Fair says that boxing Bill Pike is the most aggressive love-maker on the campus.

Tom Wagoner says that women are snakes but they're very easily tamed.

Sam Lawson is finally getting a little attention from Pauline. Keep it up Sam--Practice makes perfect.

Miss Angle: What kind of table cloth do you prefer, oilcloth or cotton ones?

Temus: I like the cotton ones. The oilcloth is too hard to wipe my hands on.

You'll find all the A students surprisingly well up on all their subjects if you refrain from embarrassing them by asking for the answers.

Bernie Webb has worked out a burglar alarm. At the first false move, the interloper is given the gong.

Jocho Hayes wanted to know if there was a political jam on relief rolls.

Red Mason says that he who laughs last, laughs best, but he who eats last, gets nothing.

The football boys seem to have taken up a new sport, duck shooting.

Why does Sid Davis like "The Organ Grinder Swing"?

Johnce missed one night at conference last week. We wonder why?

Notice: Bireley offers a reward for his girl's picture that was taken from his room.

What's on Coach Lacey's mind since football season is over? He took off his neck tie and put on his spats.

Whinrey: Which of you boys have been in my room? my drawer has been rifled

Mason: I didn't do it. None of my keys fit it.

Corda Marie Heaton thinks Walter Arnold looks like Little Abner.

Flash: Bill Owens broke both legs by falling for two women at the same time.

Which Gym girl thinks Duggins is "Cute as pie"?

Has everyone seen the dishwashing "Hall of Fame"? It's certainly clever.

Found: A large red handkerchief belonging to Pat Jones. Guess who's got it?

Pebble Stone has found that onions aren't a great handicap at conference after all.

Ask Dillinger why he was disappointed Thanksgiving. Maybe she'll come some other time, Jo-Jo.

Burman Hurt shouldn't feel so bashful about expressing his feeling toward the girl of his dream.

Feeder Fair plans to visit West Tennessee during the holidays. Maybe Kathryn gave up Hope so that she could be Fair.

Gillenwater is improving these days. He has reduced the number of chairs he knocks over when he enters his room.

Max Jarrett said he went to Conference the other night for the first time. --- Did you notice who the lucky girl was?

Charles Akard sleeps with a hair net to preserve his beautiful blond curls for Sally Kate Buck's benefit.

Pebble Stone shouldn't be so bashful in pursuit of his love. Someone overheard him make the remark that the one person who interests him won't give him a chance. Maybe he hasn't looked very hard for that chance!

Sarah; Don't you know you can't sew on Sunday?

Jean: I'm not sewing on Sunday. I'm sewing on a button.

When Varnell was called for fouling in the Tennessee Eastman, he was heard to remark: "Aw, foot! He pushed me first."

George Arnold said he dreamed he was awake and woke up to find that he was still asleep. Most of us do go around dreaming of Christmas vacation, after all.

Shakespear had nothing on Rosalie Wright when she said: "Oh, Cessie, where art thou?" Cess Pool definitely tried to be Wright for a while but finally gave it up and went in search of Sunshine. Maybe if he couldn't be Wright, he needed Sunshine to cheer him.

Dralle says he would like to be serious with Hazel Gaskin, but she won't give him a chance.

Boys who haven't been dating regularly are afraid to start now because they don't want the responsibility of picking out a Christmas present for a girl.

The American History class has bought a copy of sleeping beauty for Apostolou.

When girls and boys get to be of college age they forget to be good for Santa Claus.

Perk seemed to be in Seventh Heaven during Thanksgiving holidays. We can't blame him.

Have you seen the light shining in Kathryn Kail's eyes. The birdies say that it is definitely and unreservedly for Fair.

Trevor: Say, Feeder, what's the idea of wearing my raincoat?

Feeder: Well, you wouldn't want me to get our new sweater wet, would you?

Does Jack Cooley know that at least one girl thinks he has the most beautiful eyes?"

BUFFALOES WIN (Continued from page 5)

EASTMAN

and Fair were both in rare form and let the fans know that they are going to be plenty dangerous to opponents this year.

During the game, Coach Eyer found an opportunity to test the kind of material he really has this year. Thirteen different men saw service and all showed that they had much ability. Freshmen who entered the game were Hayes, Bragg, and Payne.

