GOLEBob Hope Classic lands sponsor

Golfweek magazine is reporting the Bob Hope Classic has a new title sponsor and a new format.

The magazine reported Monday on its website that Louisville, Ky.-based Humana has agreed to become the title sponsor for the Palm Springs, Calif. tournament that traditionally starts the West Coast swing.

The Bob Hope Classic has been without a title sponsor since Chrysler bailed out after 2008 during the financial crisis.

The magazine also reports that the tournament will change its format from a five-day event to a four-day tournament. That had been seen as one of the problems the Hope had in attracting a better field.
