

ANNUAL FOUNDERS' DAY

Commemorating the Centennial

November 24, 1967 - 8:00 p.m.

THE W. R. WALKER MEMORIAL CHAPEL

MILLIGAN COLLEGE, MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENNESSEE

COVER

The cover picture is to show the humble beginnings of Milligan College and the men who founded it.

The original building of Buffalo Male and Female Institute is shown in the darker portion—a small, two-room building (one room upstairs and one down)—constructed in 1867.

The shaded portion shows the addition in 1881 when Buffalo Institute became Milligan College.

The gentleman on the upper left is Wilson G. Barker, who founded Buffalo Institute.

The gentleman on the upper right is Josephus Hopwood, who founded Milligan College.