Milligan did not reach the form expected of it, but the Buffaloes will probably improve after a few more games.

Milligan played Tennessee Eastman a return game on December 13.

Line up

Milligan	Tennessee Eastman
Varnell 18	Garrard 10
J. Swanay	Cartwell 9
Perkins 9	Neufer 2
McLean 2	Weissinger 3
G. Swanay	Williams 6
Milligan Subs; Coober, Fair 15,
Payne, Shelton, Haynes, Gragg,
Webb 4, Howington 4.
Eastman Subs: Neely 2, Doty,
Grills 3.

GREENEVILLE

good for the visitors.

Line Ups

Milligan	Greeneville
Varnell	Douthat
Fair	Stair
Shelton	Youkley
G. Swaney	Morley
McLean (Catpain)	Akers
Subs- (Milligan) Cooper, Perkins, J. Swaney, Howington,
Bragg, Hayes, Payne
(Greeneville) Bullington

-Christian Education, Hope of World-

The ideal life is in our blood and never will be still. We feel the thing we ought to be, beating beneath the thing we are.

-Bishop Philip Brooks

The optomist fell ten stories at each window-bar He shouted to his friends: "Ali right so far!"

-anon

Religious Notes

On Sunday evening, December 4, Glen Williams led the Christian Endeavor group in an exceptionally interesting program. The program varied from the usual type in that everyone had a chance to express his opinions on the subject.

Mr. Williams called on several from the audience to give their ideas of what a "Good" man is. The opinions were many and varied, each one giving different qualities which go to make a good man. Nearly everyone agreed that the good man bases his life on that of Jesus Christ.

Minnie Burns and Dorothy Fox sang a duet, "At Calvary", accompanied on the piano by Laura Mary Smith.

-Christian Education, Hope of World-

Eta Lambda Pledges

Nine applicants to the Eta Lambda chapter of the Alpha Psi Omega were pledged on Friday night immediately after the presentation of "The Late Christopher Bean." In a very impressive prologue to the pledge, Miss Florence Potter, President of Eta Lambda, instructed the novices as to duties and obligations of the fraternity.

The following pledged: Sidney Davis, Marguerite Steele, "Kink" Peery, Boyd Ray, Glen Williams, Oris Hyder, Nera Kennedy, Gwendolyn Mathes, and Lenora Geisler. Abe Gabrielle then awarded pledge ribbons. The time for working off initiation requirements was set for one thirty Saturday afternoon.

To everyone's delight, Miss Kester provided coca-colas and cookies. Some time was enjoyed in laughing and talking before proceeding to the room being used for removing make-up.

-Character Building First of All-

Nicknames stick to people, and the most ridiculous are the most adhesive.

Haliburton

Steve Shelton Speaks In Chapel

One of the most interesting recent chapel talks was that of Steve Shelton, a Milligan student who has spent three years in Army service in the Hiwaiian Islands where one of his duties was teaching the language of the natives to members of the American Army. With subtle humor, Mr. Shelton entertained the student body and faculty with the fundamentals of the Hiwaiian language and closed his talk by saying in Hiwaiian that he wished to all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Both students and faculty extend to Mr. Shelton an urgent invitation to give other talks about the Hiwaiian Islands.

-Christian Education, Hope of World-

Mr. Fife Speaks In Chapel

On Friday morning, November 25, Mr. Earl Fife, Pastor of the First Christian Church in Johnson City and a frequent visitor at Milligan, made another of his instructive talks to the students of Milligan during the chapel hour.

Mr. Fife spoke on "The Right Life", saying, "Once we have chosen Christ and the right life, we cannot satisfactorily turn back." He discussed the constant necessity for making a choice between the right and the wrong course in every situation, illustrating with personal instances, and stressed our reliance on the weapons of truthfulness and good character.

-Character Building First of All-

Alas! To think how many people's creeds are contradicted by their deeds.

-anon.

Lost

A precious moment set with golden opportunities
No reward offered, for it is lost forever.

Frosh Lose To Washington College

The Milligan College freshmen opened thier season Thursday December 8, by taking a 31-18 licking from Washington College high school. Washington College presented a very well balanced club and stayed in front from the time of the opening until the game ended.

