

Dorothy Walker Bio

To: Mr. Stahl

January 17, 1966

From: President Walker

The following is the substance of a news article which I would like to have submitted to the Christian Standard, to the Lock Haven Express of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania and to other journals or papers as you may feel advisable.

Mrs. Walker is in receipt of notice of her election to the volume entitled Who's Who of American Women, ~~Volume~~ Fifth Edition. This is one of the Marcus publications.

The citation which will appear in this volume is as follows:

KEISTER, Dorothy Louise (Mrs. Dean Everest Walker) ordained minister, b. Lock Haven, Pa; d. Charles Lester and Eva (Schuyler) Keister; B.S. Lock Haven State Teachers College, 1942; M.D., Butler Univ, 1949, B.D., 1949; D.D., Milligan College, 1962; m. Dean Everest Walker, May 28, 1962. Teacher pub. schs, Lewistown, Pa. 1942-46; mem. staff, Fleming Garden Christian Church, Indianapolis, Ind, 1946-49; mem. Jones-Leister Evam. Team, 1949-59; Director and Lecturer, Mission to Women, 1959--.

Who's Who in Colleges and Universities, Valedictorian: High Schol and Teachers College, .B.D in church history, classical honors, Co-founder Emmanuel School of Religion, 1965. Mem. Phi Kappa, Theta Phi, Kappa Delta Pi. Mem. Christian Church, Home: Pres. home, Milligan College, Milligan College, Tenn., Office, Milligan College, Tenn. 37682

N.B. In the copy sent to the Christian Standard, please omit the following words "ordained minister."

For the Lock Haven paper retain the words "ordained minister."

The reason for this lies in the fact that the city of Lock Haven and the Lock Haven Teachers College noted her ordination with considerable acclaim and gave her special recognition in connection with it.

For professional reasons the name to be featured is Dorothy Keister.
