Abstract:

Milligan athletics date back to the earliest days of the university, in the 1880s. Baseball and basketball were some of the first sports to be played at Milligan, with many more following after. This records collection contains information from many of these sports, coming from the Sports Information Office and general athletics records. While the records are not comprehensive, they do provide valuable information on sports at Milligan from the 1970s to more recent years.

Administrative History:

Athletics have a long history at Milligan College (now Milligan University). Baseball was the first sport to be played at Milligan in the 1880s, followed by basketball for both men and women by the 1910s. Track and tennis were also added during this time. In 1920, Milligan began playing football, which would last until 1950. In the 1960s, cross country, wrestling, and golf were added to Milligan's sports. In 1970, wrestling was ended, but two sports for women were added: volleyball and tennis. In the late 1970s, swimming and men's soccer were added. Swimming was ended in 1986 but re-started in 2007. In the 1990s, soccer expanded to women and cross country was reintroduced. In 2009, mountain biking was added to the roster of sports, eventually becoming the cycling program. Other sports at Milligan include bowling, esports, triathlon, women's flag football, and men's volleyball, cheer, and dance.

Milligan athletics have had several well-known leaders through the decades, including Steve Lacy (football coach from 1933-1941 and namesake of the Lacy Fieldhouse), Duard Walker (long-time coach of many sports and athletic director), Linda King, Tony Wallingford, and Pat Bonner. Athletic standouts across the decades include Sonny Smith, Del Harris, Tonya Bailey Jenkins, Hannah Segrave, and Megan Jastrab.

Milligan currently competes in the NAIA in the Appalachian Athletic Conference (AAC) for many of its sports. Previous conferences have included Smoky Mountain Conference, Volunteer State Athletic Conference (VSAC), and Tennessee-Virginia Athletic Conference (TVAC). Milligan also previously competed in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA).

Arrangement:

The records collection is an aggregate of different accessions and records found in the archives pertaining to athletics. As this is a records collection, further periodic accessions from the Athletics Department/Sports Information Office are expected in the future. Additionally, further series and subseries may need to be developed as records are acquired.

The Sports series is further divided into subseries by sport, arranged alphabetically. All subseries within the Sports series are arranged chronologically from first date in the folder, with folders with undated material with dates not easily definable at the end. When necessary, folders are arranged alphabetically within the chronological order. The General Files series is arranged alphabetically. The A/V series is arranged into two subseries, Floppy Disks and CDs (arranged chronologically). The Floppy Disks series is arranged alphabetically by disk description, and the CDs subseries is arranged chronologically, with undated material at the end. When necessary, folders are arranged alphabetically within the chronological order.

2. Subseries: CDs, 2013-2018, undated

Scope and Content Note:

The records are organized into three series: Sports, General Files, and A/V. The Sports series is organized into subseries by individual sport (men's and women's sports are kept together): Baseball, Basketball, Cheer, Cross Country, Cycling, Dance, Golf, Soccer, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Track and Field, and Volleyball. The A/V series is divided into two subseries based on type: Floppy Discs and CDs.

The Sports series spans 1971 to 2018 and contains undated material. The series as a whole contains information on various Milligan sports, including scores, news releases, and general information. Not all sports at Milligan (past or present) are represented in this records collection, and not all sports represented contain the entirety of that sport's history at Milligan. However, the majority of Milligan's sports since the late 1990s are well-represented in this records collection. Several sports also have material dating back to the 1970s as well. The Basketball and Soccer subseries are particularly well-developed. The Baseball subseries spans 1995 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Basketball subseries spans 1971 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Cheer subseries spans 2009 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Cross Country subseries spans 1998 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Cycling subseries spans 2012-2013. The Dance subseries contains material from 2012. The Golf subseries spans 1998 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Soccer subseries spans 1977 to 2018 and contains undated material. The Softball subseries spans 1971 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Swimming subseries spans 2007 to 2013. The Tennis subseries spans 1978 to 2013. The Track and Field subseries spans 2005 to 2013 and contains undated material. The Volleyball subseries spans 1979 to 2013 and contains undated material.

The General Files series spans 1974 to 2011 and contains undated material. This series contains information on meetings, reports, media guides, and other general athletics-related material. Additionally, A History of Intercollegiate Athletics at Milligan College 1887-1973, a dissertation by B. Harold Stout, is included in this series.

The A/V series spans 1999 to 2018 and contains undated material. It is further divided into two subseries. The Floppy Disks subseries spans 1999-2005 and contains undated material. It includes information on athletics from this time span. The CDs subseries spans 2003 to 2018 and contains undated material. It includes photos and other information about games.