The game proved that among the freshman at Milligan there is plenty of material but lack of experience and working together made them look very ragged in spots.

Among the boys showing up well for the freshman was Hayes, former Blountville High School star who played an excellent floor game and was very good on defence. Charles "Pappy" Bragg played a good floor game and Peter Apostolou chimed with some fancy shooting and registered six of his team's eighteen points.

Broyles, Green, and Gasnell were the outstanding players for the visitors.

Milligan sees in her freshman some very good material coming up for the varsity next year.

Milligan Washington College
McDowell Broyles
Payne Glaze 2
Hayes 6 Huggins 3
Bragg 2 Cooper
Parsley Green 10
Subs: (Milligan) Apostolou 6,
Akard, Alexander 2, Seaton,
Jarrctt 2 (Washington College)
Gasnell 13, Queens 3.

-Christian Education, Hope of World-

Florence Potter's favorite song is still "A Star Fell out of Heaven"-What would Star say if he had seen the portrait painted for the Christmas play?

How did Grete Steel like the snow Saturday night? How about it Grete?

What frenzy dictates--- jealousy believes.

Gay

A Song Of Song Hits

When Love Walked In I saw those Harbor Lights, Moonlight and Shadows, and I said, "Howdja Like to Love Me Always and Always?" And now I have a True Confession - You Leave Me Breathless but what will I Tell My Heart?

Thanks For The Memories of The First Time I Saw You, Josephine, although Once In A While I am On The Sentimental Side. When Mother Nature Sings Her Lullaby I've Got A Pocket Full of Dreams and You Can't Stop Me From Dreaming for I Can Dream, Can't I?

Heart and Soul I've Been Saving Myself For You and I Fall In Love with you Every Day because You're A Sweetheart and You Couldn't Be Cuter. But there was a Girl In a Bonnet of Blue who said, "Let Me Call you Sweetheart," When the Organ Played, Oh Promise Me. Then I said, "Never In a Million Years will I leave the One Rose who is My Own In My Cabin Of Dreams." She wanted me to Stop and Reconsider but I knew there was A Garden In Granada where lived My Wild Irish Rose and so The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down.

Now My Little Lady Make Believe, Please Be Kind for if you don't I'll be All Ashore in Sixty Seconds. There's A Gold Mine In the Sky for us Always and Always and Love Is Here To Stay, so Goodnight Angel.

-Christian Education, Hope of World-

Walter Arnold enjoys waiting tables. Has anyone noticed that he takes the object of his interests to ball games, too.

Charles Hughes, Noel and Ritchie have to take shifts on breathing in their room.

Ask "Mule" Fugate who the little blond was that he was with at the Kingsport-Elizabeth-ton game.

Bob Rice likes red hair but blondes are appealing to him in English class.

PRESIDENT DERTHICK

(Continued from page 1)

Hyder, Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Cochrane, Prof. and Mrs. J. G. Long, and Mrs. Bill Bowman.

Members of the Foods Class are: Mary Katherine Hawkins, Pauline New, Gwendolyn Mathes, Martha Withler, Myrtle Willis, and Mary Louisa Johnston.

—Christian Education, Hope of World—

As Christmas Draws Near

(Continued from page 2)

ceives in college isn't of much worth to those around him. We find that these most popular and best liked among us are those who contribute most by friendship to others.

We all know as individuals what the Christmas season signifies to us. We realize, too, that it is the season during which we can best express our love and gratitude to our parents for the unbounded gift of love they have given to us and will continue to give us, whatever we accomplish on life's immense battlefield.

—Character Building First of All—

Christmas Play Scenes Are Broadcast

On Friday afternoon, December 6, at three o'clock the entire cast of the Christmas play The Late Christopher Bean, had the unique pleasure of broadcasting over station WJHL of Johnson City.

Four scenes were given during the fifteen minutes of allotted time. Miss Kester, as director, briefly introduced each scene. Apparently no one was a victim of "Mike" fright, and this radio venture proved a success for the Dramatic Club.

It was a welcome opportunity for the cast to familiarize themselves with the mechanics of broadcasting. Other such opportunity will be welcomed by the club.

Professor Lodter and Professor Willard generously cooperated in providing transportation for the cast.

New Intelligencia

(Continued from page 5)

statements a few concrete examples might be in order. To those who occasionally ask if Howington and Webb are passing enough hours to be eligible for basketball, this corner takes the opportunity to inform you that the former made three B's and two C's while the latter made two B's and four C's and at the same time engaged in a gruelling football schedule. Duggins seems to find little trouble making all A's. Range, Laws, and Roberts, and a host of others manage to maintain a B average, and mind you, this is done without the benefit of any afternoon study at all. This would seem to indicate that our ball players have something above their shoulders besides headgears and skinned noses.

The basketball team lays claim to maintaining the highest scholastic average of any plenary group on the hill. In this group of boys you will find a high B average with a generous sprinkling of A's. The writer has been shooting for straight A's for two years and has never missed it on more than one course. McLean and Fair make A's and B's with an occasional C. Perkins makes a flat B average; Cooper has 3 A's and 3 B's; the Swanays have 3 A's five B's and two C's between them, and Bernie and Johnce have been previously cited.

The athletes are offering no apology, they are merely contending that one need not become overbalanced or onesided in regard to books in order to maintain classroom supremacy. They insist that a well-rounded program is conducive to a well-rounded personality.

So, we will suggest that when the end of the semester draws to a close that you don't bet your hat with one of these so-called "dumb" athletes that you will make better grades than he does. You may have to go around bareheaded.

Senator Berry

(Continued from page 1)

atmosphere of Liberty, and it will be so in the future. Liberty gives mankind the opportunity to exercise its talents; and these of the farmer or the ditchdigger must be recognized and developed and this expansion is possible only in an atmosphere of freedom.

The students of today with their inborn courage, their native talents, and their background of education are well equipped for meeting a test will be greater than any met so far in our history; freedom is in jeopardy - - - our freedom at home and abroad. The map of the world is being changed almost daily, not to suit the needs or the will of the people, but by autocratic force; and with these changes freedom is minimized. America is affected by these changes and by those occurring within the country itself.

Although the purchasing power of the United States is greater than that of Europe and Asia and that is a record of which we are proud, we have not reached perfection; we have a task in furthering the philosophy of freedom. We must fight for the preservation of the democratic form of government and not compromise the idealism of perfection by permitting the attempt to overthrow freedom.

—Christian Education, Hope of World—

Milligan Represented At Tennessee Reading Clinic

On Friday and Saturday, November 18 and 19, Georgia Quesenberry and Betty Shomaker, student teachers of Milligan, attended the First Annual Reading Clinic of East Tennessee at State Teachers College in Johnson City.

Highlights of the clinic were addresses by Dr. U. W. Leavel of Peabody College, Dr. D. H. Briggs of Maryville College, and Miss Amelia McLester of the University of Virginia.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

(Continued from page 1)

norary Dramatic Fraternity, entertained the new members with a banquet in the private dining room of the Colonial Hotel in Johnson City. The room was beautifully decorated in the Alpha Psi Omega colors, blue and amber.

Preceding the dinner a formal initiation of the new members took place with the old members in charge of the installation. Miss Dorothy Kester served as Grand Director; Miss Florence Potter, President of the Milligan chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, as director; Miss Estelle Elliott, Secretary of the organization, acted in the capacity of Business Manager for the evening; and Abe Gabriele, Vice-president, served as promoter.

An informal initiation of the new members took place after the dinner and this amusing feature closed a delightful evening's entertainment.

Those who have qualified for membership in the Alpha Psi Omega and were present at the banquet included the entire cast of "The Late Christopher Bean" which was shown last Friday evening, and also those who were admitted because of their work on the technical staff. To the latter group belong Lanora Geissler, in charge of properties; Burl Perry, stage manager; and Marguerite Steele, in charge of costumes. New members who appeared in the play were Sidney Davis, Gwen Mathes, Nera Kennedy, Boyd Ray, Glen Williams, and Oris Hyder.

—Character Building First of All—

On Friday afternoon, Miss Oakie Angle, Elementary Education Instructor of Milligan College, led a discussion of group reading in the third grade.

The Education Department of Milligan College realizes benefits derived from the Reading Clinic and hopes that Milligan will be represented again next year.